

DOT'S JOTS

It wasn't just kids and horses represented at the horse show. The performance represented hours of practice, many trips into town with the horses by Dad and delayed or hurried meals by Mom. The Horse Show is truly a family affair with a liberal sprinkling of grandparents among the spectators. A place of laughter and tears!

Nobility was there. Princess Patti Healy of the 1970 Pendleton Round-Up Court was performing in her last 4-H Show. There are five Healy girls and as Patti completes 10 years of 4-H the youngest one will enter this fall so the Morrow County Show is assured of 10 more years of performance from the Healy girls!

Also competing Princess Vivian Phillips of the 1970 Morrow County Rodeo Court and Marianne Pettyjohn, All Around Cowgirl for the Oregon High School Rodeo.

So much enjoyed having Marguerite Glavey and Ola Mae Greshens up for supper recently. While we didn't know her, Ola Mae was in high school in La Grande when Charlie and I were in the college. She brought over her year books and we found many mutual friends. When Charlie and I went to school there were no dorms. I stayed at the home of the attorney, the George T. Cochran. Also staying there were Kitty Sartain, the high school drama teacher; Mary Dooley Lyman, the biology teacher and Bess Duke of the Eastern Oregon Observer. So we had a real gab fest.

Pastor Don Johnson has done it again . . . Three years ago he performed the marriage of his nephew and this weekend the Johnsons were in Portland where Don performed the ceremonies of his niece. The ceremony was held on the patio at O'Dell Manor on the Lewis and Clark campus. The reception was held on the lawns. The music was different with stringed instruments and woodwinds.

The hippy oriented wedding party looked the part. The men wore frock coats, ruffled shirts and string ties.

OOPS! Apologies to Leonard Gilman who graduated from college in 1941 and entered the Immigration service the same year. The 4 and 1 exchanged places in our story a couple of weeks ago.
