

BARBARA ANN BOYCE

Mr. and Mrs. R. Boyce Announce Daughter's Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyce announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann to GMNS Randy Lee Stillman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stillman of Heppner.

Barbara is a graduate of Heppner High School and Western Business University. Randy, a 1968 graduate of Heppner High School has just returned from 8 months overseas and is awaiting re-assignment.

No wedding date has been set.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hopper were one of the 24 lucky winners of Central Market's lucky drawings. It was just before noon on Saturday when the buzzer sounded and they were at the check stand.

John said, "We were sure surprised and really appreciated the groceries". Mrs. Hopper said there was a new kind of floor wax that she had never used before. Other goodies include 10 lb. potatoes, can of corn, tomatoes, syrup, potato chips, catsup, carton of Pepsi-Cola and others.

Church Women Plan Bird Sanctuary At Nursing Home

In thousands of communities across America, the World Day of Prayer is the only time in which women unite across denominational lines. Last Friday women of 12 churches gathered at All Saints' Episcopal Church for an inspirational service, "A New Life Awaits". The group accepted the invitation of the United Methodist Church to meet at their church next year. The chairman will come from the host church. Mrs. Charles Heard was elected secretary-treasurer. The proceeds of the offering, $55.85, was designated for the development of a Bird Sanctuary at the Pioneer Memorial Hospital nursing home. Named to the committee were Mrs. Ed Cutting, Mrs. Bob Lowe, Mrs. Vernon Munkers and Mrs. Heard. There were between 90 and 100 women present.

Elks Go 'South of the Border'

A delicious un-hot Mexican dinner was served at the Elks Club Thursday evening. The choice of making the dinner Mexican hot was left to the individual by adding HOT HOT peppers. Mr. and Mrs. Hal Whitaker were chairmen, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Don Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. John Gochauer, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Thompson, Lennie Hanna, Mrs. Al Martin, Mrs. Harold Kerr and Mrs. Bruce Malcom.

There was a good turnout for the card playing afterwards. Mrs. Howard Keithley was in charge of the pinochle. Prize winners were Sarah Adkins, high and Mrs. Dean Naffziger low. Esther Bergstrom won the door prize.

Mrs. Phil Mahoney was in charge of the bridge. Prize winners were Wavel Wilkinson, high, and Mrs. Ralph Richards low.

Of Interest to Women

MR. and MRS. BRUCE BOTHWELL on their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

Bothwells Have Glorious 50th

It was truly a Golden Wedding Anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bothwell on Saturday. Besides the golden decorations used profusely about the room, there was an attendance of friends and family more precious than gold. Little Mrs. Bothwell said, "It was just wonderful".

The Open House held Saturday at their home was hosted by their four children, Mrs. Vester Hams, Hermiston, Mrs. Joe Kain, Pendleton, Mrs. Wes Marlatt and Wade Bothwell of Heppner.

On Sunday 32 members of their family were present for dinner. Among the many highlights was a call from former Judge and Mrs. Garnet Barrett, now of Mesa, Ariz. and a call from Mrs. Roy Lieuallen of Salem. Mrs. Lieuallen is Mrs. Bothwell's sister. Debby Warren, their granddaughter, came up from Oregon State for the affair.

The Bothwells were married March 6, 1921 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cowin in Heppner. The first 10-12 years of their marriage they ranched at Maupin. In the early 1930's they returned to Heppner where they have lived ever since. These were depression days, Mrs. Bothwell recalls and Mr. Bothwell was lucky to get a job on a ranch for $1.00 a day.

Later he had a sheep shearing plant and went into Montana to shear sheep. Later he started carpentering which he continues to do. He enjoys refinishing furniture in the evenings. Not so much any more but they used to have a big garden. Now they always have tomatoes.

Mr. Bothwell takes prizes every year for his walnuts at the Morrow County Fair. Many years ago he bought 4 walnuts for $1.00 from a man traveling through Heppner who said they came from northern Asia. These hardy trees withstand the below zero winters of eastern Oregon. Mr. Bothwell has started trees for all his family and occasionally sells them.

Mrs. Bothwell says she has always been busy with children. Their own children cover a span of 20 years and by that time the grandchildren were arriving.

Mother's Club Sees Various Talents

A lesson in cake decorating was presented by Peggy Johnson and Barbara Jessmer to the March 1 meeting of the Mother's Club. The members saw a demonstration on how to make roses, swags, sweet peas and other decorating hints.

A plant exchange was then made with the members each bringing a plant or bulb and drawing numbers for them. A display and discussion of hobby and craft items followed. Several ladies brought handicraft and explained the construction. Mrs. Dick Sargent was the guest of the evening.

Refreshments of Jell-O salad were served by co-hostess, Pat Jensen.

The next meeting will be April 5 at the home of Barbara Jessmer with Gail Burkenbine as co-hostess. The work project will be "New Materials to Sew With".

Grand Warden Visits Sans Souci Chapter

Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 was honored at the March 5 meeting by having present, Darrel L. Wright, Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of Oregon and his wife Florence Wright, who is also of Salem Rebekah Lodge No. 1. The Conductor, Mildred Padberg, escorted the visitors to center of the floor to be presented and the honors of the Degree extended to the Grand Warden.

Altha Kirk conducted the meeting, serving pro tem for Noble Grand, Mary McMurry, who was ill. Others reported on ill list were Ed LaTrace, Mary Bailey and Alice Luttrell. Alta Stevens was also absent and her station was filled by Esther Bergstrom, Jr. PNG. Opal Cook, chairman for Convention dinner for Odd Fellows, announced everything was in readiness for next day's activities.

Notes were read from Lee Wagenblast and Helen Kruger, out of town members.

Mabel Chaffee, a veteran member of the Order has sold her home in Heppner and moved to Hermiston where she will reside. She has an apartment next door to Ada Eskelson, a member of Holly EL No. 179 who visits here quite often.

The Grand Warden, Mr. Wright, gave an interesting talk and commented on how well the Heppner lodges worked together.

Dist. No. 1 Convention
Altha Kirk reported visiting District No. 1 convention of Rebekah Lodges in Portland Feb. 27 at the IOOF Temple. The matron of the Home, Mary Daley, gave a report of the Home and several residents attended the day's session with her. Secretary of District No. 1 Association is Esta Smith, daughter-in-law of Letha Archer.

The State Drill team, composed of Past Noble Grands from every part of Oregon, gave their exhibition drill during the evening program. Dimple Munkers and Altha Kirk are members of this drill team. The chairman of the Convention Mrs. Erna Miller invited the entire team to be her guests at the dinner for her officers in the Roosevelt Hotel.

Next meeting of Sans Souci will be March 19. This will be the quarterly birthday party. Hazel Bauman, chairman.

St. Patrick's Altar Society is having a card party at the Parish Hall on March 17 at 8 p.m. Cookies and coffee will be served throughout the evening. Baked things will be given as prizes. Admission is $1.00 per person. Mrs. Ed Gonty is chairman.

Wives Honored At Jaycee Dinner

Wives of the Morrow County Jaycees were paid special tribute at the Wife Appreciation Night on March 6.

A buffet dinner prepared by Charles Armstrong of the Hotel Cafe was served at the Legion Hall. The main course consisted of Ham and Roast Beef with salads, vegetables and rolls. All dinners for the wives were paid by the club at this second-year occasion.

Following the dinner, cards games were played to conclude an enjoyable evening.

LEATHERCRAFT NEWS

March 3, Pine City Leathercraft Club met at their leader's home, Mrs. Jerry Myers. We had a film on leathercraft which we enjoyed. Birdine Tullis came to visit our club. We practiced on scraps. It was decided that we would have our meetings the first Thursday of every month.
