

Ron Daniels to Speak at Extension Meetings

Superintendent of Schools Ron Daniels will teach the lesson for the six Home Extension units in Morrow County for the month of March. This lesson will deal with the general topic of school laws and regulations and budgets. Many requests were made to the Extension Service to conduct such a program. The lesson will give leaders an opportunity to ask questions concerning school rules that they do not understand.

Mr. Daniels will speak at: Rhea Creek, March 3 at 10 a.m., Grange Hall. Heppner Unit, March 8 at 10 a.m. at Alice McCabes. Potluck luncheon. Ione Unit, March 8 at 8 p.m. at Willows Grange. Buffet Dinner At Lexington Grange

A buffet dinner featuring Swedish Meatballs and chicken as the main course will be held at the Lexington Grange Hall on Sunday, Feb. 28 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m.

The main course will be accompanied by a choice of delicious salads and desserts. Dinner committee members are Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. C. C. Jones and Mrs. Ed Hunt. Proceeds from the dinner will be put into the Grange building improvement fund.

As is the case for most organizations, membership dues do not support the upkeep of the grange hall; therefore, once a year the grange has a money making project for this purpose. Besides housing the Grange, the hall is available to other organizations and groups and upkeep is essential.

MRS. TERRY L. BURKENBINE who was Shirley Moross before her marriage Feb. 20 in Georgia.

Former Heppner Boy Marries in Georgia

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moross of Clawson, Mich., announce the marriage of their daughter Shirley to Terry L. Burkenbine of Alpena, Mich. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Burkenbine also of Alpena, but formerly of Heppner.

The young couple was married at Savannah, Beach, Ga., on Feb. 20. Attending them were Roberta Moross, sister of the bride and Rich Mills from Lincoln, Mich. Following their marriage they are making their home at Fort Stewart, Ga., where the bridegroom is employed by the government.

The bride is a graduate of Clawson High School and a 1970 graduate of Central Michigan University.

WHATS COOKIN'?

So simple but so delicious was the cherry crisp the cooks made for the FFA banquet Tuesday evening. The proportions may vary according to the amount you have on hand. They combined toasted bread ground, brown sugar, rolled wheat or oats, melted butter, cinnamon. Mrs. Matthews suggested lemon juice and I'd put in a few walnuts. Anyway this mixture was spread over thickened, sweetened cherries spread on the bottom of the pan. They suggested baking it in a 300 degree oven until browned. Cut in squares and serve with whip cream.

They say they make the same goody with apples for an apple crisp. This is one way they use the heels of the bread when they make sandwiches. Naomi Matthews and Eva Griffith are the cooks who dreamed up this delicious dish.

DOTS JOTS

Got a card from Pastor Don Johnson and "crew" Mary Kay Hughes, Linda Cooper, Matt Hughes, Randy Hughes, Rory Stillman and Ken Baker with a picture of the Space Needle on it from Seattle. "Having a wonderful time... wish you were here". If they were on top of the Space Needle, I do too. Of all the times we've been in Seattle, it just never worked out yet... that I got to go to the top.

The kids were in Seattle to attend a "Youth on Campus" Fellowship on the campus of the Puget Sound College of the Bible. They were good to the preacher. Their last sentence... "We'll let the preacher tell you about it when we get home"... and I hope he will. Thanks kids!

Spring is here? While I am a sun worshipper and I am delighted to have the sun swinging enough to the north that we now have sunshine for breakfast... it does show up those dirty windows!

The Forsythia is blooming at the Clint Ages, the Flowering Quince at Ted Smiths, an apricot tree at the Robert Jones' and a beautiful pink tree at the Ernie Winchesters.

Just so we don't get that "deep freeze" in March... or April... or May!

Jim Wilcox, FFA State Sentinel, from Enterprise made a masterly talk at the Heppner FFA banquet Tuesday evening. He made a humorous reference to his "missing front tooth" which everyone was already so curious about! After four years of wrestling, four years of football, he lost his tooth while refereeing a wrestling bout! He will enter Oregon State Spring term.

Small world that it is Charlie went to high school with Jim's dad... known in those days as "Swede" Wilcox.

Of Interest to Women

MRS. VERNON (FAYE) MUNKERS holds the handsome appreciation plaque just presented by Judge Paul Jones from the people of Morrow County. Also present were county commissioners from left, Homer Hughes and Walter Hayes.

Judge Jones Presents Appreciation Plaque

Mrs. Vernon Munkers was presented with a handsome plaque by the people of Morrow County in appreciation of her service on the Pioneer Memorial Hospital Board. Judge Paul Jones made the presentation in the presence of the other two members of the County Court, Walter Hayes and Homer Hughes.

Mrs. Munkers filled out the term for Lita Thompson and then was appointed for a five year term to serve eight years. John Pfeiffer was appointed to fill her position on the board.

Mrs. Munkers is a community-service minded person. She likes to do, she likes to accomplish something, she likes to help others. She says "I'm not a teaparty person".

She feels serving on the Hospital Board similar to the school board and other community boards, is a real education. "The public doesn't realize the problems that exist for the hospital". It is a real struggle to keep the doors open.

She would encourage people to visit in the hospital and particularly in the Nursing Home. "A cheery greeting and smile and five minutes of conversation does wonders for these people". She had praise for the Soropti-

The budget hearing will be March 9 at 7:30 p.m. at the District office. This will be followed by the regular board meeting.

He discussed plans for the March drive with Fund Chairman Tom Beam. A larger percentage of the money collected than on previous years will remain in the county according to Mr. Pope. This year 50 percent will remain for the work in Morrow County.
