

CUSTER is the king of the Buffalo in Morrow County . . . anyway. The present herd of 4 Buffalo at the Harold Wright ranch at Ruggs will soon be joined by 9 Buffalo heifers. They were purchased by sealed bid by the Wrights from the National Bison Range in Montana. The Wrights will be there Oct. 6 to load them out. They expect to run them at the Hardman ranch.

Juvenile Council Elects New Officers

Dennis Robbins, student body president of Riverside High School was elected chairman of the Morrow County Juvenile Advisory Council at their meeting Monday night at the Court-house. Kevin Dick was elected vice chairman and Mrs. Conley Lanham, secretary.

There were 18 present for the organizational meeting. Representatives include two from Heppner High School, Dan Sweeney and Duane Steers and two from Ione High School, Clinton Krebs and Mike Collins. Besides Dennis there is another representative to be named from Riverside High School. Two others who are members at large are Kevin Dick, Heppner and Richard Hamlett, Ione.

Meeting places will be rotated this year to have meetings in the north end of the county and also in Ione. The discussion included things the committee might do and the young people discussed with the district attorney the type of cases and their disposition that had come to their attention as illegal driving, minors in possession and burglary.

Mr. Moss, field counsellor for McLaren will be the guest speaker at the next meeting Oct. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Saul of Pendleton will leave Saturday, Sept. 26 for a tour of Europe. Molly Saul is Home Economist for Morrow-Umatilla counties. They expect to be on tour for three weeks.

Scott Wilson left Sunday to go to La Grande for freshman week activities at EOC. A freshman, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Wilson of Ione. He and Eddie Sherman, also of Ione, have an apartment together. Eddie is a sophomore.

REGISTER . . . Deadline is Oct. 3

Justice Court

Archery hunting with prohibited method (from car): Fined $20 each, Larry Peterson, William Johnson and Jerry Didwary, all Portland.

Archery hunting in prohibited area: James Martin and Douglas Bustrin, fined $35 each and suspended.

Same charge for Roger Scillian, also of Portland, fine $20.

Three minors in possession, fined $25 each.

Bill Ramsey, Heppner, larceny, fined $100, confined to jail in lieu of payment.

Hubert Harris from out of county, driving under influence, fined $150.

Bob Davidson, truck speeding, fine $5.

Richard Willard, failure to carry license on person, $25 fine.

Mark Tullis, failure to comply with restrictions, fine $5.

Monte Crum, failing to carry license on person, suspended $25 fine.

Lester Grasser, double axle overload, $31 fine.

William Robinette, no operator's license, bail $10.

Willy Maddis, unlawful use studded tires, fined and suspended.

Outstanding warrant for Richard DeVore, driving while suspended, fined $150 and suspended.

LONEROCK NEWS

Elder Don Hall and family from Heppner held services at the Lonerock church Saturday.

The Fermantezs will live at Walla Walla and Herb will attend Walla Walla College.

Harold Kerr, county extension agent, attended a Staff Chairman's conference at Oregon State University this week.

Lucille Parrish is leaving Sept. 30 to spend the winter in Seattle to be near her son.

SCHOOL'S STARTING

Like a letter from home
Send them off to college with a subscription to their home county newspaper—

College Year—$4.00

GAZETTE-TIMES

Cal 676-9228

The $18.75 gift that grows to $25.

A U.S. Savings Bond is a unique gift . . . one with a built-in future.

And all the time that it's growing in value—earning 5% when held to maturity of 5 years 10 months—the Nation stands firmly behind it.

When you give a U.S. Savings Bond, you're doing something more than being nice to the person you're giving it to. You're also helping to keep your country strong. Gift headquarters is at your bank. Stop in soon.

Take stock in America.
With higher paying U.S. Savings Bonds.

The U.S. Government does not pay for this advertisement. It is presented as a public service in cooperation with The Department of the Treasury and The Advertising Council.