Chamber Hears Foresters

At Monday's Chamber of Commerce luncheon at the Wagon Wheel, announcements preceded the program. President Gene Pierce said next Monday's program would be by the Ministerial Association. On April 19 Allen Tom will present the program on his poultry industry.

Mr. Robinson told of the benefit auction to be held Saturday at 10 a.m. at the Fairgrounds. This is to benefit Bob Pierce who is in critical condition at Kadlec Hospital.

Foresters Talk
Monday's program was presented by the U. S. Forest Service. Participating were Sam Miller, Marvin Chitty and Dennis Barton.

Mr. Miller told of the U. S. Forest Service concept of "Multiple Use Management of their lands from the Act of Congress of 1934."

Idea is to get the most possible uses of the land to benefit the greatest number of people. Renewable resource are such things as water, wildlife, forage and recreation.

They displayed a map showing the current 5 year plan for timber sales. Planning Units are done in six steps which culminate in a public hearing of their proposed studies. There are no timber sales contemplated in some areas.

A great many factors enter into their surveys on a multiple use basis. The effects on agriculture and industry are noted. Environmental requirements of wildlife, suitable land management, local and other laws are taken into consideration.

Everything concerning an area is worked into the plan and the proposal is made to the people through public hearings. Every attempt is being made to be thorough in their studies and programs.

What will be the impact on the economy of an area if grazed.

Kinzua Veneer Plant to Open

In a phone conversation yesterday with Allen Nistad, official of the Kinzua Corporation, the Gazette-Times learned that the new veneer plant at Heppner will go into operation this year, perhaps by fall.

Mr. Nistad said a new hammer hog is being installed at the planer to break up planer trims and blow them to the new shaving bin. The burner at the Heppner mill has been taken out of service by installing a hog to break up the slabs and put them in the mill's fuel system.

The boilers will receive major repairs later this month including installation of water cooled grates, dampers, feed drives, etc. Completion of these projects will enable the mill to meet current air pollution standards.

The company has just reached a decision to put the new green veneer plant into operation this year. Plans for completion of the plant are in the hands of the consulting engineer.

Resurrection Day Sunrise Service

Resurrection Day Sunrise Services for the community are being planned and carried out this year by the youth.

Don W. Johnson, minister of the Christian Church, Heppner, and the Church of Christ, Lexington, announced today that he has met with the youth of the various churches and they have planned their annual Sunrise Service.

The Service will begin on Cross Hill at 6:00 a.m. on the Lord's Day, April 11. The service there will open with prayer by Mr. Rudolph Mensch, Pastor, Hope Lutheran, Heppner and Valby Lutheran. The hymns sung will be led by Mr. Ed Cutting, minister, United Methodist Church, Heppner. The scripture will be read by Mr. Don Burwell, Pastor, Assembly of God, Heppner. The closing prayer will be given by Robert Hughes, Church of Christ, Lexington.

At 6:30 a.m. the service will move to the multi-purpose room of the Heppner Elementary School. Those who are not brave enough to be on Cross Hill for the early part of the service, may join worship at this time.

Mr. Floyd Everhart, Pastor, Church of the Nazarene, Heppner, will give the opening prayer; Miss Gwen Drake, United Methodist Church, Heppner, will play the piano at both the services at the Elementary School and the breakfast; the scripture will be read by Tom Cutsforth; Hope Lutheran Church, Heppner; the song leader will be Miss Libby Abrams, All Saints' Episcopal Church, Heppner; special music has been asked for from all the participating churches; the message of the morning will be brought by Mr. William Arthur, minister, United Church of Christ, Ione; the closing prayer will be offered by someone from the Assembly of God, Heppner.

Red Cross Fund Drive Gets Initial Push From Heppner High

Representatives from the four classes at Heppner High School met with American Red Cross Fund chairman, Tom Beam, last Wednesday to make initial plans for their part of the Heppner Red Cross Fund Drive.

The Student body will be divided into four groups which will cover four designated areas of the town. The students feel that they are giving the people a chance to give to a worthwhile cause. They hope to complete the drive by April 15.

They will endeavor to interpret Red Cross services and programs.

Fifty percent of the money collected will stay in the county. This money is used to pay for the telephone messages and other services given to members of the Armed Forces and their families. Mrs. Ned Sweek, chairman.

Through the American Red Cross, the Blood Mobile unit comes to Heppner and Pioneer Memorial Hospital is a participating hospital to receive Red Cross blood. Mrs. Gene Pierce is Red Cross Blood chairman.

Mrs. Phil Doherty is American Red Cross First Aid chairman and is instrumental in organizing many First Aid classes, Advanced First Aid classes and Instructors First Aid Classes.

American Red Cross courses in swimming are taught every year at the Heppner pool and will be taught this year at the Ione

Heppner's New C to C Store Has Grand Opening

March 25 was the official opening of Heppner's newest business, Coast to Coast Stores, by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sargent. Last Friday they held the drawing for their door prizes from a bushel basket full of registration coupons.

Grand prize: a 3-piece cast iron patio set went to Mr. and Mrs. Dean Naffziger of Heppner. Second prize, 3-piece blue luggage set went to Mrs. M. L. Allyn of Boardman.

Mrs. Ron Curzin won the 3rd prize, a Wen Jig Saw. Katherine Wahl, the 4th prize, a 1/4" drill. Fifth prize went to Mike Sweek which was a 7 Transistor Radio. Gene Pierce's name was drawn for the 6th prize, a revolving canister.

Dale Munkers won the Classic beauty box, Billie Kemp, the Classic dispenser and Wilbur Worden the 1 1/2 quart sauce pan.

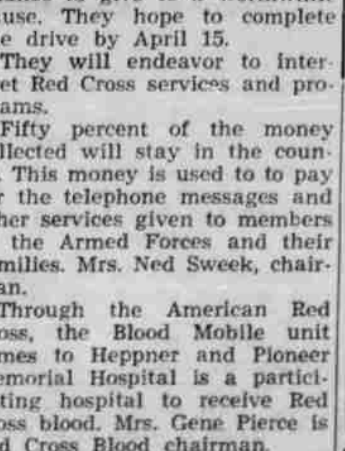

The new store is top drawer stuff with wall-to-wall carpeting in shades of green. Dick says the smallest item they handle is a washer and the largest, root tiller and lawn mowers with everything in between.

The walls newly painted are color-coded in departments, green, yellow, blue and beige. On the back wall are the beautiful antlers from a moose that Dick brought down in the Yukon last September. Measurements are now at 61".

A True Blue Court

THE 1971 MORROW COUNTY Rodeo Court resplendent in their very new outfits pose before the Red Cross Blood Drawing poster. With Queen Michelle in the all white, there's Princess Jan Schlichting, Princess Jeri Snow, Princess Dovie Alderman and Princess Jeanne Daly. Just fitted by Mrs. LeRoy Gardner, they are wearing electric blue this year. Blue-eyed and blondest of the group, Queen Michelle wears all white except her pin which is a blue crescent the same as worn by her court. The electric blue suits are a light weight wool crepe worn with blue hats, blue boots and pins, white blouses and gloves. From the fitting, they were off to the Rodeo grounds for more pictures and to ride their horses.

Council Members Face City Problems

The Heppner City Council had something of a long drawn-out meeting Monday evening. Problems concerning building permits and Council of Government for Morrow County were discussed at great length and then the problems were not resolved.

Building Permits

A building permit was approved to Father Raymond Beard for the construction of a new St. Patrick's Catholic Church on Gale street, the same location as the existing structure. The new building, a one-story wood and brick building is to be built at a cost of $128,000. Completion date was set for one year but it is anticipated the time will be much sooner than that. A variance was granted. The building in a residential zoned area will be a foot closer to the front than the 20 feet required.

Council voted to deny a building permit to Lowell Chally for the construction of a 4 foot wide, 40 foot long and 5" thick cement sidewalk in front of his home at a cost of $200. Council found fault in that the walk had been constructed before the permit to build was applied for and according to ordinance the walk should have been 6 feet wide.

It appeared to be the feeling of the council that questions concerning the proposed one-county Council of Governments could best be answered by Judge Paul Jones and so was not approved until the judge could visit with the City Council.

Council recognized the value of the cooperative venture to procure a solid waste disposal site for the three towns, the county, the Forest Service. While no vote was taken, it seemed to be the feeling of the group that an agreement on one specific need might well be spelled out for the formation of such a Council of Government rather than a blanket formation of such a group. Council noted that they had never applied for or used federal funds for the installation or construction of their water system or sewer system. Supposedly such a Council would have to be formed before applying for federal funds.

Back to the problem at hand Council members reviewed the members of the committee appointed to work out some form of action on the land-fill problem. They were the mayors of the towns of Heppner, Lexington, Ione, County Judge Paul Jones, Marvin Chitty of the Forest Service and Dale Boner of the Soil Conservation Service.

Pump Bids Opened

Bids for the pump to be installed in Well No. 5 were opened from Farmore of Pendleton, Morrow County Grain Growers and Jamison of Condon.

Specifications had called for bids for pumps to be set at two different depths in the well. Council agreed with Vic "We should get a pump the first ground that would do the job if the water should drop". So the bigger pump bids were the only ones considered.

There was little difference in price and two council members spoke out in favor of buying the pump locally and felt the service would be just as good if bought locally. MCGG bid on a Berkeley pump about which Vic said, "It's a good pump".

The bids were to be studied and the selection recommendation left to the water committee, Jerry Hollomon, Bob Jones and Rita Hedman, with Vic.

Free Parking Approved

Council approved a request of the Merchants committee to have Free Parking during 9 promotional a year.

Mayor Bill Collins gave cost figures for the establishment of 7 survey monuments within the city. One former established point is believed now to be covered by Higgins' garage.

Vic reported the water line from the new well had been piped across the highway and that the State Highway was bringing in a Freeway broom at 5 o'clock Thursday morning to sweep up the sand and dirt from Main St.
