Of Interest to Women

MR. AND MRS. Chester Allen White, nee Linda Nichols

Autumn Wedding Unites Lone Couple

A summer romance that began at Morrow Produce Co. in Boardman culminated in the marriage of Linda Louise Nichols and Chester Allen White on Oct. 16 at the First Christian Church in Heppner. The Rev. Don W. Johnson performed the double ring candlelight ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nichols and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rowell, all of Ione.

Mr. Nichols gave his daughter in marriage. Her wedding gown was white French linen of floor length with train. The Victorian sleeves had lace French cuffs. A bandeau of white daisies and pearls held the elbow length veil in place. She carried a bouquet of white daisies sprinkled with blue baby's breath on top of a white Bible.

Shirley Nichols was maid of honor for her sister. Other members of the bridal party were Vicki Jo Kincaid, flower girl; William Paul McBeth, nephew of the bride, ringbearer; Melva Mikkalo and Terry Taylor, sisters of the bridegroom, candle lighters.

The girls' gowns of blue and white and white taffeta carried out the color scheme the bride had chosen. Their gowns were floor length in empire style. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of blue daisies. The candle lighters had wrist corsages of white carnations and the flower girl carried a basket of orchids in shades of blue.

Mike Rowell of Eugene was best man. Ushers were Tom White, brother of the bridegroom and Mike Pimentel, brother-in-law of the bride of Seattle. Men of the wedding party wore white dinner jackets. The church was decorated with baskets of white glads. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marquardt sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Gene Rietmann who also played the wedding march.

Mothers' Gowns

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Nichols wore a blue linen dress trimmed with daisies and a corsage of white carnations and pink roses. Mrs. Rowell wore a dress of white-silver with matching shoes and a corsage of white carnations and pink roses.

The reception was held in the church social room. The reception table was centered with a four-tier cake topped with bluebirds, white doves and wedding bells. A single blue candle was placed on either side of the cake. Serving the cake were Mrs. Wayne Ball and Mrs. Wayne Hams. Serving coffee was Mrs. Ralph Kincaid. Mrs. Sarah Adkins, grandmother of the bride, served the punch. Sharlene Hamlett attended the gift table and Bonnie Ball circulated the guest book.

Going Away

The bride wore a brown dress suit with checked vest coat and brown accessories for their wedding trip.

The bride attended schools in Lexington and is a 1969 graduate of Ione High School. The bridegroom attended school in Marion, Ind., and took mechanics training in Lincoln, Nebr. They are both employed at Morrow Produce Co.

Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen Honored at Reception

A Reception honoring Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen as Grand Representative of Wyoming in Oregon was held October 13 by the Locust Chapter No. 119, Order of Eastern Star at the Masonic Hall in Ione.

Mrs. Halvorsen has been Grand Representative for the past two years and has corresponded with the Grand Representative in Wyoming for Oregon to promote better relations between the states. In 1946, she joined Eastern Star and has held an active office ever since that time. She has served as Worthy Matron four times and as Grand Page to the Grand Chapter in 1958. Mrs. Halvorsen organized the Ione Assembly No. 89, International Order of Rainbow for Girls in 1961 and has served as Mother Advisor since that time.

The evening began with a meeting at 8:00 which was later opened to the public for the entertainment, Mrs. Halvorsen's speech and the introduction of her family. Attending family members were Lewis Halvorsen; Linda Prock, her daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, her brother and his wife; and Mrs. Archie Munkers, her sister.

Honored guests were Genevive Powell, Grand Ruth, Moro; Mae Hutchinson, Grand Warden, LaGrande; Fern Roberts, Worthy Matron, Hermiston; Ruby Becket, Heppner, Worthy Matron; and Harold Becket, Worthy Patron, Heppner. Other Eastern Star members attended from Moro, La-

Grande, Cove, Echo, Hermiston, Umattilla and Heppner.

Entertainment

The entertainment program included an addenda by the Rainbow Girls as they sang a song in tribute to Mrs. Halvorsen which they had composed. They were accompanied by Darrell James on the piano. Tanya Tucker and Marianne Pettyjohn sang "Wyoming" and were accompanied by Mrs. Paul Tews. "Oregon" was sung by the Ione High School Chorus and Darrell James and Mrs. Tews provided the accompaniment. Francis Smouse played two violin solos, "I'd Do Anything for You" and "Green, Green Grass of Home" with Darrell James accompanying.

Refreshments Served

After the program, the guests were invited to the basement for refreshments. The basement was decorated in the theme of Wyoming which included a painting of a buffalo head, Indian Paintbrush, (the flower of Wyoming), rocks sent from Wyoming and pamphlets from Wyoming. Mrs. Francis Smouse used her artistic talent to provide the appropriate decor and the pamphlets were courtesy of the Travel Commission of Laramie, Wyo.

The decorated cake was served by Linda Prock and the punch was served by Mrs. Archie Munkers and Mrs. Leo Crabtree.

Rosewalls Attend 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rosewall flew to LA over the weekend. The attraction was the 50th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Rosewall's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Van Winkle. More than 200 friends and relatives were there for the occasion at the clubhouse of Leisure Village where they live. This retirement cluster has a population of 13,000. There were guests there who had come from as far away as Colorado.

The Rosewalls had a pleasant interlude while waiting for planes at the Portland Airport. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wilkinson and other state officers of OES who were flying to Wisconsin. They also enjoyed a visit with a girlhood friend of Mrs. Rosewall and Mrs. Van Winkle from Weston days. She was also flying down for the anniversary.
