Exceptional Acting Shown In 'The Miracle Worker'

Two Kathys took the leads and the limelight for their excellent acting in the recent play "The Miracle Worker". Kathleen Ayres took the part of Annie Sullivan who came to the Keller household to guard Helen Keller from her loving and over protective parents. Kathy Sweeney had the part of Helen Keller, one of the most widely publicized people who overcame blindness and deafness to become world famous. Ken Baker did an exceptionally fine portrayal of Mr. Keller, Helen's father.

Everything was on the stage from the beginning. Time lapse was by a change of lighting.

The play was presented by the Drama Workshop under the direction of Dennis McKay.

The dramatic play and the fine cast deserved much better attendance from students and townspeople than it received.

Other students in the play were Bill Blessing, Rick Boyce, Debbie Majeske, Duane Steers, Christie Taylor, Jim Healy, Trisha Prock and Tami Prock.

Kathy Bartlett Runs At State Track Meet

Kathy Bartlett ran the 220 yard dash with the Class A schools at the State Girls Track meet at Springfield last weekend. She didn't place but had a great time and felt it was a privilege to represent her school. Kathy is a sophomore and is already looking forward to a return to the State Track meet.

The runner from Canyonville Bible School who took first place in this race was high point winner for the meet. She was entered in 4 events. In spite of the windy, rainy, cold weather, two National High School records were set in shotput and javelin.

Kathy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bartlett, took her to Springfield. Sharon Witherrite accompanied them. They saw some good races. As they came through Corvallis they stopped to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kroll, parents of Robert Kroll of the D. O. Nelson ranch.

LONEROCK

Mr. and Mrs. Kennel, College Place, spent the weekend at their Lonerock home and planted their garden.
