

MR. AND MRS. CARROLL LEE MESSENGER, who were married June 20 in Portland.

Riverside Grads Marry in Irrigon Ceremony

Betty Eppenbach, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Eppenbach of Irrigon, became the bride of Gary Baird, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Phillips of Boardman, on June 27. The Rev. Herbert Vaughan performed the double ring ceremony at the Irrigon Community Baptist Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore an empire waist dress of Point D'Esprit with bell sleeves and chapel train. Her shoulder length veil fell from a tiara decorated with seed pearls and chiffon butterflies. She carried a cascade of red roses. Her matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Donna Matlack, who wore white chiffon with white net and carried a single red rose. The best man was William Hansen, a cousin of the groom.

The brides mother wore a peach lace dress with three quarter length sleeves and wore a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua knit dress and corsage of red roses.

At the reception in the church basement, the beautiful 4-tiered cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was served by Mrs. Elbert Eppenbach and Mrs. John Marlow. Mrs. Wayne Eppenbach served coffee. Mrs. Norma Eppenbach was at the punch bowl. Mrs. Wayne Eppenbach was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Ray Phillips was in charge of the gift table.

For going away, on their trip to Canada, the bride wore a navy blue knit dress with white collar and red accessories.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Riverside High School, Boardman and Blue Mountain Community College, Pendleton. They plan to make their home in Pendleton where the groom is employed by Firestone.

Out of town guests came from Baker, Pendleton, Prineville, Kennewick, Benton City, Hermiston.

Newlyweds to Tour Yellowstone

Vivian Louise Zindler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Zindler of Rapelle, Mont., became the bride of Carroll Lee Messenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger of Lexington, on June 20 at the Evangel Baptist Church in Portland. The Rev. Richard Cox officiated.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a wedding gown of white chiffon over satin with lace bodice and slight puff to long sleeves. She carried yellow cymbidium orchids and stephanotis on a white Bible, gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. John Zinne, sister of the bride from Livingston, Mont., was matron of honor. She wore a yellow floor length gown with empire waist and carried a long stem yellow rose. The bridesmaids wore identical frocks in aqua. They were Miss Betty Shan of Seattle, Miss Katie Freeman and Miss Linda Barry, both of Portland.

Gerald Messenger of Portland was best man for his brother. Ushers were Rick and Bruce Marquardt and Matt Hughes.

Rica Kaufman sang "Hand in Hand", "The Wedding Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest" accompanied by Bernard McClain.

DOT'S JOTS

Imagine my amazement while writing up the Messenger-Zindler wedding which took place in Portland to read that the organist was my cousin Bernard McClain.

I grew up with a raft of cousins my same age and in those days he was one of my favorites. Then we moved to Eastern Oregon and I haven't seen him much for a long time. About all I know now is that he owns his own tool manufacturing company and in Portland famous as a musician. He has five daughters and all their names begin with J.

Sitting in The Shade

I like the idea of having benches along Main St. I've talked to the third bench maker. The first two were too busy but Jack Loyd says he'll make me one. Its fun seeing Jack around. Charlie and I knew him when we were all going to school in La Grande.

My maiden name was Lake and in several classes Jack and I were seated next to each other. In those days, all the gals thought Jack was the handsomest football player on the team. (Flash on Charlie—To heck with football players!)

Mrs. Engleman . . . Betty Crocker Coupon chairman . . . called Tuesday to say she had 3638 coupons turned in. She is making posters and will soon distribute them around the county.

She said she was sure that Hicks Market at Boardman would collect the coupons for that area.

Bridal Shower Honors Vicki

Thursday evening, July 16, at the Methodist Church hall, was the scene of a bridal shower honoring Miss Vicki Bardenhagen, fiancée of Steve Wagenblast. The serving table and cake were decorated with the bride's chosen colors of pink and orchid. Mrs. Randall Martin presided at the punch bowl, Mrs. Ken Evans attended the coffee service, and Mrs. Dave McLeod served the cake.

Kitti Bardenhagen registered the guests. Patti Bardenhagen and Debbie McLeod assisted the honoree in opening and displaying the shower gifts. Out of town guests were Mrs. Hans Bardenhagen, mother of the bride-to-be, Kitti and Patti Bardenhagen, sisters of the bride-to-be, all of Grass Valley. Hostesses were Mrs. Darrel Harris, Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Mrs. Irvin Rauch, Mrs. Clarence Baker, and Mrs. Hal Whitaker.

both of whom are from Portland. The church was decorated with bouquets of yellow gladioli with white carnations. Aqua candles were tied with yellow bows.

Reception Follows

The reception was held in Fellowship Hall. The four-tier cake was baked in the form of a Maltese Cross and was decorated with yellow roses. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Art Swanson and Mrs. Richard Cox. Serving coffee and tea was Miss Jean Pressnall and at the punch bowl was Miss Dorothy Hunter. Carlita and Lolita Marquardt attended the gift table and Janet Patterson had the guest book.

The bridegroom's mother wore pink crepe with lace overcoat and white accessories. The bride's mother wore a double knit of yellow and tangerine. They both wore cymbidium orchids.

After a wedding trip to Yellowstone Park and Montana the couple will reside in Portland.

Guest Vicar At All Saints'

Richard Thew, Lay Vicar of St. Thomas, Canyon City will conduct morning prayer at All Saints' Episcopal Church July 26, 10:00 a.m. Mr. Thew is a former high school teacher at Condon and a recent graduate of the Episcopal Theological Seminary in Cambridge, Mass. He is to be ordained a Deacon in the coming months and will serve as a Worker Priest in Canyon City. Since the time of the Apostle Paul some men have held a regular secular job while serving a congregation. Dick is dedicated to this type of ministry which will prove to be both new and exciting for the Episcopal Church in Eastern Oregon.

There will be a regular 7:30 a.m. Holy Communion on the 26th. But the Rector, the Rev. Dan Thompson will go to St. Thomas, Canyon City for an 11:00 o'clock service.

Pre-Fair Style Revue Sets Stage for Aug. 26

By BIRDINE TULLIS

Emphasis was given to "It's Fun to be a Girl" at pre-fair style revue training offered 4-H girls, leaders and mothers of Morrow County this week.

Liz Curtis of Heppner, former home agent and judge, gave tips on grooming, modeling, accessories, and the judge as your friend, to prove her point. All girls practiced modeling on stage, sitting, walking, straddling and removing coats gracefully. Liz was assisted by Sally Bay, new Morrow-Umatilla county 4-H home ec agent, and Diane Gerking of Heppner.

Fun events of the afternoon were on impromptu showing of posture "do's and don'ts" by Sally Bay, assisted by four 4-H members, and a hat revue pointing out the visual effects of line and design on differing figures shapes and sizes.

The full house attendance at the training is evidence that 4-H members do believe being a girl is fun, and point toward a big style revue at county fair.

Four-H Style Revue will be held outdoors at the fairgrounds this year on Wednesday, August 26 at 8:00 p.m. The public is invited to attend all 4-H fair events.

Mrs. Lulu White Visits Here

Mrs. Lulu White of Pilot Rock and her grandson, Craig White of Anaheim, Calif., spent Sunday here with her sister, Mrs. Amanda Duvall. They attended the United Methodist Church picnic at the Courthouse park with Mrs. Duvall.

Craig arrived last week by jet and will spend some time with his grandmother at her ranch on West Birch Creek near Pilot Rock.

Society AND Clubs

MIDORI FURUKAWA, IFYE from Japan, with her parasol as she does a Giesha dance for the Soroptimists.

Soroptimists Hear IFYE Student

"In Japan birthdays are not celebrated by individuals in each family, but the boys have a Boys Festival and the girls have a Girls Festival." Midori, the Japanese IFYE student told Soroptimists this and about other customs in Japan that are different from those in the United States at their meeting last Thursday at the Wagon Wheel. Midori was a guest of the club along with Mrs. Dick McElligott. Midori is staying with the McElligott family while she is in Morrow County. She liked riding on a combine at the Tews ranch the day before.

Grange Picnic Dated

The Women's Activity Club of Rhea Creek Grange met at the home of Mrs. Ray Drake on Thursday, July 16, for an afternoon meeting. Sunday, Aug. 2, has been chosen as the date for the Grange picnic at Anson Wright Memorial Park starting at 1:00 p.m. This will be a pot-luck picnic with everyone bringing their own table service. Friends and Grangers are invited.

It was decided that the Club will start sewing for the hospital at our October meeting. Mrs. John Graves, Mrs. Orian Wright, and Mrs. Ray Drake reported on Pomona Grange which they attended the evening of July 11 at Boardman. Those present included Mrs. Adrian Becholdt, Mrs. L. Babb, Mrs. Ray Wright, Mrs. Glen Farrens, Mrs. Harold Wright, Mrs. Clive Huston, Mrs. Orian Wright, Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Cecil Lutkins, Mrs. John Graves, Mrs. Paul Warren and daughter Joan, Mrs. Elmer Palmer, Mrs. William Bergstrom, and the hostess Mrs. Ray Drake.

Carnation Club Meets With Mrs. McMurtry

Mrs. Pete McMurtry invited the members of the Carnation Club of the Degree of Honor Protective Ass'n. to meet at her home July 14. Members enjoyed the meeting and refreshments on the patio. After the meeting a card game was played.

Present for the evening were Mrs. Alice McCabe, Mrs. E. E. Gonty, Mrs. Archie Padberg, Mrs. Carl King, Mrs. Lincoln Nash, Mrs. Mabel Chaffee, Mrs. Adelle La Trace, Mrs. Wilbur Steagall and Miss Doris Robison.

Ideas for the Fair and Parade theme were discussed. Mrs. McCabe will chairman the collecting of Betty Crocker coupons to be used towards a kidney machine for Morrow County.

Soroptimists Buy 9 Books for Girls

The Heppner Soroptimist Club has purchased 9 books for girls. They have been placed in the Heppner Library.

"The Odd Ones" by Lambert. After completing her first two years of college in Indiana Josie Campbell is determined to mull things over and set her own course. While her parents take a leisurely trip on their Chinese junk she goes east to an island off the Atlantic shore to board with a family friend and have time to write and think. She meets a young man there and begins to question whether she wants to return to college at all.

"Halfway Hannah" by Clayton. Hannah Jo Hanson, a motherless southern girl realizes when she meets the challenge of new surroundings, after a move to Vermont, how satisfying it can be to stand up for one's own convictions.

"Those Gresham Girls" by Jones. Ginny Gresham's ambitious home remodeling projects almost lead her family to disaster before she learns that there are things far more important than an elegant looking home.

Jill Makes Honor Roll

Jill Chitty is earning college money this summer by working at the Bob Kilkenny ranch. She attended OCE her freshman year and finished with a GPA of 3.65. She made the honor roll all three terms. She expects to transfer this fall to SOC at Ashland. Jill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Chitty.

Swifts 'Martha Logan' Visits Barton Clarks

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark have had guests from Newton, Ill. They were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dulgar, Karen and Randy, cousins of Bartons. They flew out to Yellowstone where they rented a car and drove to Pendleton. Bart met them there and they came to the ranch for a week.

Karen went from graduation to an alluring job with Swift & Co. She is THE Martha Logan for Swifts. As their Home Economist she promotes Swift products. When NASA is preparing for a space flight she works on "space foods". She is promoting their High Protein meats that have been injected with special proteins.

In her work she may put on a luncheon to promote frozen and canned Swift products. Guests will be buyers from countries all over the world.

While she was here Bart prevailed upon her to make a berry cobbler. They had great fun when the shortening Beth had on her shelf happened to be "Swiftening". Then to continue in the right path, Kathy, who is Mrs. Ned Clark, had a "Martha Logan Cook Book".

Kathy and Beth have both been promised the new cook book that is just ready to go to press on Outdoor Cookery.

Bart's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Allen of Redmond came on Wednesday to see the Illinois folks.

Ola Mae Groshens Visits Parents

Ola Mae Groshens has returned from Portland where she visited for two weeks.

She was in Portland for her father's 80th birthday. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hough enjoyed visitors that day from 1 o'clock in the afternoon until late in the evening. They had friends and relatives from all around. Mr. Hough's sister, Mrs. Lela Voez was there from La Grande.

Joining Ola Mae in planning the day were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hough from Sacramento, Calif.

Mrs. Larry Angell was in Pioneer Memorial Hospital several days last week for medical attention. She is now home recovering.
