Rainbow Reception Held for Karla

"Faith Can Move Mountains" was the theme of the reception honoring Karla Weatherford on March 21.

Invocation and benediction were given by Sue Melby, Past Grand Representative of the State of New Hampshire in Oregon followed by the introduction of guests. Among those present, guests recognized were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Weatherford of Arlington, Karla's aunt and uncle; Juanita Carmichael, Past Grand Organist for Eastern Star in Oregon and Paul Jones, Past Grand High Priest of the Royal Arch Masons in Oregon.

Addendums were given for Karla, depicting her theme and for Ruby Becket who is Grand Deputy of Rainbow. Faye Wilson was presented with her Past Mother Advisor's Charm.

The afternoon's decorations carried out Karla's theme using the color decor of pink and orange. Mountains were painted behind the Worthy Advisor's chair, letters spelling faith were on the color stations and the steps up to the East were decorated in letters in the shape of a mountain.

Reception Follows
The theme was carried out in the cake of variegated roses of pink and orange on a white background centered with an open book inscribed with "Faith Can Move Mountains". Colleen Gallher made and served the cake with Mrs. Carmichael serving the coffee and tea and Mrs. Clarice Baker, the punch.

DOTS JOTS

A Cake Sitting Dog!

Unless you've met Baron, the huge Beagle who lives with Dave and Diane Owens you can't appreciate this happening. Diane was taking her cake to the Soroptimist Cooked Food Sale last week when she looked back and saw Baron was following her. She got out to send him back and he hopped in to go with her . . . you guessed it . . . right upon the seat on top of the cake with that happy smile. "See you didn't really want to leave me at home . . . did you?"

That will be a good one to tell her grandchildren.

While we're on cakes . . . the Wheat League cake recipe is in Columbia Basin's ad this week. They have gone back to chocolate again. This is pleasing to Charlie because he thinks it isn't cake unless it's chocolate. I always think I'm going to try it early and get so good I'll enter one in the fair. This might be the year.

The Charles Ruggles' are back from Arizona . . . and they think it's cold here.

Charlie says I shouldn't rub this giving blood into the ground but I'm so sure that if people knew how easy it is they'd give. I'd so much like to see Heppner make quota this year. It's only if we keep giving that we can expect to keep our own hospital on the supply list.

When blood is needed . . . it's needed badly!
