Velma Glass Here

Velma Glass, former Morrow County Health Nurse made a short visit in the county recently. Her many friends expressed regret that her short visit didn't allow time for them to see her.

She played golf on the Willow Creek course with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Cresswicks and Jim Shields, all of Portland, who formerly lived in Heppner.

Mrs. Glass, after her 8-10 years in Morrow County, went back to school and got her Masters at Ann Arbor. She is now working with the Medicare section of Blue Cross for the State of Michigan.

Bride Designs Wedding Gown

Toni Hill, the daughter of Lawrence Hill and Viola Hill was married to Phillip Gasser, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton R. Gasser, all of Irrigon, on June 27, at Our Lady of Angels, Catholic Church in Hermiston, by Father Simon Coughlin. The church was beautifully decorated with lavender, pink and white gladioli, with white pew bows.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, at the double ring ceremony. Her wedding dress of pale blue satin had a white lace overskirt. The full sleeves were gathered into a deep cuff. The bride's veil was of nylon net attached to a velvet bow. The dress and veil were designed and made by the bride. She carried blue carnations and white roses.

Maid of honor was a friend, Diane Griffin. Her dress and headpiece were aqua and she carried a single carnation, tied with an aqua ribbon. Her bridesmaids were Barbara and Ann Gasser, sisters of the bridegroom. Their dresses were of Jade blue crepe with white nylon lace and white satin bows. Their headpieces were of white net with blue bows. They each carried a single carnation with blue ribbon.

The music was by Doris Pitzer.

The best man was Roger Jackson and ushers were Clarence Proctor and David Franke, all of Irrigon. The candlelighters were altar boys, and the flower girl was Joan Gasser, sister of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a yellow voile printed dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink Crepe dress with white accessories.

At the reception Mrs. Gasser and Mrs. Hill served the 3 tiered cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom and blue roses. Ann Gasser served coffee while Barbara Gasser was at the punch bowl. Diane Griffin was in charge of the gift table.

For Going Away
The brides' going away outfit was a purple and white princess style dress. Their wedding trip was to Lehman Springs.

The young couple will make their home in Spokane, where Mr. Gasser is employed by Union Pacific Railroad. The bride is a graduate of Riverside High School, Boardman.

Out of town guests came from Pinehurst, Idaho, Culver, Portland, The Dalles, Pendleton, and Spokane, Wash.

Court Goes Dancing, Dining

The Morrow County Rodeo Court has had several fun things already this month. They rode in the Condon parade before a bigger crowd than usual. They were handsome on their horses. Princess Susie French and Princess Vivian Phillips went to the Hootenanny in the Park, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munkers enjoyed the music with them. They were joined for the fire works display by Queen Sherri Lynn O'Brien.

The three were joined by Princess Jeri Krebs for the dance later that evening.

Luncheon

The girls and their mothers were entertained royally at a luncheon last Thursday at Boardman by members of the Tillicum Club which sponsors Princess Vivian Phillips. The luncheon was held on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Rodney Flug.

The mouth-watering menu included fried chicken, all kinds of salads and the "piece de resistance" a beautifully decorated cake. Appropriately it was decorated with a brown horse's head encircled with a horse shoe of pink roses and Good Luck Rodeo Court 1970!

Each girl was presented with a daisy corsage tied with green. Name tags were green suede paper in the shape of a saddle. Each girl was introduced and talked briefly.

Mrs. Archie Munkers, court chaperon, was also a guest at the luncheon attended by 12 members of the Tillicum Club.

Saturday Night Dance

This Saturday night is Princess Vivian Phillips Night and the dance will be sponsored by the Boardman Tillicum Club. Music will be by the Western Gentlemen.

Early Sunday morning they will leave to ride in the Parade at the Elgin Stampede and in the Grand Entry!

Rainbow Girls Vs. Hair Do's

Five Rainbow Girls helped with the Soroptimist project of fixing hair for the nursing room patients at the Pioneer Memorial Hospital Saturday morning. Mrs. Glenn Smith, Soroptimist president, was assisted by Juanita Wilson, Diane Mills, Christi Taylor, Peggy Taylor and Sally Winters.

DOT'S JOTS

The sweetest road in Morrow County this spring was that stretch of highway between Ione and Heppner that is bordered with wild rose bushes. The scent along the highway when the roses were in bloom was marvelous.

Now that same marvelous perfume is found up Willow Creek enroute to the Well road. It smells so good!

Coincidence

C. H. Dickerson of Silverton stopped in to buy a Gazette-Times this week. He and Mrs. Dickerson had driven over that morning just to see Heppner again. In our conversation, I found out he was from Silverton and I asked him if he knew the Chuck Leonards. Chuck Leonard is married to my niece and they have a sporting goods store at Silverton. Mr. Dickerson laughed. Chuck had grown up with his sons and Chuck has his store in the same location where Mr. Dickerson had had his confectionery for many years. Wasn't that fun!

An Old Friend

Amanda Duvall brought Anita Ullman in to see me this week. I really enjoyed chatting with her and learned one thing.

As soon as I unpack pictures of my kids and grand boys, I'm going to take them to the shop. Anita had pictures of her kids and one lone granddaughter to show me.

Anita and I had gone to high school together. I really hadn't seen her since she and Al with Senator Morse had been to Joseph for a big Hells Canyon dinner about 15-16 years ago.

She has three children. Anita Jo is married and lives in the east. One son is just home from Vietnam and Wayne who just graduated from high school will attend Stanford this fall.

The next time we go through Baker we must stop and see her mother. She tells me her mother is still running the Curfman Real Estate there.

The Dean Connors and Dean's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Connor and family, of Goldendale, Wn., spent the weekend camping on Mount Adams, until Sunday when the Dean Connors went to The Dalles to pick up the 3 Parson daughters, nieces of Mrs. Connor, who will spend the week visiting in Heppner.
