

Trio from Heppner 4-H Dog Club Takes Honors

The Heppner Dog-Gone 4-H Club had three members attend the Umatilla County 4-H Dog Fun Match in Hermiston at the Fairgrounds on March 28. They participated in both obedience and showmanship classes. Dixie McDaniell of Hardman won a blue ribbon in her Showmanship class and a red ribbon in her obedience class with Jiggs. Eric Clow won a blue ribbon and Reserve Champion in Showmanship class and won a blue ribbon and Reserve Champion in his Obedience Class with Shotey. Carmen Clow won a blue ribbon in her obedience class and a purple ribbon for Champion in Showmanship with Peggy. Kerry Coppock went over as an observer but did not show her dog. The Heppner 4-H members were competing with 8 dogs in a class. There were about 60-70 kids at the match.

The Dog Club is planning a Fun Match during the Morrow County Fair time. They will invite adjoining county 4-H Dog Club members to participate.

A LONG-DOWN that lasts for at least three minutes is shown by the dogs in this picture. Mrs. Norman Clow claps her hands as she walks to distract the dogs as another test of the dog's ability to stay down.
