

THIS IS ONE of the rooms used at the Day Care Center. There are four other rooms besides kitchen facilities.

Day Care Center Opens Today

The new Day Care Center will open today for the first time. Their hours will begin at 6:00 a.m. and they will close at 6:30 p.m. Seven children will be cared for on the first day. Anyone interested is urged to contact Mrs. Everhart at 676-5529.

The Center has received welcome donations of toys and other needs from the Salvation Army and the Hope Lutheran church. However, more items are still needed to accommodate the expected attendance. Among the items requested are single bedding; washable, sturdy toys; folding cots or plastic covered mats; 2 year old or 6 year old cribs; a teeter-babe or some such movable toys; a record player and children records; a Bathingette; and crib mobiles. Although they've established a good library for younger children, they could use reading material for ages 7 to 12.

The playground will be grassed instead of paved. Until this can be done, the Center has received special permission for the children to play elsewhere under close supervision.

Boys' Counsellor To Speak Here

Edward Moss, McLaren School for Boys counsellor for North-eastern Oregon will speak Sunday evening at the Heppner United Methodist Church. He will speak on the Abuse of Drugs. The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. High School students are especially invited to Mr. Moss' presentation.

4-H Clubs To Organize

By BIRDINE TULLIS

The following volunteer 4-H leaders can still accommodate members. Please call them directly, or the Extension office—676-9642, if you have a boy or girl interested in the club they will be leading:

Diane Gerking, Heppner — Clothing; Don Hall, Heppner — Woodworking; Mrs. Elmer Ladd, Ione — Foods; Rachel Harnett, Heppner — Knitting; Mako Buchanan, Irrigon — Crochet; Rose Mesteth, Irrigon — Indian Beading; Gladys Hobbs, Irrigon — Square Dancing.

Gale Shoemaker, Irrigon — Electricity; Ginger Keithley, Heppner — Food Preservation (Will organize in the spring); Beverly Rynearson, Heppner — Livestock; Barbara Hug and Barbara Broadbent, Boardman — Square Dancing; Karen Cooley and Joan Adams, Irrigon — Cake Decorating.

There is still a need for club leaders for the following: Knitting in Ione, Boardman and Irrigon; Horse Club — Lexington area; Outdoorsman — Ione and Boardman; Dog Obedience — Irrigon and Boardman; Livestock — Boardman; Arts and Crafts — All Areas.

There is always a club for a leader. If your special interest isn't mentioned here and you would like to work with youth—there are 95 written projects for members—and new ones can be written! Give the Extension office a call—676-9642. Four-H is boys and girls going places, doing things, meeting people, making friends, having fun — growing to be healthy, useful citizens—with their leaders!

Empire Builders Begin Years Program

Morrow County 4-H Empire Builders have held two planning meetings this fall. Officers were elected and an advisor selected for the coming year.

Mrs. Howard (Jr.) Pettyjohn will act as advisor to the lively group of high school age members.

Officers for the year are Dee Pettyjohn, president; Darlene Warren, vice-president; Ann McElligott, secretary, and Gwen Drake, treasurer.

The club selected the date of Nov. 5 for the annual leaders banquet honoring all last year's leaders of the county. The Empire Builders have annually prepared the leaders banquet as one of their first projects of the year. They plan, do the purchasing, cook and serve the dinner to leaders — husbands or wives each year. The tab of the dinner is picked up by our local Rural Electric Corporation. Leaders pins will be awarded at the banquet and there will be a guest speaker.

All high school age youth from both Ione and Heppner High Schools are invited to become members of the Empire Builders. Information on meeting dates may be obtained from Dee Pettyjohn, Jo Pettyjohn, the Extension office, or any member of the club.

School Board Will Meet at Ione Monday

The Morrow County Board of Education will meet Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m. at Ione High School. The meeting is open to the public.

Under old business the board will adopt a policy on school visitations by law enforcement officials.

Under New Business

1. Discuss problem on Schiller-Owens transportation.
2. Appoint budget committee members, Ione, Heppner and Boardman.
3. Determine date of first meeting with teacher consultation committee.
4. Discuss cost of pump and pipe at Fairgrounds.
5. Approve revised policy on free and reduced-price lunches.

Reports

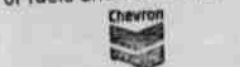

1. Meeting with deputy fire marshal—Ron Daniels.
2. OSBA consultation work shop—Jack Sumner.
