Garden Club Cancels Fall Flower Show

The regular meeting of the Ione Garden Club was held Aug. 12 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Klinger, in Lexington. Hostesses were Mrs. Klinger and Mrs. Irene Padberg.

Program for the meeting featured Mrs. Tom Huston who talked about improvised vases. She suggested such articles as antiques, lamps, food jars, old piping, and disk plow parts.

Last fall school children in Ione were given chrysanthemum plants to plant and then return this fall for the show. The show will also be open to other youngsters who have grown flowers.

Eugene Church Is Setting For Sherman-Cone Rites

Miss Catherine Louise Cone became the bride of James Carlyle Sherman July 26, at the First United Methodist church in Eugene.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. C. Leslie Cone, Eugene, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Wesley A. Sherman, Dallas, and the late Mr. Sherman.

Officiating at the double ring rites was the Rev. Paul D. Sisler. Organ selections preceding and during the service were by Mrs. Muriel Wellingham.

Arrangements of yellow and white Majestic daisies, yellow chrysanthemums and gladioli in altar standards provided the floral background, flanked by white tapers in pyramid candleabra.

Lace Accents Gown

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of silk organza featuring Valenciennes lace at the neckline and on cuffs of the long gathered sleeves. Bands of matching lace extended down the front and back panels of the A-line gown and around the hemline. Lace bordered her trail-length mantilla veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses, daisies and pompon chrysanthemums with florets tied in the white streamers.

Five Bridal Attendants

Miss Denise Alice Guthrie, Eugene, attended as maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bernard A. Christensen and Mrs. Nancy Ann Ruff, both sisters of the bride, Mrs. Keith Guericke, and Miss Cathy Sherman, Dallas junior bridesmaid, sister of the bridegroom.

The attendants wore identically styled floor length gowns of lime green voile embossed with white flowers, fashioned with pouff short sleeves, and green velvet ribbons marked the empire waistlines. Each carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white daisies, green-tinted carnations and pompon chrysanthemums with moss green and yellow streamers. Headpieces of lime green veiling were held by flat velvet bows.

Flower girl was Rebecca Lynn Sherman, niece of the bridegroom, in matching green floor length dress and carrying a small white basket of white and yellow daisies.

Eric Christensen, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer. Standing as best man was John Van Winkle, Heppner. Ushering guests and lighting tapers before the ceremony were brothers of the bridegroom, Richard W. Sherman, Richland, Wash., and William E. Sherman, Pasadena, Calif.

Groomsmen were Bill Stockard, Eugene, and Robert Dobbs, Heppner.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cone chose to wear a frock of lime green polished linen with yellow and white floral headpiece and bone accessories. Mrs. Sherman, mother of the bridegroom, appeared in a pink "hanting sheath with matching lace overlay, pink and white accessories. Both wore corsages of tinted daisies and pompon chrysanthemums.

Reception Follows Service

A reception followed in the church fellowship hall. Centering the bride's table was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with fresh yellow and white daisies, with the bridal bouquet displayed on the cake table. Lime punch and coffee were served from a lace covered table, centered with yellow chrysanthemums, yellow and white daisies.

Cutting and serving wedding cake were aunts of the bride, Mrs. Harry Sherman, Jr., Forest Grove, and Mrs. Raymond Hegberg, Eugene. At the punch bowl were Mrs. Richard Sherman, Richland, and Mrs. John Ald, Eugene, with Mrs. David Slaughter pouring coffee.

Attending the guest book and receiving gifts was Mrs. William Sherman, Pasadena, Calif.

Among honored wedding guests were grandmothers of the bride, Mrs. H. A. Sherman, Sr., Forest Grove, and Mrs. Elva Cone, Otis.

Before the newlyweds left for the honeymoon at Satslan Lodge and along the Oregon coast, they visited relatives and close friends at a patio buffet, hosted by the bride's parents at their home on Lindner Lane.

They are now at home at 815 S. 37th, Springfield. The bride attended OSU, received a secretarial degree at Lane Community college, and is presently employed in the state department offices in Eugene. Mr. Sherman attended Southern Oregon College and will enroll for his second year at Lane Community college, majoring in business administration. He is employed during the summer at Cone Lumber Co. in Eugene.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. John Clark of Pendleton are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Diana to Richard Lyle Cox. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cox of Lexington. No wedding date has been set.

Barbara graduated this spring from Pendleton High School and plans to attend BMCC this fall. Rick is employed at the Heppner Stud Mill.

Mattie Rood Honored on Birthday

Mattie Rood was honored on her 86th birthday. With Mrs. Effie Munkers, she was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rood. The surprise came later when neighbors and friends stopped in to enjoy birthday cake and ice cream with her.

Mrs. Rood is now at home in the Nursing Home at Pioneer Memorial Hospital. Edna Turner is her roommate.

Twenty-five relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Hopper gathered at Anson Wright Park last Sunday for a potluck picnic. It was in honor of five August birthdays and the August wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Hopper.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. John Hopper and Maida Britt, Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hopper, Loren and friend John, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hopper and Sheri, all of Hermiston; Mrs. Melba Hutchinson and Mrs. Le Nona Hutchinson and sons, of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Britt and Donna, Spray; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Potter and daughters, Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. Burke Gentry, Mrs. Inez Gentry, Wayne Gentry, all of Hardman.

Court Honored By Soroptimists

The Soroptimist luncheon honoring the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court on Aug. 6 went western in a pretty way. The tables were decorated with a covered wagon, a gift of Murays to the Soroptimists, and a ceramic covered wagon loaned by Lois Winchester was filled with summer flowers. These flowers and others used about the room were from the gardens of Madge Thomson. Also on the tables were ceramic horses loaned by Ida Farra. The decorations were arranged by Betty Pfeiffer, Alice Soward and Bettie Doherty.

Mrs. Archie Munkers, court chaperone, introduced the girls who spoke enthusiastically of their summer experiences while representing Morrow County at the several celebrations. Each was presented with a chain necklace. Diane Owen was also a guest.
