Coming home up the Redwood highway they stopped at Newport to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brosnan and Damon. At Hubbard they stopped to visit another son and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Brosnan, Kathy, Patty and John Michael.

At Petaluma the lawns are still green and the flowers are blooming. Mrs. Brosnan picked raspberries in the garden.

NFO Tells New Inventory Process

Officers of the Morrow County NFO had a breakfast meeting Monday morning at the Waggon Wheel. The officers discussed with Shelley Robertson of Pilot Rock new procedures for taking grain inventories and for filling out forms.

The NFO has two meetings a month. The 1st Thursday of the month is a county meeting and the 4th Thursday is a structure meeting.

The county meeting in December has been changed to Dec. 10 at the Ione Legion Hall.

Recently the members hosted a dinner with their wives as guests to acquaint them with the processes of the organization. Members have worked hours, many of them away from home until some wives said "NFO stands for National Fun Organization!"

Pat Cutsforth, president of Morrow County NFO chapter says, "One thing we're going to work on this winter is that of orderly marketing." Members will be urged to sell their wheat at intervals throughout the year rather than all at once. He said, "When we sell our wheat all at once after harvest, the market is gutted and the market is depressed." The NFO seeks to be the selling agent.

The NFO is meeting with Morrow County Co-op to work out problems that concern both groups. Some of the NFO officers are directors of the Co-op.

Bob Gilchrist, Pasco, grain coordinator for the NFO Columbia Marketing area said at the meeting, "we are not here to run the elevators and break the cooperatives. We must work with them. Orderly marketing raises the storage period for the cooperatives thus increasing their storage income."

Don Peterson reported on the telephone system for keeping farmer-owned grain inventory up to date and for taking orders to fill sales.

Several members of the Morrow County NFO plan to attend the National Convention. and Mrs. Norman Goree and son, Daren from Roosevelt, Wn., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Noble and daughters Jody and Jeri from Hermiston. The afternoon was spent counting ballots for secretary-treasurer and directors for the Northwest Rodeo Association for 1971.

Mrs. Edith Chapman is staying in Hermiston with her daughter, Mrs. Betty Jo Joynes.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Russell and son of Salem have been visiting the Gene Russells for several days.

Eva Griffith from Heppner, mother of Don Griffith was an overnight guest at their home, Oct. 23.

Steve Medlock is home on leave from the Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lemley and family of Priest River, Idaho, moved here into the Baptist parsonage in Spray. Three children enrolled in school Nov. 2: Ken, an eighth grader, Sandra, a seventh grader, and Patti, a sixth grader.

Tom Troxell was home from the naval base at Long Beach, Calif., the weekend of Nov. 14-15. Mrs. June Troxell took Tom to the International airport Monday, Nov. 16 so he could return to the base.

On Saturday, the Troxell family visited the Robert Troxells above Dayville.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ingersoll of Spray are the parents of a new baby girl born Nov. 17. Michelle Arlene weighed 9 lb., 1 oz. and measured 22 inches long.

Mrs. Myrna Richards went to Portland for her checkup Nov. 13.

Ord and Lillian Younce are going to Portland to stay all night Nov. 24, then they will go on to Tacoma to spend Thanksgiving with their sons and families.

Mrs. Mary Williams will spend Thanksgiving with her daughter and family in Portland.

Ten Spray High School girls and Miss Susan Hartford went to Portland Friday afternoon to attend the performance of Hamlet at the Old Church Theater. The girls attending the performance are Nadine Woods, Debbie Maril, Debbie Britt, Toni Hiatt, Donna Britt, Donna Younce, Verena Britt, Cindy Reade, Barbara Adams, Penny Jo Chapman. Ingersoll drove the bus.

DRUG EDUCATION

A Drug Education Program for Oregon Teachers (DEPOT) workshop will be in Pendleton at the Vert Theater Nov. 30 through December 4. Sponsored jointly by the Oregon Board of Education and the Alcohol and Drug Section of the Mental Health Division, it is one of fourteen in-service clinics to be held in Oregon this year. Primary emphasis of the workshop will be on implementing the new state-adopted handbook, "Toward Responsible Drug Education", in kindergarten through the community college level.

Each elementary and secondary school, and community college in Umatilla, Morrow, Grant, Gilliam, and Wheeler counties is invited to send one teacher to the workshop which is being coordinated regionally by Mick Tolar, Principal of A. C. Houghton Elementary School in Irri-gon.

Although designed for teachers charged with drug education responsibilities in their respective schools, the workshop will be open to a limited number of parents and interested citizens. More information may be obtained by calling Mr. Tolar at 922-3321.

LEADING CAUSES OF DEATH IN U.S.

CHART underscores magnitude of health problem associated with the heart and blood vessel diseases, which, at all ages, are responsible for more than 1,000,000 deaths yearly in the United States, or more than all other causes combined. It also points to the need for intensified support of the 1970 Heart Fund Campaign, here and in 8500 other American communities throughout February.

Reception Honoring Rauchs on 50th

Friends and relatives are cordially invited to the Golden Wedding Anniversary reception for Mr. and Mrs. Julian Rauch on Dec. 6 from 2 to 5.

The reception will be held at the CRC Building in Hermiston and hostesses will be Mrs. David Pardue, their daughter, and Mrs. Irvin Rauch, their daughter-in-law. The Rauchs request no gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Shearer and Mrs. D. Utter of Portland were here for hunting Nov. 18. They camped on Big Potamus and weren't having much luck so they decided to pack early and visit the Clarence Baumanns of Heppner. Just as they had almost all of their gear packed and only one gun out, six elk came through their camp. Fortunately, Mr. Shearer bagged a cow and their trip was a success after all.

Andy Gorman who was a Turkey day baby 7 years ago will celebrate his birthday this year on Nov. 27. He is in St. Anthony Hospital recovering from a school ground accident when he broke his leg.

Carl Bauman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. D. Bauman arrived here Friday from Eugene where he is attending Law School at the University of Oregon for an early Thanksgiving celebration with his family.

The dinner was held at the home of Mrs. Nina Synder Saturday evening. Carl departed Sunday and made it home safely through the snow and wind down the Gorge.

Airman 3/C Kenneth G. Cantwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cantwell of Monument is home on leave while en route to McClellan AFB near Sacramento, Calif. He recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, San Antonio, Texas and then completed technical training at the Shepard AFB, Wichita Falls, Texas. Recently, the Cantwells visited Mr. and Mrs. C. J. D. Bauman in Heppner. Mrs. Bauman is Robert Cantwell's aunt.
