NEIGHBOR NIGHT TO HONOR "GIDEONS"

A special invitation to the August Neighbor Night is extended to the community by the Heppner Church of the Nazarene. This service on Aug. 22, at 8:00 p.m. will begin with a "Singspiration Hour" of hymns and spiritual songs by local talent. Following that there will be shown a slide series entitled "The Bible". Many of the pictures to be shown were taken by Pastor Everhart while in home mission work in Boscobel, Wisconsin.

It was in that city where the "Gideon" venture was launched and since then millions of Bibles have been distributed in Hotels, Motels, hospitals or given to school children and service men.

Some colorful scenes of the beautiful Wisconsin hill country will be followed by slide pictures on various aspects of the Bible, its composition and distribution. Please feel free to invite your friends.

In Canada... It's Different

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins and Lisa are home from a Canadian vacation. They went through the Okanogan Valley into Canada. The first change they saw was the appearance of Fruit Stands as soon as they crossed the border, although the Okanogan Valley on both sides of the border is well known for its apples and other fruits. Bakeries with delicious pastries can be found in the most out-of-way places.

They noted the camps are more primitive with few trailer hook-ups. Many had pitcher pumps and outdoor toilets.

Meet Wolfs

They went north 300 miles. They met the Dr. Wolff family at Loon Lake. Here they enjoyed gathering the wild berries; red raspberries, black berries and huckleberries. They had Saskatoon pie. Mrs. Wolff, who grew up in Minnesota was pleased to see Saskatoon berries again.

They were at 100 Mile House which a couple of years ago had only 2 or 3 stores. Today it has two big supermarkets and has a population of 9000.

To come home the Collins' turned west and came down the Frazier to Hope and the Wolff's went east.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Wolff, Bill, Kelley and Shelley, Tom and Kathy enjoyed a family vacation. They pulled their trailer into a trailer park at Pentecost about 12:30 at night. They were late because their trailer hitch had broken and had to be welded. Surprise! The next morning they discovered parked right behind them, Dr. Tills and Fisks from Pendleton.

They took a side trip to Mahood Lake, deep in the mountains and parked right next to an Oregon license from Eugene.

When they turned east to make the return trip they came down through Grand Forks. They found it to be a well paved highway with lesser travel.

MARIE KIRCHER, Floss Watkins and Alvina Padberg hold their trophies won at the Oregon State Women's Bowling Association tournament.

They came into Washington at Laurier and down through Kettle Falls, Wn. While the fishing wasn't the greatest, they had a good vacation.

Gilman and McQuarries

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gilman and Mr. and Mrs. Clint McQuarrie also vacationed in Canada. They too, went up through Okanogan Valley. They went up through Hope and Revelstoke and then east to the Ice Fields north of Jasper. They made the trip in a trailer and camped as they travelled leisurely. They came down through Banff and Lake Louise, Waterton Parks and "Going to the Sun" highway through Glacier to Missoula. Here they visited with Mr. McQuarrie's mother. They came across the historic Lolo Pass to Lewiston and home.

The Seamstresses 4-H sewing club of Ione, met in the basement of the lone Catholic Church on August 4, 1970. Our leader, Mrs. Doherty, helped us fill out our pre-registration forms for the fair. Our next meeting will be August 19, in the Catholic Church basement with Arlynda Aldrich as hostess. Hostess today was Kathy Kincaid. Joan Doherty, reporter

Ellis Parkers Leaving Heppner

Pastor and Mrs. Ellis Parker are leaving next week to make their home in Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Parker have served the Heppner Assembly of God Church this past year. They traveled as evangelists for two years before coming to Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Parker, Sr. have the Klamath Music Center at Klamath Falls and their son will be helping them in the store in addition to giving music lessons and preaching. Mrs. Parker's parents live at Tule Lake, south of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Connor and family, of Forest Grove, spent the week visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connor, of Heppner. Also visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Connor was another son, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Connor, and family of Pilot Rock, who spent the weekend in Heppner.

Earl Wilson of Las Vegas, Nev., visited last week with the Harvey Smiths. He has a ranch at McNab and while here took care of some ranching business.

Enrolls At U. of Arizona

Mrs. Bill Weatherford and daughter, Ann Haberlach, returned Monday evening, August 10, from a week's trip through Oregon, Nevada, Arizona and California. Ann is now enrolling as a graduate student in the Department of Anthropology at the University of Arizona in Tucson.
