

Shrine Queen Guest Of Soroptimists

Shrine Queen Kathy Schwarzin was the guest of honor at the Soroptimist Club luncheon Thursday at the Wagon Wheel. Accompanying her were her mother, Mrs. Felix Schwarzin and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cook who were also guests at the luncheon.

Mr. Cook, an enthusiastic supporter for the Shriners Hospital introduced Queen Kathy. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Schwarzin. She was admitted to the Shrine Hospital in December, 1964 for foot correction. She was permanently discharged in May, 1967.

At first she was quite shy in the "queen" limelight but she is gradually overcoming this. She is in the fifth grade, plays clarinet in the band, is in 4-H sewing club, belongs to All Saints' Episcopal Church and sings in the choir.

She will share in the Shrine activities at the East-West Football parade and game in Pendleton on Aug. 22.

Mr. Cook gave some interesting and revealing statistics on the hospital. The first hospital was opened in Portland in 1922. It now has a bed capacity of 60 with a waiting list of 95. In 1969 there were 423 admitted to the hospital for a total of 22,098 patient days, cost per patient day $39.13.

There were 316 braces made by the hospital brace shop, 715 casts applied, 7,350 x-ray films, 10 orthopedic operations and 132 surgical procedures.

They have three burn units at Galveston, Boston and Cincinnati. Oregon has three guests in the Galveston unit from Stayton, Ontario and St. Helens.

Pictures were taken to close the meeting.

Mrs. Mike Gray urged members to sign up for their preferred time to serve at the Country Store at the Fair.

Mrs. Glenn Smith announced the board meeting for July 30 at the Wagon Wheel and the business meeting on Aug. 6 at the City Hall.

MR. AND MRS. DAVE HALL

Bride Wears Mothers Wedding Gown

Nancy Elizabeth Richardson was gowned in the princess style white satin wedding dress of her mother, when she became the bride of David Eugene Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene G. Hall of Heppner July 27 at the First Christian church in Madras. The double ring Episcopal ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dirk Rinehart of the Episcopal Church of Pendleton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Richardson of Madras. Her gown had a full train. The bodice was trimmed with seed pearls and detailed with beaded neckline. Her full length veil was held in place by a crystal crown originally worn by Sandra VanWent Grimm.

She carried an orchid on a white Job Daughter's Bible, shower ribbons and stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her father.

Sandra Snow of Madras, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length A-line gown with empire waist, of white lace over peacock blue satin, and carried three long stemmed yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Katie Kennedy and Martha Specht, both cousins of the bride; Nancy Doherty of Heppner and Peggy Eidemiller, Madras. They wore gowns similar to that of the maid of honor, and each carried a single long stemmed yellow rose.

John Hall of Heppner, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were John McCulley of Malin, Bill Bellamy of Moro, Ron Wilkinson of Lebanon.

on, and John Richardson, brother of the bride.

Music included the traditional professional and recessional, DeAnn Butterfield of Medford, sang "The Lord's Prayer." Gerald Snow of Madras and Kent Kennedy, cousin of the bride from Eugene, lit the candles.

For the ceremony, the bride's mother wore a champagne colored A-line dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a lime brocade jacket dress and white accessories. Both women wore white orchid corsages.

Job's Daughters were in charge of the reception, held following the ceremony at the Madras Masonic temple.

Mrs. Edward Richardson of Madras, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Mark Mulder of Everett, Wn., cousin of the bride, served the bride's cake. Cindy and Jan Ekstrom, Heppner, cousins of the bridegroom served the punch, and Dorinda Steiger, also a cousin of the bridegroom from Portland, poured the coffee.

Kerry Kennedy, cousin of the bride, Eugene, presided at the guest book; and in charge of the gift table were Marie Van Marter and Donna Flack, cousins of the bridegroom of Heppner. The gifts were opened by Susan Friday and Janet Victorine.

For Traveling

When the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Victoria, B. C., the bride wore a navy blue and white dress and coat with navy accessories and a white hat. She also wore the orchid which she had carried on the Bible during the ceremony.

They will make their home in Heppner for the remainder of the summer, after which they will return to Corvallis, where they are both students at Oregon State University. Dave is OSU Student Body first vice president.

Nancy graduated from Madras High School in 1969. Dave graduated from Heppner High School in 1968, and then spent one year serving as a state officer for the Future Farmers of America before entering OSU.

Special guests at the wedding were the four sets of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester M. Kennedy of Madras, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Richardson of Lakeview, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Archie C. Ball Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hall, all of Heppner, grandparents of the groom.

Out of town guests came from all over Washington, Oregon, and California.

The Fair is Flower Time

By LENNA SMITH

Flowers are always a beautiful and interesting part of the Morrow County Fair. It seems as though everyone has some type of flower growing in his yard that will apply to the lots and entries in the fair premium book—if there is no lot listed for the specific type flower in your yard, the fair board makes new lots to fit the flower. Please look through the new fair premium book and enter in as many different lots as possible. Fair Board says, "Let's make this the Best fair year ever." The Flower section begins on page 35.

Most all containers are furnished by the fair board, however, if you have a special container you wish to use, this is satisfactory. Three (3) stems of any variety constitute an exhibit, except as otherwise indicated in the premium book. The foliage of plant is required with bloom. Only one entry may be made in each class or class division, but all are welcome to enter as many classes as possible.

Horticulture specimen must be grown by the exhibitor and should be labeled with the correct name whenever possible. Flowers used in arrangements need not be grown by the exhibitor.

Entries will be open at 3:00 p.m. and closed at 5:00 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 25 to permit as many exhibitors as possible to bring in potted plants and to begin arrangements. Entries will also be received beginning at 8:00 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 26 and close at 11:30 a.m.

Theme for the Flower Boxes is "Period." You have your choice of historical periods and be sure and name your entry.

Prizes are $2.50 for first; $1.50 for second, and $1.00 for third place. Sweepstakes in Horticulture—Most blue ribbons received from entries.

Sweepstakes in Arrangements—Most blue ribbons in arrangements.

Best of Horticulture—Ribbon.

Best of Arrangements—Ribbon.

Best of Houseplants—Ribbon. Superintendents in Flower division of fair are: Mrs. Bob Clough, Mrs. Harold Huber, Mrs. Delpha Jones, Mrs. Fannie Griffith, Mrs. Clell Rea, Mrs. Pete Klinger, Mrs. Orville Cutforth.

Queen Kathy At Chief Joseph Days

Mr. and Mrs. John Wood accompanied Queen Kathy Schwarzin and her cousin, Linda Lou Keithley to Chief Joseph Days. Queen Kathy rode a convertible in the parade driven by Mr. Wood. Riding with them were Mrs. Wood and Vic Cronin, the latter of Enterprise.

Kathy will be Queen of the East-West Shrine Football game in Pendleton on Aug. 22. Game time is at 8 p.m. The pageantry will begin at 7:15 and the afternoon parade is at 3 o'clock. The girls enjoyed rides at the carnival after the parade and wading in Wallowa Lake.

This was Kathy's first trip to Wallowa Lake, now she is trying to persuade her parents to go up.

Shoun-Steagall Picnic Held At Bull Prairie

LEXINGTON—Mrs. Mary Tafey of New Orleans, La., and Mrs. Eunice Strudgeon and daughter of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Irene Clark and children of Sacramento, Calif., are visiting their sister Mrs. Lola Breeding and their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall. JARRI LEE HILL

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. John Hill of Heppner announce the engagement of their daughter Jarri Lee to Pete Shumway of La Grande.

They are to be married Sept. 26 at the Baptist Church in Baker. Miss Hill is a 1969 graduate of Heppner High School and attended EOC last year. She is employed in the Forest Service office in La Grande. Mr. Shumway is an engineer for the Forest Service.
They will make their home in La Grande.

Three Generations

Mrs. Jerry Rood and Deane met Mrs. Rood's mother, Mrs. Edna Gay of Ashland in Portland last week. The three of them visited the C. H. Perrott family. Mrs. Perrott is the former Margaret Doolittle. They went into Washington where they visited Jerry's father, Orville Rood at Port Orchard and at Lynden with Mrs. Gay's aunt and family, Mrs. Etta Weatherly.

They took the coast route home. They were pleased to meet the Bill Hust family who was also vacationing, in Astoria. They are now at Arlington, Wn. Mr. Hust is a former Penney's Store manager in Heppner. He sends greetings to his friends here.

The travelers had grand weather at Long Beach and Seaside. At Portland, Mrs. Gay returned to Ashland and Mrs. Rood and Deane came on to Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jensen and children, went to Portland last Sunday on a business trip and returned home on Monday. They spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parson and family. Mrs. Parson is Mr. Jensen's sister.
