CHUCK WAGON

A Thank You from us at the Gazette-Times to Dimple and Archie Munkers who graciously loaned us a truck to use for our float in the Grand Parade. We appreciate it.

Thank You to the Extension Service staff, Harold Kerr, Birdine Tullis, Gail McCarty, Mrs. Lenna Smith and Mrs. Barbara Jessmer for their help in obtaining Fair news.

Among the many things enjoyable to us in Morrow county is the warmth of the humor. At the 4-H and FFA Auction at the Fair, the Harshmans bought several animals. On one occasion Elma arose and bid and bought an animal on behalf of "Everett's Flower Shop".

Gary Albert has been promoted to the position of manager of the J. C. Penney Co. store at Chelan, Wash. The local store here was closed up on Saturday and fixtures and stock have been sold or moved out to other stores. No word has yet been received of an occupant for the building here.

Garage Sale Coming

Hope Lutheran Church is getting ready for an event that is really thrilling the friendly people, a garage sale. The event will take place in the old REA building, in Heppner, on September 25 and 26, all day.

Members are asked to start collecting their belongings for the event now and will be able to deliver them to the building starting Monday, Sept. 21, by contacting Bud Peck. It should be fun so if you haven't much time, just be sure you have time to drop by and get in on the big town action.

OES to Meet

Ruth Chapter Eastern Star will meet the second Monday of every month. The first meeting will be Monday, September 14. Everyone is asked to attend.

OVER THE HORNS for Jerry Winegar in team roping. He teamed with Jerry Dougherty who got the heels, to be the winning team.

At St. Paul Conference

Mrs. Clara Gertson attended a state directors conference for the Degree of Honor Protective Ass'n at St. Paul, Minn.

Enroute home she joined an 8-day Talk Tour at Salt Lake City. The tour went through Cody, Wyoming, Jackson Hole and Yellowstone. She thought that Old Faithful hadn't changed but the Paint Pots seem to emit steam only and not the thick colored clay gravy of her former visits. They saw one bear just as they were leaving the park.

At Spear Fish, they saw the Passion Play. They thrilled to the magnificence of Mt. Rushmore. Because of the high temperatures of 120 degrees in the Bad Lands, the tour director took them into the Big Horn Mts.

Part of the tour was new to her but she enjoyed it all. She flew from Rapid City to Salt Lake City, and then home.

Instant recognition by a grand-mother! Mrs. Percy Cecil called in early Thursday morning to identify the cute youngsters watching the Horse Show pictured in last week's Gazette-Times. They were Todd and Tammy Gorham of Elgin, children of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gorham. Their mother entered the barrel racing.

Bob Roberts, Alan and Bobby fished for steelhead on the Deschutes last week. They report good luck. Previous to that Mrs. Roberts and the boys had spent two weeks with Mr. Roberts at Aberdeen, Wash., where Mr. Roberts is working on the railroad.

THE SEAMSTRESSES MEET

On Aug. 19 the Seamstresses 4-H Sewing Club of Ione met in the basement of the Ione Catholic Church. Our leader, Mrs. Doherty, helped Arlinda Aldrich finish her shift and explained the fair schedule to all of us. Guests were Kim Pettyjohn and Tammy Tucker. Today's hostess was Arlinda Aldrich. Date of next meeting was not decided.

Joan Doherty, Reporter

Anita Ullman of Washington, DC stopped in Heppner to visit Mrs. Harry Duvall and other friends last week. She was returning home from an Orient Adventure tour. They were in Japan for six days which gave them an opportunity to see Japan away from the usual tourist attractions. She loved their mountains and lakes, riding the fast train. Some of the area reminded her of Baker Valley where she has lived for many years.

In Taiwan she left the tour and spent some time with a long-time friend, Miss Yu.

She enjoyed much of Bangkok but was appalled at the use of the rivers for living, for washing, for laundry, for drinking when they are so filthy. People live on the river and are served by floating markets.

Hong Kong is thriving and interesting. At Honolulu, she was the guest of Governor and Mrs. John Burns for a week. This provided her an opportunity of seeing life on this island in a different perspective than most tourists have.

She will be with her mother in Baker until late this fall before returning to Washington, DC. The last of September, she will get her son, Wayne off to Stanford.
