IRRIGON NEWS

By FRANCES ROSE WILSON

IRRIGON — Percy E. Jellum was the only one submitting a bid for oiling streets in Irrigon. Bids for oiling about 8000 feet had been called for and the contract was awarded to Jellum.

Almost all streets north of the highway that are open to traffic, and which have not previously been oiled are included in the present project.

Irrigon Budget $25,000

No one appeared at the hearing on the City budget for fiscal 1971-1972 and it was adopted as it had previously been approved and presented by the budget committee.

Total budget amount was $29,111 which included all reserve funds. General fund requirements totaled $8,518 with state street, water department and various reserve funds making up the balance.

Taxes are to be levied in the amount of $1,788 which amount is within the 6% limitation and no election will be required.

The Community 4-H Club met Thursday, May 13, for election of officers for the coming year. Those elected were: president, David Richards; treasurer, Pamela Schmeder; sergeant-at-arms, Vickie Sullivan; historian, Peggy Brandt; news reporter, Valerie Sullivan.

Extension agent, Gail McCarthy, of Heppner, whose resignation is effective June 1, attended the meeting. He was presented a lairiat as a token of appreciation from the club members and leaders.

Mrs. Tom (Wanda) Parsons and her daughters Kim and Randi, returned from Portsmouth, Va., where they have been since 1969. S.K. 1 Parsons plans to join them early in June for a month's leave from the Navy. They are buying the R. B. Allen place and Wanda plans to remain here as he will be going to Saigon, Vietnam in July.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Pummel visited his mother, Beulah Pummel in Portland this week. She has been hospitalized since she received several broken ribs in an accident. She was riding a city bus when it came to a sudden stop and threw her backwards against the seats breaking her ribs. She had been standing, holding on to a strap.

Mrs. Guy Parke and 4 of their children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stephens, coming from Portland Friday and staying over Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Shade spent a week visiting relatives in Ogden, Utah. Their son Ray Shade traveled with them. He had been elected to represent his local railroad union at a railroad meeting in Salt Lake City, and spent 3 days there.

Mrs. Shade's mother, Jennie Hinkley returned with them for a visit and plans to do some fishing on the Columbia river.

Mayor and Mrs. Chester Wilson were invited to attend a dinner and a "This is Your Life", program honoring Arlene Clark, 80, at the First Assembly of God Church Thursday evening. The Wilsons were acquainted with her 30 years ago when both families lived at Prairie City and were instrumental in starting the Assembly of God Church there. They were happy to find her smile just as bright as it was many years ago.

Mrs. Clark was honored by her 3 sons Pete, John and Woody Clark in the program. Each one started with "I remember when" as they spoke into the hidden mike, relating some incident from the past. Anne Weatherford, old friend and neighbor, formerly of Prairie City told a story of horse and buggy days.
