

DOTS JOTS

Will wonders ever cease? Today I have two girls in the office who are opposed to having their names printed in the honor roll from an institution of higher learning. Now I ask you . . . We've had kids want their names left off the Court news but never have we had anyone wanting her name left off the Dean's list!

JOYS OF CHRISTMAS . . . Fr. Dan Thompson said to Robert Jones as they were leaving Church Christmas Eve, "If Santa Claus comes to my house before he comes to yours, I'll send him right over."

Several friends were visiting in the living room and the kids were watching TV in the kitchen when on the porch there arose such a clatter and in burst Santa Claus! None of the adults recognized the red suited Santa with a stomach "like a bowl full of jelly." Then with Ho! Ho! he went on to the kitchen. The roof came down when little Herman Winter said "Hello, Mr. Gochner."

Overheard at the Princess Tryouts: Two little girls were talking about Jan Schlichting's horse. "I'll bet that horse's name is 'Stockings' because it has four white feet." A check with Jan later and the girls were pretty close. The horse's name is "Sugar Foot".

Of Interest to Women

MR. and MRS. Norman Griffin at their 25th wedding anniversary.

Norman Griffins Observe Silver Anniversary

The marriage of Norman B. Griffin to Frances A. Cox on Dec. 9, 1945 in Heppner, was commemorated by a Silver Anniversary Open House at their home in Beaverton on Sunday, Dec. 13. The event was sponsored by their daughters, Virginia Lee Martinez, Nina Louise

Leo and Sheryl Lynn Griffin. Their son, Norman Phillip and his wife and family living in southern California were unable to attend.

Among the guests were several former residents of Heppner and Ione. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Patton of Auburn, Wash.; Mrs. Al (Norma) McMahon and son, Kyle of Centralia, Wash.; Mrs. Verda Ritchie of Hillsboro; Mrs. Sam Holmes of Beaverton; Rev. and Mrs. John Fullen of Aloha. At one time he was the sheriff of Morrow County and his wife, Florence Moyer, a minister at Ione; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bun and Carol of Aloha; Mrs. Frances Smith and daughters, Norma and Maria of Beaverton. Portland guests were: Mrs. Leona Jennings, Mr. Louis Peters; Mr. Dick Sikel; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Greenstreet; Mrs. William H. Johnston; Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Martinez and children, T. J., Colleen and Dawn; and Kimi and Koni Leo and their mother, Nina Louise Leo. The last five children helped their grandparents celebrate.

A large white cake with silver trimmings and pink punch, tea and coffee were served. A burst of applause greeted the couple as they kissed long and lovingly. The bridegroom was heard to say, "If it was to do over, I'd marry her again—if she'd have me!"

Jeanne Lovgren Will Head Heart Crusade

Louis B. Perry, Oregon State Heart Fund Chairman, has announced that Mrs. Jeanne Lovgren has accepted Chairmanship for the Morrow County 1971 Heart Fund Drive.

In accepting this position, Mrs. Lovgren reminded Morrow County residents that cardiovascular disease still remains Oregon's No. 1 Killer — accounting for more than 54 percent of all deaths in Oregon State last year. "It is up to us," she continued, "to contribute to this great cause. Donating to the Oregon Heart Association is our responsibility. 59 percent of all monies are used by medical investigators in Oregon for further research to discover causes and means of preventing cardiovascular disease." Mrs. Lovgren feels "we must all give so more will live".

Carl Bauman spent the holidays with his family, the C. J. D. Baumans. Carl is a law student at the University of Oregon.

WHAT'S COOKIN'?

Here is another one of the Christmas recipes that I tried and will try it again. It is big and would suggest that you may want to have two molds ready for use.

Peaches 'n Cream Salad Cream Layer:
3 oz. package lemon flavor gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 cup orange juice
2 1/8 oz. package whipped topping mix
3-oz. cream cheese softened
1/4 cup chopped pecans.

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water; add orange juice. Refrigerate until slightly thickened. Prepare topping mix according to package directions. Blend in cheese; stir in pecans. Fold in to gelatin mixture and pour into mold.

Peach Layer:
3-oz. package lemon flavor gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 lb. 5 or 6 oz. can peach pie filling
Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Stir in pie filling. Pour over top of first layer. Chill until firm.

Fondue Brunch

Mr. and Mrs. Conley Lanham and Mr. and Mrs. Milo Prindle were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heard for a Fondue brunch on New Years Day.

EARLY BIRD GOLFERS

The first golfers of the new year on the Willow Creek golf course parred the first hole. They were Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Gribble and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gunderson. After paring the first hole they parted company. Because of the frozen ground, a tender touch was required on No. 2. Dee, with less than a tender touch landed her ball in the creek. Good news, the creek was frozen solid and she retrieved her ball. They all parred No. 4 except Dee. They only played 9 holes but reported an exhilarating game.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlin spent New Year's weekend at Walla Walla with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pulfer. Mr. Pulfer and Mr. Hamlin were boyhood friends in Gresham. The two families were together in the Panama Canal Zone during the Pearl Harbor invasion at the beginning of WWII.
