Boardman Men Ship Heifers To Korea

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN — Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Gantenbein went to Portland last week to deliver two heifers to be shipped to Korea. These heifers were donated by Gantenbein and Harold Rash, local dairymen, to Heifer Project, Inc. This is a self help program for under privileged people in nations around the world. Each recipient passes on the first offspring from his gift to a needy neighbor. In addition to dairy heifers, beef calves, sheep, goats, hogs, rabbits, chickens, ducks, turkeys and geese are also given, depending on the needs of the area.

Rev. A. H. Elshoff, a retired minister, is director of the Northwest region of Heifer Project, Inc. His office is in Portland.

JV's Sweep Weekend

By BOB FLOYHAR

After surviving a late Condon rally and coming from behind to whip Umatilla, the Baby Mustangs improved their record to 10-5 with only five games remaining.

Led by John Boyer and Allen McCabe, the Baby Mustangs built up a 10 point halftime lead over Condon, only to see it dwindle to 3 before they could get ahold of themselves and edge the Baby Devils 46-41. Only four of the Heppner boys were able to score in the contest with Boyer getting 18, McCabe 14 and Eckman and Papineau, 7 each.

Saturday night, the Umatilla Vikings came to Heppner and forced the Baby Mustangs to come from behind to clinch a 60-53 victory.

As the game started out, the taller Umatilla team held the upper hand but the speedy Mustangs turned the tide late in the third quarter and went on to win.

Scoring for the Umatilla game was Boyer 26, McCabe 17, Hedman 7, Eckman 5, Papineau 3 and Bergstrom 2.
