Challys Go To Iowa

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Chally and Laurie left June 5 for a vacation trip to visit relatives in Iowa. They enjoyed sightseeing as they drove. At Salt Lake City, they rode on the brand new road to Antelope Island out in Salt Lake. The roadway is 7 miles long. The island is a National Park noted for the wild life. There's a herd of buffalo on the island.

In Eastern Utah they visited Dinosaur Park. Sue flew to Iowa to join them for part of their vacation. They were on the campus at Iowa City of the University of Iowa which is Mr. Chally's alma mater. With his brother he attended their high school reunion.

They saw lots of corn and soy beans growing.

On June 30 they started home. They stopped at Mt. Rushmore. Helicopter and cable rides are now available to see the famous monument. They went to the Rushmore Caves, Custer Battlefield in Montana. They visited in Spokane and arrived home July 5.

Fair Booths All Assigned Table Space Available

By LENNA SMITH
Fair Secretary

Unless we have cancellations, regular booths are all taken for this year's Morrow County Fair. There is still plenty of space for tables, etc., so if your club or organization wishes to reserve a space, please call the fair secretary as soon as possible.

Booth exhibits are open to any organization, school, club, grange and farm. The exhibit shall tell a story of the community or the work the organization is doing. Local products of homes, garden and farm should be used. Any organization in the county is eligible to enter and booths will be judged on the following score: 1. Story it tells and effectiveness in telling important story of the community. (Marketable products. Specialty of the community, or the features of community living, etc.)

2. Importance to community ..... 30 pts.
3. Effectiveness of the booth must present center of interest, simplicity, balance, color ..... 40 pts.

2. Quality of product ..... 20 pts.
3. Originality ..... 10 pts.

Booths may be worked on Monday, August 24 (or sooner), and must be in place and area cleaned up by 8:00 p.m. Tuesday, August 25. Center aisle booths may not go to ceiling. Each booth will be awarded a $10.00 premium to help defray cost of display, regardless of placing when judged. . . . unless booth is commercial. Commercial Exhibit Space is rented at $2.00 per foot of frontage. The Fair Board welcomes commercial exhibitors for large outside displays, such as farm equipment, house trailers, boats, etc.

The following have reserved booths for the 1970 Fair.
