

Munkers - Healy Exchange Nuptial Vows

Sheila Healy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Healy became the bride of Donald W. Munkers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Munkers, all of Heppner, on June 27, at 1:00 p.m. The ceremony was read by Father Raymond Beard, at St. Patrick's Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown of nylon organza and Chantilly lace with an empire waist, fitted bodice, high neckline, and long puffed sleeves. She wore a Juliet cap with shoulder length veil. She carried a daisy nosegay.

Maid of honor was Judy Gentry, cousin of the bride. Bridesmaids were Alene Boyajian, sister of the bride, and Kathy Healy, a cousin, of Pendleton. The attendants wore empire gowns with short puff sleeves of ice blue with white lace over. They had daisy headpieces. They carried white daisy nosegays.

Gary D. Munkers, Heppner, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Michael Healy, Roseburg, brother of the bride and D. T. John Nilsen, U. S. Marines, Judith Gap, Mont.

Wedding music was by Sandra Matheny, organist, and Mrs. Jay Wheelhouse, Hermiston, cousin of the bride who sang "Ave Maria", "Mother, at Your Feet Is Kneeling" and "O Lord Most Holy".

Kathlene Healy, mother of the bride, wore pale blue knit with matching hat and white accessories. Bebe Munkers, mother of the bridegroom wore a pink shantung, with pink hat, and white accessories. They both had white carnation corsages tied with blue ribbon.

Reception Follows

Wedding reception was held at the Catholic Parish hall with decorations of blue with white daisies and white candles. Serving the cake were Mrs. Jerry Daggett, Heppner, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Charlie Simms, Arlington, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Orlo Martin, Moro, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Willard Martin, Portland, aunt of the bride. The coffee and punch were

Old Friend Visits Mrs. Adkins

Mrs. Sara Adkins was most pleasantly surprised to receive a call Monday afternoon from Louise Riehl, a friend she hadn't seen since 1936. They had grown up together at Rolla, Mo. Later they were separated when Louise moved to Texas and Sara to Oregon.

Mrs. Riehl traveling with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Putz, Janine and Lori, all from Michigan, called from Pendleton for directions to get to Heppner. They were horrified with Franklin Grade but had a wonderful overnight visit with Sara.

On a four-weeks vacation, their plans were to go to Mt. Rainier and Seattle, down the coast across to Texas to visit Mrs. Riehl's sons and then home.

Visiting over the holiday with the Ed Gonty family was their son, Raymond Gonty and two of his children, Ramona and Russell, all of Seattle. They picnicked and camped over the weekend at Bull Prairie Lake. Raymond Gonty, a Seattle policeman, was two blocks away last week when a bank was blown up there.

served by Mrs. James Daley, Pendleton, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Margaret Healy, Heppner, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Michael Healy, Roseburg, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. John Neely, sister of the bride; Mrs. William Gentry, aunt of the bride; and Mrs. Randall Martin, aunt of the bride. At the gift table, was Linda Eckman, a classmate, Janet Gentry, cousin of the bride was in charge of the Guest Book. Rice bags were passed by Jackie Gentry, cousin of the bride, and the Groom's Cake by Donna Munkers, cousin of the bridegroom. The Heppner Altar Society was in charge of the reception.

Four Grandmothers attended: Mrs. Hortense Martin, Portland; Mrs. Effie Munkers, Heppner; Mrs. Margaret Healy, and Mrs. James Daley, Pendleton. Out of town guests attending were from Pendleton, McMinnville, Echo, Arlington, Woodburn, Lexington, Baker, La Grande, Roseburg, Portland, California, Washington, Montana, New Jersey, and Virginia. Approximately 250 people attended.

Preceding the wedding rehearsal the parents of the bridegroom were hosts for a buffet dinner for 25 guests at the Munkers home.

Going Away
For her going-away ensemble the bride wore pink with white accessories. They took a wedding trip to Mt. Hood and California.

ifornia. The couple will reside in Alameda, Calif.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Heppner High School. The groom is a 1965 graduate of Heppner High School. He attended Eastern Oregon College for two years, and is now serving in the Navy, stationed on the U. S. S. Hancock at Alameda, Calif.

Mrs. Parker Installs Soroptimist Officers

New officers for Soroptimist for the next year were recently installed at a dinner meeting at the Husky Truck Stop. Mrs. Etta Parker was the installing officer.

Somewhere along the line, the Heppner Soroptimists have been tagged with the "Owls". This is sometimes referred to as the "Hoot Owls" or the "Wise Old Owls". In any event, it is usually good for a laugh.

The Old Owls

A short time ago, President VI Lanham had been presented an owl plaque by Eleanor Gonty who had made the owl. The evening of the installation Mrs. Lanham presented it to Mrs. Glenn Smith, the incoming president. Ruby St. John of La Grande club said of her gift to

VI. "This is owl bait", a jeweled firefly. Later Mrs. Lanham presented each of her officers with miniature owl pins fashioned by the La Grande club.

Other officers assisting Mrs. Smith this year will be Joan Hughes, vice president; Mrs. Dean Gilman, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Heard, recording secretary; Marlene Bergstrom, corresponding secretary and board members Joyce Ritch, Mrs. Gene Starks and Mrs. Lanham.

Mrs. Smith announced the joint meeting of old and new officers on July 8. Program meeting July 9 with the IFYE student from Japan as the speaker. The business meeting on July 16 at the City Hall.

Sans Souci Drapes Charter

Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 draped the charter in memory of Josie Jones, at their June 5 meeting. A memorial was made to the library in memory of Frank McDaniel, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Stiles.

Mary McMurtry gave her report on the Rebekah Assembly held in Eugene. The Hermiston lodge was invited to bring their initiatory and drill team for the June 19 meeting. Esther Bergstrom and Mildred Padberg were hostesses for the evening.

There were visitors from four lodges present for the June 19 meeting of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge. They were from Bunchgrass, Ione, Canyon City No. 6, Holly, Lexington and Sunbeam Hermiston. The new District Deputy, Ruth Robinson of Lexington was introduced.

Teresa Wright was initiated with the help of the Hermiston initiatory team. This was followed by a presentation from the drill team.

The Good Will Harvest tour date is Oct. 12. Students going on the United Nations Pilgrimage will leave Portland July 9 after the reception in their honor on Wednesday night. Two students from this district will be going on the tour.

New Teacher to Give Garden Club Program

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin McAllister have arrived in Heppner to make their home. Mr. McAllister will be teaching business courses in Heppner High school this fall. Presently they are living in the Whitaker's studio apartment until the C. J. D. Bauman house on South Court St. is ready. It is being redecorated and some remodeling done.

Mr. McAllister graduated from Texas A & I at Kingsville, Texas and had been teaching for 10 years. Mrs. McAllister attended Mary-Hardin University at Belton, Texas.

Trees and mountains are what attracted them to the north-west. They both enjoy outdoor sports, camping, water skiing and photography. They are also stamp collectors. Mrs. McAllister enjoys singing.

Mr. McAllister went through college working in a florist shop.

Garden Club Program

This Monday he will give the program at 8 p.m. for the Heppner Garden Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heard. He will show slides of class work done in a Decorator School in Texas and demonstrates arrangements using flowers and weeds from local gardens.

Members are asked to bring a friend with them to the meeting.

DOT'S JOTS

Droopy

Things are always dropping a few years ago when our black Rambler was brand new. I was taking several Oregon State mothers from Milton-Freewater down for Mothers Weekend. We were just out of Helix when the gas tank fell off. I'd just filled up the 20 gallon tank. Gasoline weighs about 8 pounds per gallon. So when that 160 pounds fell off that Rambler thrust forward fast and then stopped! This is a real funny feeling!

I hiked up to a farm house (2 or 3 blocks) called the garage man at Helix who came and pushed us into his shop. He drained out the gas, welded a place, fastened the tank back on and filled up the tank and away we went in about an hour time.

Well Friday evening we were on our way to Ione for the Fireworks when this blue Rambler we're now driving dropped the muffler. This was a new one just recently installed. We finally found something to tie it up to keep it from dragging... but oh the noise! We really didn't need any fireworks... and Charles Navy language came out kinda loud too!

Customized Plates

Lindsay Kincaid has the first customized license plates we've seen. By paying $35 you can have license plates made with any combination of 6 letters or numerals. His says "Paid 4".

The extra fee beyond the price of the regular license plate goes into the litter fund. These special plates are yellow with blue numerals and/or letters. It is suggested that three choices be sent in so if someone already has chosen the same one you have, they can go to your 2nd or 3rd choice.

The Grand Exalter Ruler for Oregon received his license plate as a gift from his Corvallis lodge. His license plate reads, "Elk 1".

Now I can start thinking of what six letters we'd use if we ever thought of getting those $35 plates!

Vacationing

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith returned Monday from a 10-day vacation taken while the mill was shut down. They especially enjoyed their tour through Salt Lake City where Glenn had spent some time as a boy. They loved the view of the city and the mountains from the top of the Capitol Building as well as the landscaping around the LDS buildings. They went on to Elko, Nev., to do some gambling and while there enjoyed the National Basque Festival. They came back to visit relatives at Emmett, Idaho, and Baker and Union.

OCe Honor Roll

Spring Term honor roll at Oregon College of Education at Monmouth lists Morrow County honorees.

Berniece and Deniece Matthews of Ione and Jill Chitty of Heppner earned places on the honor roll.
