1 Cards of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS
It is hard to put into words how thankful Paul and I are for everything that was done for us while I was in the hospital. My sincere thanks for all the beautiful flowers, gifts, cards, and notes of encouragement, for the many prayers and masses that were said for my recovery; also a thank you to the women who baby sat my grandchildren so Skip and Dianna could be at the hospital with Paul while I was so ill; special thank you to Rose Baker and Eunice McElligott who drove to Pendleton to special for me; Last but not least, thank you for the delicious food that was brought to the house when I came home. So many people did so much I couldn't possibly mention them all, but I shall remember your kindnesses always.
May you all have a very Happy New Year.
Mrs. Paul (Helen) Pettyjohn 53c

CARD OF THANKS
Our most sincere thanks to our many wonderful friends and relatives for your generosity and for all your help these past few months. Also for the past 10 years you have stood by us, and we will be forever grateful to you.
Your many prayers and cards have helped keep up my morale. It always seemed that when my cross was at its heaviest, a familiar face from home would pop in my room or I'd receive cards from one of you.
A sincere thanks to the Heppner students and BMCC for their blood donations as well as the people from here.
The doctors, nurses and aides, beyond a doubt, are a very special type of person. They each maintain their own individuality but they are the greatest in their own way.
Again, thanks to all of you from the bottom of our hearts. May God bless you. Happy New Year.
Bud & Ramona Marshall 53c

Fog Delays Docking At Columbia River Dock

By FRANCES ROSE WILSON

IRRIGON—A dense fog, which blanketed the river area in the vicinity of McNary, delayed an early Christmas with their families for several of Inland Navigation personnel, on Christmas Eve.

The tug Bannock with a tow of 4 barges had difficulty finding the port dock, which is not lighted. After locating the PGG elevator and oil dock lights it required over 2 hours maneuvering, in the fog, before the tow was secured. Visibility was about 30 to 40 feet, and those arriving to pick up men from the boat assisted by pointing out the dock location with their car lights.

Skipper Ted King of Dufur and Pilot Danny Creamer of Irrigon were finally able to debark and join their families around 1:30 a.m. Christmas morning.

Home from Vietnam

SP4/C Richard Linnell, has returned from Vietnam, after spending a year there. He went out with the 199th Light Infantry Artillery and was with this unit 9 1/2 months before being transferred to AHB 1st Air Cav. Div. He will report to Fort McClellan, Ala., Feb. 2.

He was able to spend Christmas with his mother, Cora Ellis and other members of his family.

Vandalism Noted

Several acts of vandalism, in the community have been reported in the past several weeks. Christmas tree lights were stolen from the nativity scene at the Assembly of God Church. A small lamb belonging to the scene was also taken.

A number of the street signs were torn down and the posts broken off, recently, as were stop signs along the highway out of town.

Lynn Davis of Portland, who is a nephew of Mrs. Ernest Stephens, visited at her home the past week. He was returning from Yakima after visiting his daughter there. He retired from the railroad in 1969, and recently returned from a tour of the Orient, where his son is a missionary in Hong Kong.

Build Home

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Knighten who recently sold their ranch, are building a home on their property in town, assisted by John Horner. They have operated a melon produce stand at the location on the highway for several years.

Their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Delos Knighten, of Corvallis are with them presently as well as her sister Mrs. Otis Gurdane, of The Dalles.

Student from Tunisia Holidays In Kinza

KINZA—A holiday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hardwick and family is Mohammed Al Basam of LaMarsa, Tunisia. He is a student at Portland State College. On Christmas Day they all went to Bend where they visited Mr. and Mrs. John Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Overton and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Luke Scarlet and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick Dunlap went to Grass Valley last Thursday to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dunlap and family. When they returned home they brought their grandson, Helmut Datz for a visit.

Richard Mortimore and family went to Pendleton Christmas Day to spend it with Mr. and Mrs. Jay Standifer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nyseth and Jean spent Christmas visiting their families in and near Rickreall.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Williams went to Blue River on Christmas Day to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry McClain and family.

Mrs. Olin Weems is recuperating in St. Charles Hospital in Bend from injuries suffered before Christmas when her car she was driving skidded on a slick spot near Clarno, causing it to go over a steep embankment.
