istered Quarter Horse. As proud of Monkey as she is, she is equally as proud of her new Hamley saddle, a Christmas gift from her parents.

Monkey becomes quite excited with the crowds and makes a spirited Grand Entry.

The Fair and Rodeo are not new to Sherri. She rode in her first parade when she was three years old. Her 4-H activities include 8 years in Horse clubs and two years in Livestock plus a year here and there in sewing and cooking. Working with her dad who has been 4-H leader, she has helped with demonstrations for the younger members.

Mrs. Ruth Reid had as her guest Sunday her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Reid from La Grande.

CARD OF THANKS
Again to the many wonderful friends sending cards and messages to me in this another agonizing period of hospitalization, I do appreciate everyone's concern.

To the Heppner Odd Fellows, thank you for remembering me with a beautiful plant. Also the Heppner Wranglers Club.

To Dr. Tibbles, my lasting thanks for the comfort extended to me in the ambulance on the way to the hospital.

If it weren't for the many hours of vigil by my daughters and their families during the first few days, I wouldn't be here to send thanks.

Would suggest, to save other victims from injury and loss of their cars, a sign to be posted beside the roadside going down hill to the elevator, stating trucks might be expected to ignore the Boardman Cut-Off stop sign and instead might make a left hand turn and stop in face of down hill traffic.

I still face further surgery, but with so many sending prayers and their love, I may look forward to returning home.

National County Agents Meeting

Oregon County Agents are hosting the National Association of County Agricultural Agents at their 1970 National Convention in Corvallis next week, announced Harold Kerr, Morrow County Extension Agent.

Over 2,000 county agents, their wives and children are expected for the convention.

Morrow County farmers, ranchers, and businessmen are playing an important role in the week long meeting in Corvallis. Last spring, Louis Carlson was asked to serve as county chairman for a fund raising drive to obtain funds which would be used to promote Oregon and Oregon products at the convention. A very generous response to this request occurred in Morrow County as twenty-six contributors will help to make the county agents stay in Oregon an enjoyable and rewarding visit.

The following contributed to this event: Louis Carlson, R. W. Bergstrom, Crum Ranches, Farm Chemicals, Inc., Dorris L. Graves, Howton Ranches, Jordan Elevator Co., Milton Morgan, Morrow County Grain Growers, Elmer Palmer, Oscar Peterson and Son, Paul Pettyjohn Co., Victor Rietmann & Sons, Kenneth J. Smouse, Garland Swanson, Wilkinson Ranch, Bank of Eastern Oregon, Dobyens Pest Control, Alfred Nelson, Jr., Norman Nelson, Peterson Brothers, Kenneth Turner, Don Peterson, George Luciani, Heppner Gazette-Times, South Morrow 4-H Club Council.

This will be the first time the association will meet in Oregon, and only the third time it has met on the Pacific Coast. Theme of the meeting is "Promote Professional Performance".

Speakers during the event will include Senator Mark Hatfield, Secretary of State, Clay Myers, OSU President Robert MacVicar, and Lane Palmer, editor of the Farm Journal.

Youth and extension's 4-H program will be spotlighted by several speakers. Kirby Brumfield, Portland, farm editor with KATU-TV, will represent 4-H Alumni. Two of the "Report to the Nation" team will also speak to the agents. They are Susan Gourley, Brownsville, Ore., and Oscar Johnson, Jr., Chicago.

Oregon extension agents and specialists who are heading committees planning for the conference include Harold Kerr, Heppner.

CHUCK WAGON

You will enjoy looking at the new display window down to Gardner's Men's Store here. Feature is the wonderful Morrow County Fair and Rodeo royal court, in a most interesting Western setting. Thank you, Marj. (In addition to the interesting picture frames, note the spurs).

Baldwin Bros. of The Dalles have moved in some big equipment and are expected to start construction of Lake Penland soon. The lake will contain about 60 acres. Project has been spearheaded by about 25 landowners, U. S. Forest Service also plans a campground on the new lake.

Someone just said "Keep as busy as a beaver and you'll wind up with splinters in your teeth."

After touring the potato country of Morrow County and the new potato processing plant we're reminded of this little yarn:

An Idaho potato married a Long Island potato. Pretty soon they had a little sweet potato and when the little sweet potato grew up it said: "I want to marry that radio announcer." Said Mama: "You can't marry him. He's a commentator."

I heard somewhere that a hobo stopped at a farm house and asked the lady for a job for a meal. "If I thought I could trust you," she said, "I'd send you in to the hen house to gather the eggs." "Listen lady," the hobo replied, "I was janitor in a men's club shower room for 15 years and I never took a shower."

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hershaw Townsend in Portland, while their sons, Joe, Mark and Frank Halvorsen, participated in a water ski show in Lake Oswego.
