Golfers Throng Course Enjoy Breakfast

Ed Hiemstra, president of the Willow Creek Country Club said the turnout was good for the Opening Breakfast Sunday morning. There were 31 in attendance for the pre-golf session of hot cakes, bacon and eggs served by chefs, Harold Kerr, Dale Boner, Ron Riley, Bob Clough and Mr. Hiemstra.

In the golf tournament that followed Francis Doherty went home with three prizes. He won first for closest to the pin, least number (26) of putts for 18 holes and had low net 52.

Dennis Martin made the longest drive and Lowell Gribble had low gross.

This Sunday Heppner members will go to Condon for a Play Day with the Condon Club. Tee-off time is 9 a.m. Condon will serve lunch. The return day when Willow Creek will host Condon for a play day is Aug. 15.

Heppner has been invited to participate in the Gilliam County Jaycee Golf Tournament at Condon on June 5 and 6. Deadline date for registering is May 12. Those interested may call Ed Hiemstra or check at the Club House for entry forms. Entry fee is $20.00.

The weather was ideal for golfing Sunday. Mr. Hiemstra said the breakfast proved so pleasing that they hope to have one a month.

Ione Band Concert Presented April 27

By EVA HAMLETT

IONE—The Ione School Bands under the direction of Darrell James presented their "Pops Concert" on April 27. The concert was in 6 parts, starting with the High School band, followed by the High School Mixed Chorus, with Kevin Gutierrez on the drums. The 3rd part was the Junior High Band, followed by the Combined Sixth Grade Band and Junior High Band. The High School Band performed again and the final number was the High School Mixed Chorus. The concert was enjoyed by all attending. Ione is proud of these talented young people, and their director.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Bailey spent Monday and Tuesday of last week in Portland on a business trip.
