CHUCK WAGON

Bill Siewert says the air conditioning in his car is model 490—you open all four windows and drive 90 miles per hour!

They say you can't beat City Hall. But you can paint it! And that's what the boys have been doing recently, in a pleasant Irish green with a warm rose trim. They made real good time on high places as they had scaffolding on a truck and moved along in a hurry.

Federal matching funds for hospitals has become unfrozen. Our Pioneer Memorial Hospital here is neat as a pin but needs things to stay even with the times. So we're hoping a way can be found to take advantage of the available funds before they're gone. (We seem to have no problems that money can't solve, as the man said.)

Larry Cook said that both the east and west teams will train at Eastern Oregon College in La Grande. One team was to train at the Baker College but since that institution is now defunct, both teams will be training at EOC. He added that Dr. Tibbles now has some very good seats for the big game next month.

One gentleman from Main Street says he has finally found a great way to start the day—go back to bed!

Short-haired girl to long-haired boy: "Of course daddy doesn't mind our being alone together. He thinks you're a girl."

The first grade students had found a stray cat, and the distraught teacher finally agreed to allow them to keep it for awhile. After a few minutes, one small boy asked the teacher if it was a boy cat or a girl cat.

Not wishing to get into that particular subject, the teacher said she couldn't tell.

"I know how we can find out," piped another youngster. "All right then," sighed the teacher, resigning herself to the inevitable. "How can we find out?"

"We can vote," the youngster announced.
