Legion Has Birthday

There was a big turnout Monday evening for the annual Birthday celebration the American Legion Auxiliary gives the Legion. There were nearly 70 present to enjoy a better-than-usual potluck with the decorated Birthday Cake for dessert.

Commander Jim Driscoll presented Past Commander pins to C. J. D. Bauman, D. E. Hudson, Frank Hamlin, Bill Heath, Hubert Wilson, Glen Ward and Don Munkers.

John Canaday was introduced as the newest member. Mr. Driscoll announced the next meeting, a joint potluck dinner with the Auxiliary will be held April 5 at 7 p.m. Mrs. Gene Ferguson will show slides of her recent trip down the Mississippi on the Mississippi river boat, the Delta Queen.

Bench Chatter

By HANK DICK

The team felt great after the Maupin victory. This victory brought the Broncos' record to 9-4 and cinched a seat in the Regional tournament in The Dalles March 11-13.

Spirit was high the next night at Pilot Rock—the gym was so crowded that there was little room under the baskets at either end.

There was some question as to whether the Horsemen should have received a time out with 34 remaining on the clock. The Rocket fans covered the floor ending any chance of regaining the lost seconds.

Coach Clough said the team looked good and played well at Pilot Rock. He also said that Pilot Rock played one of their better games last Saturday. "We're looking toward McEwen now."

This week Heppner will travel to Athena to battle the McEwen Scotties in the final league game on Friday.

Tom Sargent Passes At Lincoln City

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McTimpeny have received word of the death of Tom Sargent at Lincoln City. Services will be held there with burial at Rose City in Portland.

Mr. Sargent will be remembered here. He was a plumber in Heppner from the mid-1950's until the late 1960's. He worked for Claude Buschke. His late wife, Ella, ran the Hotel Grill during the time they were here. They returned for hunting and fishing.

Mrs. Sargent was Jack McTimpeny's mother. Mr. Sargent is survived by his sister, Dorothy Golf, of Portland and a brother, Don, in New York.

Kinza Safety Meet Saturday

A large crowd was present Saturday evening at the American Legion Hall here. Occasion was the Kinza Corp. safety meeting.

Speakers, according to Allen Nistad, were Phil Kelson, Kinza's Personnel Manager; Howard Stroud of the Oregon Heart Assn., Portland; and Tony Shillenburg, Safety Director of the Timber Operators Council, of Portland. Several talks were illustrated with graphics.

A delightful turkey dinner was served the lumbermen and their wives by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Ione Auxiliary Cleans House

The Ione American Legion Auxiliary met Monday for an all-day cleaning session at the Legion Hall. Formica walnut counter tops were recently installed as well as a new double stainless steel sink. The members cleaned the cupboards inside and out and washed all the dishes.

Their cleaning was in anticipation of the annual Birthday party given for the Legion. This event will be held on March 16 at 7 p.m. with a potluck supper.

Winners of the recent Americanism essay contest sponsored by the Auxiliary will be special guests. They are Clint Krebs, 1st place winner of the Senior Division and Junior Division winners Mike Warren, 1st, Terry Taylor, 2nd, Harvey Childers, 3rd, Marilyn Warren, Charlie McElligott, Melanie Ball, Jan Ekstrom, Donna Flack and Marcia Linnell, all honorable mention. Mrs. Gar Swanson was chairman. Over 40 entered the contest.
