

Autumn Colors Accent Hood River Ceremony

Miss Donna Louise Vosberg became the bride of Ted Stuart Hoffman at an eight o'clock candlelight ceremony Oct. 23 at the Church of the Nazarene in Hood River. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vosberg of Hood River, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hoffman of Boardman. The double ring service was read by the Rev. James Lais.

Barbara Vogt, sang "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Mrs. James Lais.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory colored frosted satin gown, made by her mother, and bordered at the hem with old lace and seed pearls. The dress had long tapered sleeves with a sweetheart neckline. Her elbow length veil of ivory tulle was held in place with a cup of lace leaves and seed pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade of bronze and yellow pom pom chrysanthemums, centered with yellow sweetheart roses held with yellow ribbon.

Mrs. James Hoffman of Portland, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and Janet Hoff, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Their dresses were fashioned after the bride's dress with the exception of short sleeves which were fringed with lace to the elbow. The dresses were of heavy satin in lemon yellow and deep sun-gold yellow. Each carried a basket wound with yellow ribbon and yellow and bronze pom poms in the center of which was a lighted candle. Their head pieces were veils of yellow tulle, held in place with matching satin bows.

James Hoffman of Portland, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Dick Vosberg, brother of the bride, Jerry Keller of Troutdale, brother-in-law of the groom, and Robert Holley. Candlelighters were Dick Vosberg and Robert Holley.

Decorations—Reds and Golds

The church was decorated with bays of autumn leaves in reds and yellows, and yellow and bronze chrysanthemums, arranged by Mrs. Bill Pattison and Mrs. Alan Bickford. At the altar were two gold colored candelabra holding yellow tapers and decorated with yellow bows and pom poms. An altar table held the family Bible and a lighted candle on each side. The pews were decorated with yellow bows.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. The three tiered cake, made by Mrs. Russ Best, was decorated with orange and yellow mums, and was cut and served by Glenda Vosberg, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Jerry Keller, sister of the bridegroom. Others serving were Mrs. Lee Smith, Mrs. Dan Embree, Mrs. Joe Farley, Mrs. Robert Holley.

Mrs. Frankie Dillingham and Linda Hoffman, sister of the bridegroom, serving the groom's cake were Ray and Allen Keller, nephews of the groom. Passing the baskets of rice were Celeste Vosberg, niece of the bride, and Jeff and Jena Holley, and Bobbi-Lynn Hoff, cousins of the bride.

Special guests were Mrs. Frankie Cason of Condon, grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Marius Nash and Alice Vosberg of Hood River, grandparents of the bride.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Vosberg wore a rose-coral satin polyester dress with bone colored accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of pale peach knit with bone colored accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations and Tropicana rosebuds.

At Home in Hood River

The bride is a graduate of Hood River High School and The Dalles School of Beauty. She has been employed by Jean's Fashion Salon in Hood River for five years. The groom is a graduate of Riverside High School at Boardman, and attended Oregon State. He also served with the U. S. armed services, and is presently serving his apprenticeship in sheet metal at Russ Best's where he has worked for three years.

For her going away costume the bride wore a three piece black and white suit of double knit and her yellow rosebud corsage, with black accessories.

After a honeymoon trip up the coast from Astoria to Lincoln City the couple are living in Hood River.

DOT'S JOTS

Election Day. We'll hope that the reputation Morrow County voters have for a good turnout will prevail on this Election Day, too.

Alice Vance once asked Reggie whether he was a Republican or a Democrat. Reggie's answer, "I'm an Indian". He's registered anyway!

Our son-in-law says I'm the most "gonna do" person he knows. This was when I was telling how many pieces of furniture I'm "gonna" refinish. I'm about to get at it again. Have hardly touched it since we moved over a year ago. But I'm getting ready to... I'm working on an old chiffonier that belonged to my grandmother. It is walnut and after taking off layers of old varnish from the top I have found beautiful grain and several handsome knots. I'm grateful for these sunny fall days. It has given me an extended time to get in some bulbs. About one more weekend should see them all in the ground. Are you hurrying to get your all work done too? Like a 6-8 inch mulch of manure or straw on your rhubarb and asparagus bed?

Gribbles Meet In La Grande

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Gribble went to La Grande Sunday. They met their daughter and her family from Boise at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Gribble, Julie and Jeff. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Derrick, Kimi and Mikki of Boise were accompanied from Baker by Mrs. Bob Derrick.

Sunday Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruggles, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harshman and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gardner were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heard.

Busy people those Ervin Andersons! Last weekend a drive to Ellensburg, Wn. to visit an uncle, Mr. Arch Redding, who is ill; the weekend before, a drive to Boise, Idaho, to visit a daughter and family, the Al Parents. And in between, a visit from cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haverland, from Montrose, Colo.

Advance ticket sale will begin shortly door to door. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Lonerock Shower Honors Jean Wood

LONEROCK—Mrs. Lloyd Rogers and Mrs. Susan Mallgren were hostesses Sunday afternoon for a bridal shower honoring Jean Wood. The party was held at the Lonerock Annex and a large crowd was present from both Condon and Lonerock. Those attending were Ruth Neil, Lovina Palmer, Penny Ashenfelter, Marion and Eileen Ansen, Mary Pat Reser, Rita Mielak, Sheron Rogers, Mrs. Mrs. Cora Hicks, Ruby Matthews, Mrs. Edith Perry, Margaret Grandstaf, Mrs. H. Christensen, Mrs. John William and Mary K. Campbell; Hildred Davis, Mrs. Agnes Davis, Mrs. Bess Anderson, the honoree and her mother and the hostesses. The honoree then opened her many lovely and useful gifts. She was assisted by Miss Mary K. Campbell.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses consisting of cake, ice cream, coffee, tea and lemonade.

Mrs. Pete Haynes and granddaughter from Baker were last week visitors of Mrs. Mattlon Hicks.

Jim Heaton and nephew from Portland visited Carroll Davis over the weekend. They didn't get their elk. Lloyd Rogers reports that a hunter in the Kinzua area hit the jackpot and brought in an immense bull elk with a wide spread of horns.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson and Butch, 7 months, is here visiting with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wilson. The men folks have gone elk hunting. The younger Wilsons are from Castle AFB. Bill expects to have his discharge next month and they hope to move to Oregon.

Summers Celebrate 17th Wedding Anniversary

With Jack as pilot, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sumner accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Wolff, flew to Sunriver Sunday for an Anniversary dinner. The occasion was the 17th wedding anniversary for the Summers.

Not only did they enjoy the vast facilities of Sunriver, but they liked seeing the agricultural patchwork of Eastern Oregon. They saw the swirls made by the drills in the wheat fields and the dams in the Deschutes river. The lava beds were awesome. Mrs. Wolff said it was easy to see from the air why the lava flowed the way it did. The runway at Sunriver is being lengthened to accommodate jets. They took a tour of the grounds by bus. They visited the golf and gift shop. Following dinner in the coffee shop they flew home to arrive about 5 p.m.

Mother's Club Has Eventful Evening

On Nov. 2, the Mother's Club heard an interesting program, discussed future plans and had a successful member turnout.

Pat Brindle was guest speaker and discussed the function and needs of the Neighborhood Center. She gave specific instances in which people benefit from the help offered at the Center. The Mother's Club voted to provide refreshments and assistance for the Thursday Senior Citizen's afternoons during the month of January.

Plans were also made for the Club's International Potluck on Dec. 14 at which each member brings a foreign dish. After the dinner, Christmas wreaths will be made for the elderly at the hospital nursing home. Members welcomed Thea Erit as their guest. Marian Abrams was hostess and co-hostess, Arlene Malcom served the refreshments. The next meeting will be Dec. 7.

'Zelda' Reviewed At Bookworms

The Bookworms met Oct. 27 at the home of Mrs. Inez Erwin and heard "Zelda" by Nancy Milford reviewed by Mrs. Justine Weatherford.

"Zelda" is a best-selling biography of the F. Scott Fitzgeralds and the time in which they lived. Mrs. Weatherford drew an interesting parallel between the Jazz Age of the 1920s and our present times. She mentioned this book is a reading must for any aspiring person.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 10 at the home of Mrs. George Currin. Mrs. Florence Green will relate her recent trip to England.
