

Ione Inventor Has Open House

By EVA HAMLETT

IONE — A large crowd from Oregon and Washington attended the "Open House" held at Garland Swanson home May 8 and 9. The occasion was a demonstration of the new type combine reel that Mr. Swanson had invented and patented. This reel differs from the usual round patterned reel in that it operates in a triangular pattern, sweeping the grain back from the sickle to the auger and prevents dropping or spilling of heads on the sickle bar to the ground. Mr. Swanson and Bill Weatherford demonstrated the new reel and also the new modern equipment that has been purchased and set up in the small factory, so that reels can be built rapidly. Orders were also taken for this reel. Mrs. Garland Swanson and Mrs. Bill Weatherford were hostesses for the occasion and also presided at the refreshment table.

Student Election

The Student Body of Ione High School held their annual election for next year on Thursday. Rick Barnett was elected Student Body President, and other officers are: Ann McElligott, vice-president; Julie Zinter, secretary; D-Ann Barnett, assistant secretary-treasurer; editor of the paper, Ann McElligott; Ionian Annual, Jackie Howton. Varsity Cheerleaders for the ensuing year are Cindy Carlson, Mary McElligott, Cheri Carlson, and Cindy Ekstrom.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the school cafeteria on Friday evening. A large mural on the stage curtain depicted "A Night On The Delta Queen". On stage was Ann Hopkins dressed in her finery, typical of a Southern Belle, and Kent Gutierrez, a typical Southern Gentleman even to a stove pipe hat. The tables were decorated in a southern motif. The menu consisted of Mint Julep (apple juice), Southern Fried Chicken (Ham and pineapple sauce), Cotton Balls (baked potatoes), Black-eyed Peas (peas), Carolina Moon Salad (Orange jello), Short'nin' Bread (Rolls), Magnolia Buds (relishes), Dixie Delight (Cherry cheesecake), Planter's Punch (coffee or punch) and Melon Seeds (nuts). The program: Welcome by Julie Zinter, Junior Class President; Prayer, Father Raymond Beard; Duet of folksongs by Mrs. Anna Lee James, and Darrell James; Speaker, Father Raymond Beard; and Thank you by Jeri Snow, Senior Class President. The sophomore class, girls in long skirts and blouses, and boys in patched pants and shirts, all with blackened faces were the "darkies" who waited on the tables. The dinner was cooked and served by the Jun-

there due to a neck injury he received in an automobile accident. He is in the same room with Mark Bailey.

The Junior-Senior Prom was held Saturday evening. The theme was "I Never Promised You A Rose Garden". On half of the back wall of the gym, Mrs. Carr had painted a mural typical of the theme. A blue sky covered the ceiling and down the walls were deep blue paper with silver stars. Music was by "The Ashton Park" and between the mural and bandstand there was a fountain with trailing rose vines. The tables were separated from the dance floor by hedges of green with paper roses at intervals. An archway covered in the same design led into the gym, and in front of the stage, silver covered steps held bouquets of real flowers. King of the Prom was Mike Collins; Queen was Carley Bergstrom; Prince was Peter McElligott; and Princess was Jeri Snow. The dance program was a cover of red embossed felt with a painted white rose and tied with white cording. Breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Barnett.

The Mother-Daughter Tea, sponsored by the GAA of Ione High School was held May 10 in the beautiful decorated settings from the Prom. Mothers were welcomed by Marianne Pettyjohn. The Choralettes accompanied by Darrell James sang a number. Cheri Carlson was narrator, and 17 girls modeled the dresses they wore to the Prom. The Choralettes sang another number, followed by a clever skit, "What My Mommy Means To Me" put on by 16 girls. The young ladies then served the Mother's cake and punch, and Marianne Pettyjohn gave the closing remarks.

Mrs. Frances Mitchell and Charlotte Griffith from Portland spent the weekend at the George Griffith home at Cecil.

David Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker broke his ankle last week while playing baseball on the school diamond.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howton, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., returned last week from a trip to the Holy Land. The experiences of their trip will be written up next week.

Mrs. Linea Nottage from Portland is visiting at the home of Carl Troedson.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom on Mother's Day for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. George Griffith and family, Mrs. Fannie Griffith, and Cathy and Carol Holtz.

GARY CARR, All-Around winner of Cub Scout Pack No. 661 Pinewood Derby.

Gary Carr Takes Pinewood Derby Final

Gary Carr of Cub Scout Den 2 ran the champion Pinewood racer in the finals May 6 at the Elks Club. Kirk Sager of Den 5 was second.

The Elks club furnished the pinewood kits to each of the 40 some Cub Scouts. The kits included the piece of pinewood, wheels and nails. The boys carved the racer to be 7 inches long 2-3/4 inches wide and couldn't weigh over 5 ozs. Gary added a small windshield, steering wheel and numeral 26 to his red racer.

The two boys received small trophies presented by Cal Sherman, Exalted Ruler.

Marion Green, Boy Scout committee chairman, set up the race run-off by Leonard Toll as starter and Dave McLeod at the finish.

All of the 1st and 2nd place winners in the Den races competed. The other winners were Jody Jensen and Delbert Turner of Den 1, Coleman Devine of Den 2, Troy Simmons and Terry Toll of Den 3, Ron Schwarz and Eric Clow of Den 5, Bryan Thompson of Den 5 and Todd Harrison and Curtis Viall of Den 6.
