Sit in the Shade . . . Where?

It has been called to our attention that there's no place to sit in the shade along Main St. A number of people in town use a cane. These people in particular need to sit and rest once in awhile.

Where better to sit than on the shady side of the street? While you sit and rest and watch the people go by, an old friend is likely to stop by and talk awhile. This is a double bonus and that is what makes this small town even more precious.

We do need some benches on both sides of Main Street.

So Simple and Easy

Do you have a bundle of old Betty Crocker coupons stuck back in some drawer? Get them out and add them to your current ones and donate them to buy an artificial kidney machine, please.

Mrs. Joel Engleman of Ione has been appointed Morrow County chairman for this worthwhile project. All individuals and organizations are asked to promote the collection of the coupons.

Later it is suggested that collection points be named in each community where the coupons can be left. After the coupons have been counted in each county, they will be sent to the state chairman who will in turn deliver them to the Kidney Association office in Portland.

The Kidney Association of Oregon has made an agreement with General Mills that if it will send 640,000 Betty Crocker Coupons, General Mills will issue a check to KAO for $3200 so that a kidney machine may be purchased for an Oregon patient.

An American Institution

A couple of years ago, the handgun had a lot of riders supporting gun control legislation. In the controversy over the subject, those citizens who happened to own or believe in the right of ownership of firearms were looked upon as something out of a Neanderthal past. For the time being, the controversy has tapered off, and the public is even beginning to learn more about the kind of people who have upheld gun ownership. The latter group includes sportsmen, conservationists and simply independent-minded people who see ownership of a firearm as representative of individual responsibility under self-government.

No organization has done more to present the vast body of gun owning citizens in the proper light than the National Rifle Association. An example of its work was evident during the 1970 Annual Meeting of the NRA. More than 10,000 gun fanciers toured the exhibits of antique and modern firearms and related accessories at the organization's 99th Annual Meeting. Almost every state in the Union, several Canadian provinces and a number of foreign countries were represented at the gathering. Awards were presented to members of the Association for outstanding efforts in behalf of local NRA clubs. These clubs, established across the country, carry on activities directed toward firearm training, safety and marksmanship.

During one session at the NRA meeting, an official of the Fish and Wildlife, Parks and Marine Resources of the U. S. Department of the Interior urged the NRA and its members to continue their conservation work and assist in the development of new programs and techniques to better man's environment. Other high-level government officials attending the meeting presented their views on law enforcement, crime and related matters. As was obvious to anyone attending the NRA meeting, this organization of more than a million law-abiding, gun owning citizens is one of the most constructive influences in the country on the side of law, order and citizen responsibility. It is a typically American institution.

Our Twisted Economy

Our economy is badly twisted and the "twisters" are not doing much to straighten it out. The contention that increased wages plus a cost of living increase will remedy the situation is a fallacy. That program is no way to fight inflation. It invites, in fact, insures higher prices and increased cost of living. A healthy economy requires a reasonable expansion of our capital structure if it is accompanied with a corresponding increase in production, but it cannot support all the "go, go" enterprises constructed on paper, without inviting disaster.

More Bowlers!

In the Class E Doubles Event at the Oregon State Women's Bowling Ass'n. in Portland, Harriet Evans and LaVonne Bloodworth were in 20th place to win $6.00.

CHUCK WAGON

Mike Lott recently had an accident with his bike while riding with his brother. When he fell, he landed hard on his chin and a number of stitches were required.

Marlene Bergstrom returned July 1 from St. Anthony's Hospital. She had broken bones in her leg and foot while boating on McKay Lake and had undergone delicate surgery. She stayed with her mother several days and is now at her own home. She is back to work at Peterson's Jewelers and is allowed on her feet about two hours a day.

Ernie McCabe ran a want ad on a billfold found by his daughter, Laurie. Jerry Cecil answered the ad in the G-T. Billfold contained $58 cash and valuable papers. Everyone is very proud of Laurie.

The Lyle Jensen family spent the holidays up at Westport, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen caught their limits of salmon.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sirs:

The following clipping concerning a former Heppner teacher who will be remembered by many Heppner residents appeared in the Cincinnati paper last night. Dr. Juett now lives in Harrison, Ohio.

Yours truly,
Betty Cason Fickardt

TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Enclosed is our check for renewal of the "G-T" for another year. We look forward to its coming each week but last week we didn't get it.

Each week I receive an interesting letter from my busy sister, Eva Hudson, but she never writes what she thinks I can get from the G-T. That helps to keep us in touch with the old home town. However, this year we're taking a hard look at all publications coming up for renewal and several we've enjoyed for years are getting the ax because of the inflationary trend. Our best wishes to you all.

Dear Editor:

I saw an article in your last paper, about a couple of documents of "The Episode of Heppner Flood, 1903".

Enclosed please find 25c for which please send me those documents.

I, too, lived in Heppner at the time and saw Heppner washed away.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Frank Barclay

Dear Sirs:

I am not too good with words, so I'll just put the news down and hope your staff can word it nicely for me. They are doing a great job with that paper.

I receive it here in Korat, Thailand every week. The Gazette is a great morale booster.

I arrived in Bangkok, Thailand on 22 August 1969 and the next day was transported to Nakonrajsima (Korat) which was my appointed duty station. Korat is located about 200 miles northwest of Bangkok (Krung-Tep to the Thais).

Six and one half months after arriving, I married a pretty little Local National with the name of Som See Inpata. I will be a father in a few months and will write to you then also.

I was promoted to Specialist Fourth Class (SP/4) on the 28th day of January, 1970. (You have my address as PFC still).

Dear Dot and Charles:

Please accept my grateful thanks for your printed article about Mr. Howard Day and his desire to help our destitute Navajo Indians of Arizona. It was touching that his greatest concern, seemed to be for the Indian children and their sad conditions from malnutrition, lack of proper clothing, shelter and toys.

I would also like to thank the generous hearted people of Morrow County, who have shown so much compassion for those less fortunate people of Navajo Land by their donations of good and useful clothing, (some beautiful articles still in bags, just from the cleaners), furniture, food, bedding, books, rug material, craft items, toys, useful household items of all kinds, etc.

If local papers in other towns would advertise collecting spots for this worthwhile cause, I'm sure more people would be thankful for a place to leave the items they wish to share with the Navajo Indians.

They are proud people and have not asked for help, but I cannot help but mention this beautiful, bountiful unpolluted country all belonged to the Indians in the first place. Those desiring to help could contact Mr. Howard Day, Box 419, Hermiton, Oregon 97838. He will be taking a box car load of help to them in August.

Kind regards,
Mrs. Lois Winchester

Here for Jeff Walker Services

Flying out for Jeff Walker's services were his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wray Walker of Winston-Salem, N. C. and their daughter-in-law, Brenda Walker of Thurmond, N. C. Also flying out were his brother, Edward Walker and sister, Mrs. Nettie Daywalt, both of High Point, N. C.

Unable to fly out because of ill health was Carl Walker of Trinity, N. C. Carl's name was accidentally left off the list of survivors in the obituary in last week's Gazette-Times.

The group returned to the east coast on July 3.

Visitors at Tom Hustons last week were her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Palmer, Cindy, Sandra, Terri, Ricky, Bob, and John of Portland. Expected this week for a visit are another sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Rawls, Chuck, Joe and Richard, also of Portland.

Prestons Move To College Place

Elder and Mrs. H. E. Preston left this week to make their home at College Place, Wn., where he will retire as a minister for the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

They moved from Bowdle, S. D., four years ago. They have enjoyed the friendly people of Heppner. He makes furniture and builds houses. While here he has enjoyed doing much remodeling of the church at Condon.

For the first six months in College Place, he plans to build a new home for them to live in. Then he will continue building furniture and doing cabinet work.

Mrs. Preston enjoys china painting, oil painting and playing the piano and organ.

Donald Hall of Pasco will come to Heppner in late August to fill the pulpit here. During the interim, Dr. Huber and Lester Grasser will conduct the services.

The Prestons have three children, Mrs. R. W. Heinrich of Hermiton, Mrs. Robert Case in Brazil and Eugene Preston a graduate of Union College at Lincoln, Nebr., who will be teaching at Loveland, Colo. this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Ruhl, Cindy, Laurie and Tracy of Colfax spent the weekend here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ruhl.

Jim McCabe who had been visiting here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McCabe and Mr. and Mrs. Lep Crabtree, all of Ione returned to Colfax with the Ruhl family.

BIRDINE TULLIS, Molly Saul and Sally Bay, all Home Economists for Morrow County and Umatilla County. They are ever ready to help the women with their homemaking problems.

Sally Bay Comes To Morrow County

Among the guests at the Morrow County-Heppner Chamber of Commerce Monday were three representatives of the Morrow and Umatilla County Home Extension. They were Sally Bay, new Home Economist; Birdine Tullis, Home Extension Aide and Molly Saul, Extension Agent in Home Economics for Morrow and Umatilla Counties.

Sally Bay a real cute blond will be a major attraction on the slopes at Arbuckle next winter as she lists snow skiing as one of the fun things she likes to do on her leisure time.

Rachel Harnett On Vacation

Mrs. Rachel Harnett is home after a vacation to Yellowstone Park with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harnett, Dawn and Sherre. Sean, 6 months, stayed in Portland with friends. They visited the Idaho State campus at Pocatello. They went through the park and then out through the Grand Tetons. They crossed the southern part of Oregon through Burns. Mrs. Harnett stayed in Portland for a week.
