

Boardman Couple Repeat Vows In March Ceremony

By MARY LEE MARLOW

Miss Carol Ann Sprague of Portland became the bride of Larry Dean West at a 7 p.m. candlelight ceremony March 12 at the Boardman Community Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cardina of Atlanta, Ga., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey W. West, Jr., of Boardman. The double ring service was performed by Pastor Neil King, of the Boardman Community Church.

Mrs. Wayne Kuhn sang "More" and "We've Only Just Begun", accompanied by Mrs. Edwin Bushby of Umatilla, who also played the nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Forest Conant of Painesville, Ohio, wore a floor length gown of natural and lavender print linen, fashioned with a full skirt. She wore a headband of white daisies and carried a basket of lavender and white daisies, roses and ivy.

Mrs. Frank Bates, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and wore a floor length gown of lavender linen with yellow sash. She wore a headband of yellow daisies.

Richard Walker of Lebanon was best man, and ushers were Frank Bates, brother-in-law of the groom, and Robert Sprague, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, with about 100 guests attending. The three tiered cake was topped with bells borrowed from Mrs. Bill White of Imbler, used on her wedding cake, and had also been used on the cake for the golden anniversary of the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beeks of Arlington. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Carroll Donovan, and Mrs. Dale Russell of The Dalles, aunts of the groom. Pouring the coffee was Mrs. Forest Conant of Painesville, Ohio, aunt of the bride, and serving the punch was Mrs. John Hutson of Walla Walla, Wash., aunt of the groom. Others assisting were Mrs. Ronald Black, Mrs. Bernard Donovan, Mrs. Jim Barrick and Mrs. Rupert Kennedy. Dalene Russell, cousin of the groom, had the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Cordina wore a daffodil yellow dress, and had a corsage of roses and stephanotis. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy and gold knit suit, with a yellow cymbidium orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Lincoln High School in Portland. The bridegroom is a graduate of Riverside High School, Boardman, Portland State University and served three years in the armed services.

For her going away costume the bride wore a salmon color pant suit with white blouse.

After a trip to the coast the couple will live in Beaverton at 13773 S. W. Electric Street. They are both employed by Fred Meyer, Inc.

Guests attended from Painesville, Ohio, Atlanta, Ga.; Auburn, Bickleton, and Walla Walla, Wash.; Portland, Madras, Imbler, Woodburn, Arlington and The Dalles.

Lotts Visit Alsea

Mr. and Mrs. Randy Lott returned to Heppner Saturday from Alsea where they had been visiting the Frank Rasmussens since last Wednesday.

Mr. Rasmussen, former resident, is currently the district ranger for Siuslaw Forest. Once they got used to the rain, they came to enjoy the area and its beauty.

The two families spent a day at the coast and were fortunate to pick a sunshiny day to picnic. That evening they thoroughly enjoyed a seafood dinner of fresh crab and oysters.

Mrs. Earl Hall (Marcie) and small daughter Jodi, have been visitors at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. G. Pieper for ten days. Mrs. Pieper had spent a few days in Portland and Mrs. Hall drove her home. During Mrs. Hall's stay, her son-in-law, Bob Nichols of Ft. Lewis spent time with them.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Nelson were last weekend visitors at her mother's also. They returned to Portland on Monday. Mrs. Daryl Dick and children Debra, Trevor and Devonna were weekend visitors March 5-7 at Mrs. Pieper's also. They are grandchildren.

Of Interest to Women

DOTS JOTS

Diabetes Negative

Morrow County was overwhelmed with the number who took the trouble to follow the special diet for the Diabetes Detection clinics. I am overwhelmed at the number of referrals . . . 39 in all, which is 6 plus per cent. Eight of these were known diabetics. Six of them were for low blood sugar. This leaves 25 who will follow up with further tests with their physicians. This is wonderful really. Their problems may be arrested with proper diet and medication if it is caught early. Eventually insulin by needle may be a thing of the past and with research, hopefully, diabetes may be eliminated.

I took the sandwich makings and fruits to the shop so that everyone could have the prescribed menu to take the test. Good news . . . all of us had negatives!

Vacation Finally

Since January we have been trying to take off for last year's vacation. Things kept interfering until last week we took off for five days in Phoenix and Tucson. Our daughter-in-law, Sylvia Heard from Huntsville, Ala., was in Phoenix for a UNIVAC conference. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lawrence Fugate of Ewing, Va., who was making her first trip west of the Mississippi.

We had two fun evenings with them. The most fun was the evening we had dinner at Pinnacle Peaks. Jack Sumner had told me about going there for a steak dinner and if the men are wearing ties . . . they did! Charlie was certainly surprised and I made sure that he was wearing a tie that I didn't care about. They took the tie cut-offs and a Heppner Gazette-Times business card and stapled it to the rafters along with BILLIONS of other ties!

The steaks broiled over hardwood logs and were so tender and juicy. It is a huge rambling place with lots and lots of big rooms stretching all over the place. The tables are covered with red and white oil cloth with coal oil lamps on each table. The menu consists of 16 oz. or 32 oz. steaks, tossed salad and hot rolls, the only dessert was apple pie with either cheese or ice cream. It is about 18 miles north of Scottsdale. Old Scottsdale was a charming place of many mini-shops. Until a few years ago they had bord wks.

It is practically solid from Phoenix to Scottsdale to Tempe to Mesa to Apache Jct. Hillside after hillside covered with mobile homes. I don't blame people for spending their winters there. The temperatures when we were there was in the 80's and 90's. The sunburn was beautiful!

The American Cancer Society reminds you: "Help yourself with a checkup and others with a check."

Initiates Entertain At Buffet Supper

A playlet in rhythm was performed by three new initiates as a high spot of the gala spring initiation buffet supper enjoyed by members of the Heppner Soroptimist Club on Thursday evening, March 23, at the Mike Gray home.

Coached by Mrs. Jim Thomson, Mrs. Clayton Sweek, Mrs. Allen Hughes, and Mrs. David Owens gave a dramatic and amusing performance of "A Romance of Piff Piff Land." Diane Owens was a coy princess, Gall Hughes made a dashing prince charming, and Evelyn Sweek performed convincingly her role as the king, father of Princess Diane. The great performance turned into a dire tragedy when Prince Gall fell on "his" sword after the king refused to grant the too poor but so-charming prince's request for his daughter's hand in marriage. When Princess Diane found her prince dead she downed a fatal draught of poison; and the practical but loving king then decided life was no longer worth living and proceeded to strangle himself—leaving three dead new Soroptimist members strewn about the Gray's living room floor.

Nineteen women enjoyed the super buffet supper, the attractive surroundings and the evening's program which featured, beside the playlet, a rather formal initiation presented by Club President, Mrs. Glenn Smith, assisted by Mrs. Elaine George, and a very informal initiation arranged by Mrs. Mike Gray.

Marshall Lovgren Honored by Lodge

Over 140 persons gathered at the Elks Lodge here Saturday evening, March 27, to partake of a steak dinner arranged to honor the out-going Exalted Ruler Marshall Lovgren.

The steaks were prepared according to the diners' individual preferences by Mr. Chuck Armstrong, the new manager of Hotel Heppner. The committee which arranged the evening was made up of the lodge officers and their wives, with the in-coming chaplain Dean Naffziger as chairman. Dancing was enjoyed after dinner.

Exalted Ruler Lovgren and Mrs. Lovgren were accompanied to the festivities by their daughter Marsha and son Mark. Marsha was home for a short vacation from her work in Washington, D. C.

Soroptimists Style Patients' Coiffures

The ladies in the Pioneer Memorial Hospital got a "lift" Saturday, March 27 as the Soroptimists did their hair. Ida Farra, Tana Bunch and Evelyn Sweek washed, curled and combed, a service greatly appreciated by both the patients and the hospital staff.

Olive Hughes is Home

Olive Hughes is home for a few weeks until she takes off to help someone else! This past winter she has been with her sister at Long Beach who is warehouse unit advisor for Wanda Beauty. She carries all the stock for her saleswomen in the area. Mrs. Hughes helped her in filling orders and answering two telephones.

She said Long Beach felt the earthquake but no damage was sustained to any of the tall buildings. Following the 1933 earth quake, quake building codes have been enforced which proved to be beneficial.

At Santa Ana where her brother, Willard Bassett lives, they had much damage. She said 33 schools had been condemned. She spent her weekends with her brother who is a voice instructor. He has the largest privately owned-operated studio in the United States. She enjoyed the weekly concerts here very much.

This is the seventh winter and the coldest she has spent in California. She flew up March 5 for a family reunion and the 60th wedding anniversary of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Williams. There were six sisters and their brother there.

While she was in the valley she visited her children and their families, the Tom Hughes at Monroe, Bill Hughes at Sutherlin and Ellen Hughes Marshall at Albany.

Her sons Tom and Bill and grandson, Keith Marshall brought her to Heppner. She will be here through April then go to Sutherlin to be with the Bill Hughes family while Mrs. Hughes an RN, works during the summer at the Roseburg Community Hospital.

BUDGET DECORATING

Budget Decorating will be the study topic for all Home Extension units in Morrow and Umatilla Counties in April. Lessons will be taught by leaders who received their training from Extension Home Economist, Sally Bay. Those attending will learn a variety of ways to use their imaginations in decorating their homes. Colored slides from Oregon State University, as well as slides showing clever ideas used in local homes, will be shown.

Leaders who will teach the lessons are, Heppner—Mrs. Edwin Cutting, Mrs. Archie Ball, Jr., Mrs. Lee Padberg; Boardman—Mrs. M. L. Allyn, Mrs. Bill Bates; Ione—Mrs. Darrell James, Mrs. Cleo Childers, Mrs. Elmer Ladd; Pine City—Mrs. Joe B. Bartlett; Rhea Creek—Mrs. Don Mallory, Mrs. Ned Clark.

Homemaker Winners Named for Oregon

Oregon's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for 1971 is Dorrine Kay Kondo of Ontario High School, Ontario. Her selection from 7,751 senior girls in 109 Oregon high schools was announced by General Mills, sponsor of the annual educational program, the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow. She will receive a $1,500 college scholarship and is now eligible for national honors.

Named runner-up for Oregon and a recipient of a $500 educational grant, was Eugenia Guenzel of St. Mary of the Valley High School, Beaverton.

A record 650,000 young women were enrolled in this year's contest. The Betty Crocker Search relates to virtually all high school curricula. It is planned to do so, according to General Mills, "because the program seeks to stress the breadth and depth of knowledge and the attitudes toward family life which the American wife and mother needs to fulfill her role effectively."

State Rainbow Names Three Local Girls

Miss Sandy Mathews, Worthy Advisor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Mathews, and Miss Karla Weatherford, Past Worthy Advisor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Weatherford, Heppner, received notices this week that they will be presented with special honors at the Grand Assembly June 24 to 27 at Corvallis. They will receive the Grand Cross of Color which is awarded for outstanding service to the Order of Rainbow.

Miss Elizabeth Stephens, Hope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gross has been chosen as a member of the Grand choir which will sing at all the sessions of the Grand Assembly.

Menschel Have Guests

Pastor and Mrs. Rudy Menschel have enjoyed having guests from Duval and Strassburg, Saskatchewan, Canada. Their guests were Mrs. Stricker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bender, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Keln, who have just returned from a tour of Hawaii, Hong Kong, Australia, and Japan. The group enjoyed viewing slides from these places before the guests left Heppner on Monday morning.

Ione Represented at Sorority Conference

Mrs. Joel Engleman and Mrs. Charles Doherty recently attended a district conference of Epsilon Sigma Alpha representing Beta Omega chapter of Ione. The luncheon and business meeting were held at Hot Lake Resort just out of La Grande.

Mrs. Doherty served on the auditing committee which met in a large, cozy room with a fire in the fireplace as snow fell outside.

Hot Lake which is chiefly known as a nursing home has of late been revived as a dining and meeting place. The facilities have been restored but retain the rustic qualities of early days from the chandelier in the lobby to the lovely antiques.

Mrs. Maxine Mahon, Mike and Bob of Elgin spent the weekend in Hardman with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel. Bob left for Corvallis Sunday morning for Oregon State.

Tony Burwell is in the hospital for treatment of bronchitis. He is the son of Pastor and Mrs. Don Burwell. They were in hopes he would be going home on Wednesday.
