Children Honor McCoy's at Irrigon

By FRANCES ROSE WILSON

(Delayed) IRRIGON — Over 100 friends and relatives joined Mr. and Mrs. Benny E. McCoy in celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary at an open house in their home at Irrigon on Jan. 23. Hosts were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Terry McCoy, Everett Wash.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Arthur Trimble, Hereford, and Mrs. Jack Beers, Rufus, Mrs. Warren McCoy and Mrs. Vernon Stewart of Irrigon, Susan Simmons of Pendleton, Debra McCoy and Sharon Stewart, Irrigon, helped with the gifts and serving. Jeanne Prindle of Umatilla was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. McCoy retired from government service at Umatilla Army Depot after 28 years. He had served a major portion of his employment as Chief, Ammunition Maintenance Division and filled the positions of Director for Administration and Director for Quality the final years of service.

Mrs. McCoy is from Vale, and graduated from EOC. She taught in Morrow County schools for many years, but is now content to be housewife and help her husband enjoy retirement.

Out of town guests included her sisters and brothers-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trimble, Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beers and Matt, Rufus, her brother, Nicky Eddy of Ontario. Other guests came from Walla Walla, Pendleton, The Dalles, Hermiston, Boardman and Umatilla.

From Florida
Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Russell of Tampa, Fla., have been visiting at the home of her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Graybeal. Mr. Russell left on a business trip to Chicago earlier and Mrs. Russell remained here for about 10 weeks.

Floyd Mesteth is home for a short time from Hurlong, Calif., where he has been employed by the Army. He will be leaving soon for Vietnam, where he will be employed as a Surveillance Inspector.

Irrigon Elects New Pastor

By FRANCES ROSE WILSON

(Delayed) IRRIGON — Rev. and Mrs. Wesley Cronk were elected to serve as pastors of the Irrigon Assembly of God, at a business meeting of the church Jan. 24. Rev. and Mrs. Cronk are attending Bethany Bible College, in Santa Cruz, Calif., and expect to come to Irrigon early in June, after graduating from this school. They have ministered in Irrigon several times in recent years, and are well known for their gospel music in churches of this area.

Stephen Beansford of Hermiston spoke Sunday morning to the Irrigon Assembly and will be present to minister for the next several weeks.

The Sunday School Workers Training Course was started Sunday evening with Mrs. Al Partlow leading in the study of the book "The Assemblies of God in Mission".

Home from Germany
Sp. Keith Maddox has returned from Bamberg, Germany, where he has been stationed for over a year. He has now received his discharge from the Army. He and his wife Mary, left Irrigon Monday for Vancouver, Wash., after visiting his mother, Roda Maddox, Mrs. Maddox, the former Mary Wear of Boardman, is enrolled at Clark Community College in Vancouver, where she is taking a key punch course.

The Ladies Aid of the Community Baptist Church will meet this Thursday, Feb. 4, at 2 p.m. in the church basement.

Family Reunion
Cora Ellis had a family reunion dinner while her sons Richard and Michael Linnell were at home on leave from the Army. Leon Wilson was a guest at the dinner.

Richard Linnell recently returned from Vietnam, where he had spent a year. He was to report to Fort McClellan, Ala., on

'Atomic Power Today' Seen by Grangers

The film, "Atomic Power Today—Service with Safety" was seen by Grangers attending Pomona Grange hosted by Willows Grange last Saturday.

A turkey and ham dinner was served at noon.

A card party sponsored by Willows Grange was held after the closing of Pomona. They had 11 tables in play.

Trailer Fire

Steve Smith was severely burned early Friday, as he started to light the stove. Gas fumes had evidently escaped during the night and ignited around the room where they had settled, burning drapes and bedding in his trailer home. He was burned trying to control the flames. Since he did not have a phone, he drove to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smith. His mother took him to the hospital, while his dad checked on the trailer house, where his mattress and bedding were still smoldering.

School News
There have been several programs of special interest to students of A. C. Houghton School. The 5th and 6th grades listened attentively as Mrs. Cecil Ware of Hermiston showed colored slides of Vietnam taken by her son John before they received word that he was missing. Students were requested to write a letter about concern for the prisoners of war. The letters are to be taken to Paris by Gov. Tom McCall.

On Thursday, Jan. 28, Chuck Bindner presented an interesting program on Birds of Prey. Among the live birds he had with him were owls, a hawk and an eagle. He travels with his birds to show them at National Assemblies in schools across the country.

On Monday evening Mrs. Al Partlow showed colored slides of her trip to the Holy Lands, at the A. C. Houghton PTA meeting. During the business meeting the PTA authorized giving 2 scholarships to students attending 4-H summer school.

The Irrigon Rural Fire Department responded to a call Saturday. The fire was in a box car and in grass around the railroad, about 1 1/2 miles east of town.

Leon Wilson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wilson, Irrigon, was inducted into the Army on Jan. 27. He is at Fort Lewis for basic training.

Sunday afternoon visitors at the Reese Morgan home were, Jean Stover, Eleanor Collins, William Layton, all of Pendleton.

Irrigon residents who are patients at the Umatilla hospital, include John Volle, Lloyd Berger, Sally Harrell, Nellie Knighten.
