

2 from Boardman Named Outstanding Women of America

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN — The Boardman Garden Club has been notified that Mrs. William (Edmona) Bates and Mrs. Rodney (Patricia) Flug have been selected to appear in the 1970 edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America."

They are both now in competition for the Oregon state award for "Outstanding Young Women of the Year." The state award will be based on unselfish service to others, community service and activities and professional recognition.

Mrs. Bates is a leader of a 4-H cooking club, a member of the 4-H leader council and Ways and Means committee, has been chairman of the Women's Activity Committee of Greenfield Grange for two years, holds the office of Ceres in the grange, teaches a Sunday School class at Boardman Community Church and taught at Vacation Bible School this summer, and is secretary-treasurer of the Boardman Home Extension Unit. She is also a member of the Boardman Tillicum Club. She is the mother of a three year old daughter, Stacie. Her husband is employed by the Union Pacific Railroad.

Mrs. Flug is a graduate of Maryhurst College for women and Blue Mountain College, majoring in nursing. She has done substitute teaching at A. C. Houghton School in Irigoin and Riverside High School, and did special nursing at Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston. She is an active member of the Boardman Tillicum Club and has held the office of corresponding secretary. The past two years she has been hostess for the annual luncheon sponsored by the Tillicum Club for members of the Morrow County Radio court and their mothers and chaperone. She has also done substitute teaching at the Sunday School at Boardman Community Church. She formerly worked in the office of Dr. Roy Rasmussen in Hermiston and is now employed by the Inland Empire Bank in Boardman and the Morrow Produce Company. She is the mother of a 17-month old son, Troy. Her husband is employed at Kuhn's Garage.

Pastor Neil King has announced that junior church services will be held each Sunday for children ages 6 to 12 during the regular church services at Boardman Community Church. The services will be held in the Fellowship Room at the church. All children are welcome to attend.

Home Extension

The Boardman Home Extension Unit held its fall organizational meeting last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mel Allyn. Mrs. William Bates was elected as secretary to replace Mrs. Jerry Melnicke, who moved away.

Subjects for this year's meetings were discussed and Mrs. Allyn and Mrs. Donald Baker will be the leaders for the first lesson, which will be on "Sea Foods." The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Albert Warnock Oct. 22, and will start with a noon luncheon at 12 o'clock.
