

College Students Bring Christmas Joy

Mark Tullis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garry Tullis is home for the holidays from the University of Montana, Missoula.

David and Sandy Matheny are home from OSU. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Orval Matheny.

The Norman Nelsons, Lexington, have Chuck and Kristin home for Christmas vacation from Oregon State.

Debby Warren is home from OSU and will be working at the Gazette-Times for part of her vacation.

John Rawlins, Oregon State Junior in Zoology is home for the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rawlins. His consuming interest is his major Herpetology, a study of reptiles and amphibians. He hopes to continue his education and teach in college.

When asked his feelings on the Supreme Court's decision on the 18 year old vote, he said "It is only just". It applies to any age, some 18 year olds shouldn't vote just as some 28 year olds shouldn't vote". He planned to go on the Bird Count on Tuesday.

Also coming home for the holidays from Oregon State are the Rawlins' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brewster. Mrs. Brewster is a Home Ec Education major and will graduate in the spring. Mr. Brewster is a graduate student in Range Management. Charlie and Tom Rawlins are at home for a complete family Christmas.

Ginny Clough drove home from Corvallis Sunday. She is a sophomore in Elementary Education. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clough who also have another daughter, Linda, who is a junior in Heppner High.

Tim Driscoll arrived home Friday night from Oregon State and began working the next day at Murrays. He is in his final year of Pharmacy. He will go with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Driscoll to have Christmas with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Bruning in Pendleton. Visiting here during the holidays will be his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Driscoll, Kristi and Jeff, of Poulsville, Wn.

Mike Smith drove home Friday from Lane Community College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith. Also visiting the Smiths is Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Della Murray, of Union. On Christmas Day they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wright and Kimberle of Ruggs.

Judy Gentry, also a student at Lane Community College drove up with Mike Smith when he came. She is here with her family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gentry, Janet, Jerry and Jackie. They will be joined on Christmas Day by the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Gentry of Pendleton.

The two Sweeney boys Mike Marshall Lovgren. Their daughter Marsha, who is employed by the National government and lives at Arlington, Va., will not be able to be home for Christmas.

Linda Eckman, freshman at Eastern Oregon College got through finals early and came home Wednesday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Eckman.

The Pettyjohn boys came home on Saturday before the storm hit. Steve is a junior at Oregon State in Engineering and Larry a sophomore is in Chemistry. With their sister, Dee Ann and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pettyjohn, they will go to Arlington for Christmas day with the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pettyjohn.

Pat and Russell Kilkenny are home for the holidays from the University of Oregon. Pat is getting his Bachelors degree in Journalism then he plans on Law School. Russell in his 3rd year is in Psychology. They both live at the Kappa Sigma house.

With their dad, Bob Kilkenny, Kelly and Johnny, the boys expect to have Christmas dinner at the Don Greenups.

Mark Lovgren who rode up with him also works at the Rat Lab. He was recently bit by one of the rats. He is home to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Santa Claus Visits Hospital

CORA WILSON (left) and Mattie Rood enjoy a visit with ol' Santa.

(G-T Photo).

SANTA CLAUS gives early Christmas Cheer to Home. Mary Healy smiles at Santa's antics. Ethel Chambers at Pioneer Memorial Nursing

(G-T Photo).

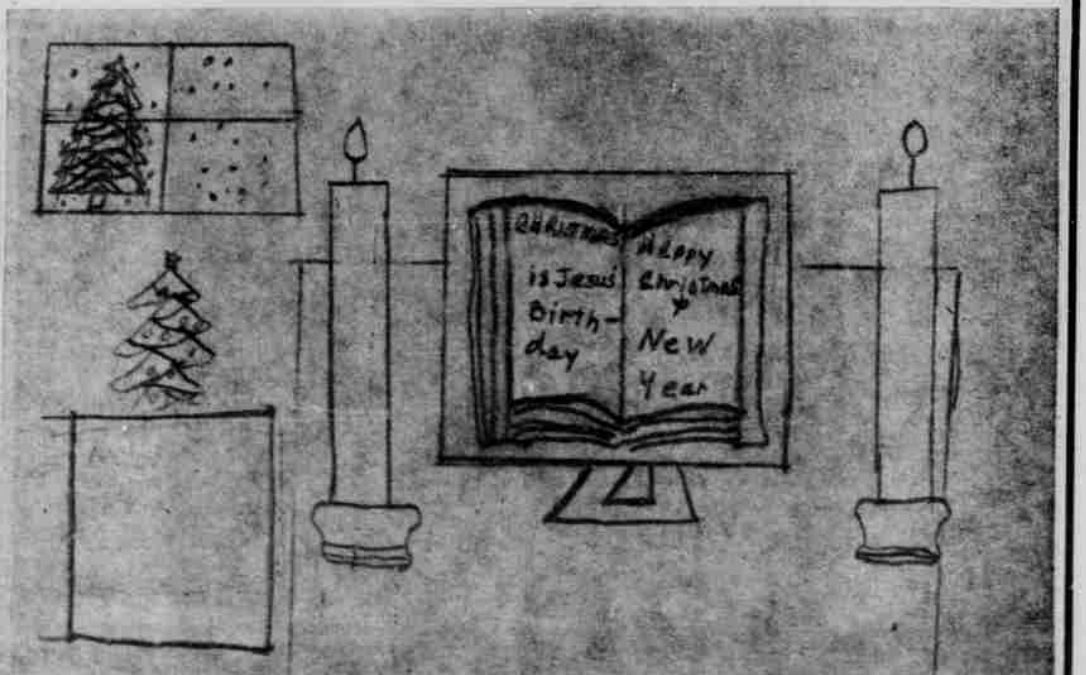

EDNA TURNER who has the busiest fingers in Heppner receives her candy treat from Santa. She is up early in the morning to keep her fingers busy at making slippers, decorated coat hangers, handbags and many other gifts which she gives away and sells.

My Neighbors

"Well I had that long talk with our boy and I learned a few things."

THE HEPPNER GAZETTE-TIMES, Thursday, December 24, 1970

DIANE HOLLAND, 5th GRADE

L. E. (Ed) DICK

Genuine

MOORE Business Forms

We have Pegboard Bookkeeping Forms and Statements. Many other printed forms for all Businesses and Ranches.

THE GAZETTE-TIMES HEPPNER