

Sans Souci Has Official Visitor

Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge April 16 meeting was an official visitation of the District Deputy president Ruth Robinson of Holly R.L. No. 139 of Lexington. She was completing her work and preparing reports of her year. Donna Papineau, also of Holly Lodge, accompanied her mother and was welcomed by Noble Grand, Mary McMurtry as was Della Murray of Union R.L. No. 57 who was visiting the local lodge again. Ola Ruggles served as chaplain pro tem for Opal Cook who was in Walla Walla to be with her husband who is very ill.

An interesting letter was read from Lucille Parrish, a member making her home in Seattle. Jo Huston was presented an Assembly Seal for the Unwritten work by the D.D.P. Delegates to the State Assembly convening in Pendleton in May had been elected in a prior meeting, those chosen were Past Noble Grands, Esther Bergstrom and Mary McMurtry. Betty Rode gave a reading commemorating the 151st Anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in America by Thomas Wiley.

Altha Kirk announced the District Convention of Theta Rho Girls' Club was convening in Pendleton April 17 and had been asked to be one of the officers. Candi Bannister of Paisley, State president of Theta Rho Assembly was to be present and Scot Damm of Halsey Grand Ruler of Grand Junior Lodge of Oregon. Other head officers of the different Branches of the Order were also expected.

Refreshments for social hour following closing of lodge were served by Altha Kirk.

Mary Fitzgerald says an envelope of CowBelles Beef Broth in string beans gives added flavor.

I'm sorry, somehow Mr. and Mrs. John Ratcliff's names were left off the George Steagall's 25th Anniversary party. They are the parents of the wee grand daughter, an added attraction at the party besides the very young and charming honored couple. Mrs. Ratcliff is the former Brenda Steagall. The Ratcliffs came up from Portland to help with the reception.

Bouquet for Heppner

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Coperon of Hubbard and his sister Lillian Bell of Topeka, Kan., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Hays of Portland visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson. Mr. Hays is the Thompson's nephew. They have given him their car which he drove back home.

In the course of their visit Mr. Coperon was down town several times and went to the Courthouse. He remarked several times how beautiful the courthouse was, inside and out and how friendly the people were who worked at the courthouse. He had the same praise for the townspeople for their friendliness. He liked all the newly painted fronts, too.
