

Shobe Creek Floods Again

aged by hail, some four inches falling up at Bennetts' and Greenups' ranches. This was followed by a hard rain. Hinton Creek highway was damaged by a washout and lots of rock being washed onto the road.

Serious damage to soil on ranches occurred up Shobe Creek and bridges were washed out there. In Heppner the Chase Street bridge and the upper Main Street bridge are out.

Trees, logs and poles and fences swept into town and slammed into a number of houses with great force.

On Main Street

Mud came up on sidewalks on Main Street and silt and debris covered some side streets. Business people got out their hoses and washed the mud from the sidewalks. Several cars were damaged by the flood, some cars floated about two blocks.

Basements were flooded. Several flood walls were badly damaged or demolished.

City firemen, city and county employees, school teachers, Jaycees, school students, Forest Service personnel, some State people and many individuals all got in and helped. Equipment was used to scrape away and move mud and debris out of the streets. Four live sheep swept into town, were captured and herded back home.

A news service and a TV station sent planes over the area to take pictures and survey the situation.

Sections of street paving were washed away near South Main Street near the swimming pool. Some big sections of paving washed through a flood wall at Gohnauers and slammed against the house.

The U. S. Forest Service warehouse on Main Street had a big back section of the wall bashed in.

The foot bridge behind the bowling alley was ruined.

Mayor Collins reported Corps of Engineers are coming to make a study of Shobe Creek damage.

The schools were expected to operate again today. At the time of the flood quick thinking teachers held the pupils in the school until parents came after them.

Power Crews
Several power poles were swept away but Columbia Basin and the phone company people quickly restored services.

City crews were repairing the water line break at Jensen's and sewer main line breaks were being repaired yesterday.

Some reports by newspapers, radio and TV stations may have been a bit exaggerated. Telephone circuits were busy as relatives from out of the area called to check on their kin.

The Gazette-Times was besieged by calls and offers of help. Red Cross chapters are raising money to be sent here to help. Canyon City chapter was first to call and say they were sending a check. Gene Pierce said the Salvation Army had called and would help.

News reports must have indicated greater damage than actually was done to the business section. Three newspapers called the G-T to help "get out the weekly edition."
Homes appeared to be hardest hit in the swimming pool area. Considerable personal property, furniture and much clothing has been lost.

Emergency meetings were held by the City Council and the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

City Police, State Police, Sheriff's Office, Volunteer Firemen and others made sure — that folks here who had damaged houses had a place to sleep and food. (Taking care of each other is a tradition of Morrow County that goes right back to the very founding of the county.)

Highlights from Bible Land Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howton recently returned from a 3 weeks tour of the Bible Lands and Europe. The tour was led by Dr. A. J. Buttrey, former conference minister of the United Church of Christ, Portland. There were 42 people in the group and one was Mrs. Allie Albertson, who taught the 3rd grade in the Ione school system in 1958 and 1959. She now lives at the Capital Manor in Salem. The tour consisted of visiting 9 countries, seven were Bible Lands of historical significance.

The group left Portland on April 12 and flew to New York, where they changed planes to fly to Amsterdam, Holland. They had a long day as they gained 9 hours due to time changes. Following a short tour by boat through the canals, of Amsterdam, they flew over the Alps to Athens, Greece. Easter is a week later than in the states, and people were very busy doing their Easter shopping in the areas.

After sightseeing in Athens, including the Acropolis, they flew on to Corinth, to visit the Temple of Apollo and the Roman ruins containing the platform from which Paul preached. Here they were introduced to the street peddlers selling everything, and seemed to encounter more of them along the tour. Corinth has narrow streets and sidewalks but the people are well dressed and very progressive.

See the Pyramids
They then flew to Cairo, Egypt arriving late at night. Next morning they visited the great Pyramids of Giza and the Sphinx, going by camel if they wished. They also visited the Egyptian Museum, which contained the King Tut's treasures and personal belongings.

They visited the Citadel and the Mohammed Ali Mosque, and a tour of Memphis up the Nile where they had a boat ride, and a bus ride through the valley. They visited the cave where the Holy Family stayed when they fled Bethlehem and came to Egypt because of the killing of baby babies. The International Swimming meet was being held during their stay and they could watch it from their hotel rooms. The trip to Luxor was cancelled because of the uncertainty of getting back. Due to the war the group was guarded at all times and moved only in a group. Sandbags were everywhere in case of bombings.

Next they went in Beirut, where they visited the city of pagan god, Baal and the Temple of Jupiter, Bacchus and Venus. They took a side trip to Damascus, where they encountered the damage of the recent flood and had to detour to the Syrian border to reach Damascus. Here they saw more Mosques and historical Biblical spots.

To Israel

They had to enter Israel from neutral country, so the next flight was to Cyprus just to change planes in order to land at the Tel Aviv airport. They spent 5 days in Jerusalem, visiting the Garden Tomb, and a walking tour of the old city through the Damascus Gate, and many shrines and places of importance during the events of Biblical History. They took side tours all over Israel, including Jerico, Bethlehem Hebron, Barseba, Ashkelon, Haifa, Acre, Nazareth, the Jordan River, and a boat trip on the Sea of Galilee from Tiberias to Capernaum. They had dinner at Kibbletz Communal living farm) which they said was very interesting. Israel is a very modern nation, and they saw more modern farming methods there than any of the other places visited.

The next stop took them to Rome, Italy, where they attended a public appearance of Pope Paul VI, at St. Peter's Basilica. They toured the Vatican, including the Sistine Chapel, and Michelangelo Fresco, and many other historical sites. They also took a special tour viewing the country side.

Athens, Greece was the next stop where they visited the places of interest, and also met Keith Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson Jr., who is making a 3 months tour of Europe.

In London
On the way home they spent two days in London, where they saw the Tower of London, Westminster Abbey, changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace, and Warwick Castle, which they said was very outstanding.

They flew from London to Amsterdam where they changed planes for New York, and then back to Portland. Coming from London they had 25 hours flying time and it was daylight all the way. Several of the group commented they would like to take a tour of Holland, as it seemed to be a very interesting country and they had such little time to spend sightseeing.

Forest Service Sets Salvage Sale

An estimated 200 thousand board feet of dead and cull timber will be removed in a salvage sale planned by Heppner Ranger District of the Umatilla National Forest in the Black Mt. area located in the northeast corner of the District.

Logging of this sale, which will require no new road construction, will salvage standing dead and down trees, and cull logs left when the same area was logged between 1959 and 1962, and improve the appearance of the landscape along the lower three miles of the Shaw Creek Grade.

The sale, scheduled to be sold about June 17, is bounded by Shaw Creek on the south and by Forest and District boundaries on the west, north and east. Hell's Half Acre, discussed recently at a Heppner Chamber of Commerce meeting, is south of the sale area and will not be affected by logging operations.
