

Early Spring Wedding Chosen by Karen French

At an early spring wedding, Karen French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French, became the bride of Joe Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood of Philomath. The one o'clock nuptial Mass was performed by the Rev. Raymond Beard at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner.

Given in marriage by her father, Karen wore a gown of organdy over taffeta in an empire silhouette. Daisy lace accented the long sheer sleeves, the high neckline and the chapel train. Her illusion veil was held in place by a band of lace daisies. She carried the white prayer book carried by her mother at her wedding. It was topped by a white orchid and cascading white satin ribbons and white chrysanthemums.

The bride's attendants wore mint green voile gowns flocked with white daisies. They were fashioned with scoop necklines and short puffed sleeves. The attendants carried nosegays of white chrysanthemums and baby's breath with mint green ribbons. Miss Verina French was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Susan French, another sister; Miss Lori O'Rourke, cousin of the bride and Miss Sue Scritsmier.

Will Wood was best man for his brother. Ushers were Geary Callahan, Joe Marshall and Ed Young. Altar boys were Larry and Tim O'Rourke, cousins of the bride.

Music

Joe Doherty of Pendleton sang "Mother at My Feet Kneeling", "Ave Maria" and "The Wedding Prayer". He was accompanied by Sandy Matheny who also played the nuptial music. The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. French chose a sleeveless A-line apricot and green flower printed voile topped by a sheet coat of apricot voile. Her accessories were of beige and green.

The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece suit of royal blue double knit and beige accessories.

Reception at Elks

The reception followed at the Heppner Elks Club. The bride's cake was made, cut and served by Mrs. Vern K. Evans and Mrs. Lawrence O'Rourke, aunts of the bride. Punch was served by Miss Sue Ellen Greenup, Mrs. Ron Hoffman, Mrs. Arthur Chirrick and Mrs. David Peterson. Serv-

Ione Chooses Two For Girls' State

The Ione Unit No. 95 of the American Legion Auxiliary selected the two delegates they will sponsor to Girls' State at their April 6 meeting.

Mary McElligott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don McElligott and Ann McElligott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McElligott, will represent Ione High School at the 1971 Girls' State Convention at Willamette University in Salem June 13-18. Jackie Howton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howton, is alternate. Mrs. Cleo Drake was chairman of the selection committee.

Mrs. Don McElligott recently accompanied the delegates to Athena where they met with other Girl Staters.

Of Interest to Women

SOY BEAN loaf . . . ever tasted it? I tasted the chicken style soy bean loaf at the TOPS dinner last week. It is absolutely delicious. Delightfully seasoned, it tastes more like chicken than chicken. It has a pleasing texture to your tongue. I am anxious to try the other versions: beef loaf, smoked and corned beef. They told me you could buy it at the Health Food Stores in Pendleton or Heppner.

DO CONSIDER going out to the Homemakers Festival for at least part of the day. You'll enjoy the marvelous Indian display. For a long time I have felt that the Indians need to be proud of their ways and learn their own way—those of making moccasins and other skin work, bead work, working with reeds, music, dancing, language.

This display is an exhibit of some of the things they are now returning to doing.

Then if it's only part of the day, plan to go about 1:30 to see Curtis Lund's scenes of Oregon. Curtis was an engineer for the Telephone Co. before he took early retirement. He has taken pictures all over the world and then his clever wife puts together the narration and background music. You'll love seeing these pictures and do stop long enough to meet this charming couple who have adopted Eastern Oregon as their retirement home.

Festival is today, Thursday at the Fairgrounds.

HAVE YOU TRIED the Oregon Wheat League Cake recipe yet? Do let me know how your family liked it, etc. I am just glad it's chocolate because Charlie doesn't think it's cake unless it's chocolate. I must try it soon because someday I am going to enter a cake in the County contest!

This just might be the year. What about you?

Pascals to Have 50th Anniversary

Reggie Pascal went to his home north of Spokane last weekend. He assisted other members of his family in making plans for his parent's 50th Wedding Anniversary on May 21. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Pascal.

Also home for the weekend was Alan Covington, Reggie's nephew, who was home from the service. He leaves Tuesday for Hawaii.

Medley, Evans Rites Of Interest Here

Elizabeth Louise Evans and Harold Jay Medley were married at the Lake Oswego United Church on April 3 before a large group of guests including several who had travelled from Heppner.

The bride is a niece of Mrs. Gustaf Nikander; daughter of Mary's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean Evans, former Heppner residents.

Other former Heppner residents present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Case, and M. and Mrs. C. Case. Rev. and Mrs. Gustaf Nikander of Heppner attended the wedding and Mrs. Nikander poured at the reception. The Nikander grandchildren took part in the wedding. Linda was flower girl and Robbie was ring bearer.

Portland Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Garlick of Portland visited last week with his sister, Mrs. Ola Ruggles. While they were here Mrs. Ruggles took them over the bombing range. They were excited to see the changes taking place. They marveled at the sprinklers bringing water to the sage brush and Quincy soil! After lunch at Dodge City, the three-some drove on to Hermiston where they were dinner guests of their niece, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McKinney.

Rebekahs Meet

No. 35 Albany, another member of Hermiston Group as also Altha Kirk a P.N.G. of Sans Souci but is a member of both Pendleton Club and Hermiston Group.

Jo Huston and Bernice Bauman were celebrating their birthdays on this date so all sang the Birthday song to them. Alma Clouston won the door prize.

Adelle LaTrace entertained by having bingo game played until all were ready to leave for home.

Golden Agers will meet May 4 at 7 p.m. at the All Saints' Episcopal parish hall. There will be a potluck dinner followed by entertainment.

WCS Plans Luncheon With Lawn Sale May 8

The Women of the Methodist Church will serve luncheon from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. at their Lawn Sale on May 8. Friends are invited to eat and then browse through the display tables.

There will be odds and ends from 10c to 1.00. There will be antiques. Among the larger items for sale is a kodak camera, adding machine, books, an electric range. All kinds of aprons will be on sale at the Apron bar.

There will be a display of sale items in Ida Farra's window. The sale starts at 10 o'clock in the morning of May 8.

Ione Sorority Gives Spring Banquet

The Annual Spring Banquet for Beta Omega Chapter of ESA was enjoyed recently by members and their husbands.

The no-host dinner was given at The's Cafe set in a Spring motif. The tables were decorated with daffodils and other spring flowers and the theme carried out in the nut cups. Decorations were courtesy of Mrs. Jerry Martin and Mrs. Joel Engleman.

Out-going president, Mrs. Charles Doherty was presented with an appreciation gift for her year in office.

State Convention

Mrs. Jerry Martin and Mrs. Charles Doherty, accompanied by their husbands, will attend the Epsilon Sigma Alpha State Convention held this year at Sun River in Bend April 30 through May 2. The two will represent the Ione chapter along with the 82 chapters in the state.

Beta Omega Has New Leaders

The new officers were selected by the Beta Omega Chapter of ESA at their April 13 meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom.

Mrs. Jerry Martin will head the chapter as president, assisted by Mrs. Joel Engleman as vice-president, Mrs. Dennis Brandon as corresponding secretary, Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom as recording secretary and Mrs. Charles Doherty as treasurer. Other officers and committees will be appointed by Mrs. Martin at a later date.

During the business meeting, it was decided to split the profits from the recent food sale between the Meadowood Speech Camp and the Ione Library.

JAYCEE-ETTE OF THE YEAR Mrs. Pat Wonsler received two silver platters at the annual Jaycee banquet Saturday evening. The one she holds in her right hand was one she helped pick out for the "Jaycee-ette of the year" and was most surprised when she was presented with it! The one she holds in her left hand was awarded to her as the Jaycee-ette president.

Prindle's Guests Visit for Bridge

Mrs. Vernon Miller and Mrs. Elizabeth Reed of Fossil were guests of Mrs. Milo Prindle on April 21. They acted as substitutes for the bridge game at Mrs. Prindle's home.

Others playing were Happy Graham, Hazel Mahoney, Lota Tibbles, Helen Schaffitz, Dee Gribble and Virginia Whitaker.
