Herman Winter Meets Family At Quantico

Major Herman Winter, Commanding Officer of Co. D 4th Tank Bn USMCR Yakima, was on the Yakima firing range for summer camp for two weeks early this month. Later he spent a week at Quantico, Va., at an Armored Symposium. He was joined here by his family who had been driving and sight-seeing back to Virginia. He flew home and his family was to go on to Fredericksburg, Williamsburg, James Town and drive back home with more sight-seeing.

Harold Peck Heads MC Democrats

At the meeting of the Morrow County Democrat Central Committee Harold Peck was elected chairman. Mrs. Wesley Marlatt, secretary and Wesley Marlatt, treasurer. Coming right at harvest, it isn't known yet who will be able to attend the State Convention in Bend on July 31, Aug. 1-2.

Guests Enjoy Hardman Views

Roland Farrens of Milwaukie and his friend Walter Walters from Portland and Mrs. Tom Fraters of Grass Valley spent the weekend visiting here with Lucille Parrish, who is a sister of Mr. Farrens and Mrs. Fraters. They looked around up at Hardman where the Farrens family grew up. This was Mr. Walters first visit to the area. He took a lot of pictures and was enthusiastic about the views. Unfortunately from the lookout point near Hardman where five snow peaks are sometimes visible, there was too much haze and they weren't able to see them.

At C. H. Privetts

Company for a long weekend at the C. H. Privetts were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whaley of Salisbury, N. C., and their six children and the Privetts daughter, Mrs. Alan Brown, Mark, LeAnn, Tad and Kenneth of Eugene. All of them with Mr. and Mrs. John Privett, Kim and Karen enjoyed the beauties of Anson Wright Park while picnicking Sunday.

New on Main St.

There's 2 new coats of paint this week on Main St. Hamlin's has a lemon yellow front with a butterscotch trim. This looks pretty nice next to the new coat of blue-green at Cal's Cafe. Also new at Cal's Cafe is a boarded up window said to have been necessary when "a body" went through the window!

Ekstrom to Rebuild

Herb Ekstrom at Ione expects to start any day on the rebuilding of his building that burned. He expects to put up a similar steel building. He has drilled a well adjacent to the building. It is 170 feet deep. The well had been completed before the fire but the rig was still over the well.

Ione Principal Here

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Brandon have moved from Mt. Vernon to Ione where Mr. Brandon will be principal of Ione Schools. He is attending the U of O this summer for his 6th year with emphasis on administration. He received his BA and MA from the College of Idaho. Mrs. Brandon attended Northwest Nazarene College. They have a daughter, Jill, who is a year old.

JIM THOMSON

The Jim Thomson home is arrival home of two daughters, very busy these days with the several grandchildren, and a niece and her family. Mrs. Meredith Walters and her two sons, of Los Angeles, arrived last Friday to visit with their parents. Her husband, a pharmacist, was unable to leave his work. Bernice Thomson, Portland, is also spending a week's vacation with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Thomson expect their son Bruce to arrive Sunday for a days visit. Bernice, Meredith, and her two sons will return to Portland with him, from where Meredith and her sons will fly home. Other visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Thomson's was Mrs. Thomson's niece and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Leetch, and three children. The Leetch's drove up Wednesday morning from their home in Vancouver, Wn., to spend the day.
