

Range Management Sees Gains

A Continuation of Story Printed in Last Week's Paper

THE THOMPSON FLAT Allotment has 7 water developments of this type, plus many miles of year-long streams.

JERRY BROSINAN helps Les Wyman count and mark cattle before they are turned onto the Matlock Allotment.

THE CORRAL, one of the improvements built by Bob Riddle, helps in better handling of the cattle on the Thompson Flat Allotment.

STOCKWATER DEVELOPMENTS help in getting good distribution of livestock and better utilization of the forage.

BOB RIDDLE and son, Chris, talk with Les Wyman. Les has been the Range Technician on the Ukiah District for 9 years.

JERRY BROSINAN and Les Wyman discuss the day's activities with assistance of a young cowboy.
