

JOYCE HOWTON

Oct. 16 Wedding Date is Set

Lloyd Howton, Ione, would like to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of his daughter, Joyce Ellen Howton to Tommy Keith Dickey of Hermiston.

Miss Howton is a graduate of Ione High School, 1969, and has received her Medical Assistant Certificate from Lane Community College, Eugene, and is now employed with Byers Avenue Clinic in Pendleton.

Tommy Keith Dickey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dickey of Hermiston. He graduated from Hermiston High School in 1967 and Blue Mountain Community College in 1969. He is presently attending the University of Oregon where he is a senior majoring in Accounting.

The marriage is planned for October 16 in Hermiston.

MR. AND MRS. Rodney Linnell peruse the family Bible they were given as a wedding present.

Daisies Beautify Linnell-Akers Rites

Bonnie Kae Akers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers, and Rodney Donald Linnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Linnell, all of Ione, exchanged wedding vows in an afternoon ceremony June 13, 1970 at 4 p.m. at the United Church of Christ, Ione with Rev. E. A. Cutting of the Methodist Church of Heppner performing the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with large bouquets of white and yellow daisies, green gladiolus, white snaps.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and was given in marriage by her parents. The bride wore a floor length gown fashioned in silk organza over taffeta with high rise bodice of Chantilly lace with bishop sleeves. The dress was trimmed with pearl beads. It had an A-line skirt with Matteau Chapel train trimmed in lace. The veil was elbow length English import illusion. She carried a bouquet of white daisies on her Rainbow Bible. She wore the traditional blue garter and carried a penny in her shoe placed there by her father. She carried a yellow linen and lace hanky of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Jeessie Hartfield.

Kathy Keene was maid of honor; Marcia Linnell, sister of the bridegroom; and Joyce Howton were bridesmaid.

They wore yellow floor length dresses trimmed with white daisies. Their head pieces were yellow net bows trimmed with white daisies.

Flower girls were Ramona Akers, niece of the bride and Anita Palmer. They wore green floor length gowns trimmed with white daisies. They carried small white baskets from which they dropped flower petals. Jeffery Akers, nephew of the bride, carried the rings on a white heart-shaped satin pillow.

Brook Linnell was best man for his brother. Ushers were Virgil Morgan, cousin of the bride and Lennie Hanna.

Candlelighters were Deniece and Berniece Matthews, cousins of the bride. Wedding music was by Darrel James, organist and Anna Lee James, vocalist.

Mrs. Akers chose a green dress with green and white accessories. Mrs. Linnell chose a yellow dress with yellow and white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of yellow orchids.

The wedding reception was held in the social room of the church. Bouquets of summer flowers had been placed about the room. After the first piece of the tiered cake topped with white bells had been cut by the bride and bridegroom, it was cut and served by Mrs. Hazel Miller and Mrs. Edith Matthews, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Mary Blettell and Mrs. Ruby Roberts. Serving the coffee were Mrs. William Zastrow, grandmother of the bridegroom and Mrs. Nancy Akers, sister-in-law of the bride. Serving punch were Mrs. Jessie Hartfield, grandmother of the bridegroom and Mrs. Janice Akers, sister-in-law of the bride.

Anita Crawford, cousin of the bride was in charge of the guest book. Bonnie Morgan, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Lynette Akers, sister-in-law of the bride were at the gift table. Barbara Palmer passed out the scrolls. Laurie Childers passed out groom's cake and Rodger Childers passed out the rice bags.

Mrs. Helen McCabe was in charge of the reception assisted by Mrs. Bryce Keene, Mrs. Cleo Childers, and Mrs. Milton Morgan. Mrs. Lee Palmer was in charge of church decorations.

The bride chose a yellow linen dress with white accessories and wore a yellow carnation corsage, for her going away ensemble.

The bride, a 1969 graduate of Ione High School, has attended Oregon College of Education and Blue Mountain Community College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Ione High School and has attended Blue Mountain Community College.

After a trip to the coast they returned to Ione. Rodney is working in harvest and after Sept. 1 they will live in Boardman where they will manage the Nugget Motel.

Many out of town guests were present including friends and relatives from Hermiston, Boardman, Lexington, Heppner, Pendleton, Arlington, Condon, Mayville, Estacada, Gresham, Hartford, Conn.; Pine Ridge, S. D.; and Lacey, Wn.

Preceding the wedding rehearsal Mr. and Mrs. Donald Linnell entertained 32 guests at a dinner at the Wagon Wheel in Heppner.

The Pat Wonsers recently had a vacation trip to California. At Gridley they enjoyed a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Adamson and family. Jerry was formerly the J. C. Penney manager here. The Adamsons said to say "Hi" to their friends up here.

DOT'S JOTS

Little Miss Clowry brought in this little poem that I will pass on:

IT'S UP TO YOU
Have you made someone happy, or made someone sad,
What have you done with the day that you had?
God gave it to you to do just as you would,
Did you do what was mean, or do what was good?
Did you hand out a smile, or just give 'em a frown,
Did you lift someone up—or push someone down?
Did you lighten some load, or some progress impede,
Did you look for a rose, or just gather a weed?
What did you do with your beautiful day,
God gave it to you, did you throw it away?

Recently visiting Ida Farra were two of her sisters, Milbina Ashcraft of Grandview, Wash., and Christine Reihls of Sunny-side, Wash. They were accompanied by Mrs. Reihls' sons, Jeff and Paul.

Mrs. Farra's store building was recently painted.
