WHATS COOKIN

There were four delicious sounding recipes in the Umatilla County Spotlight this month. They were served at the alumnae committee meeting at Lorene Whittaker's when she and her sister, Doris Murray and Bertha Baker served the luncheon. African Chow Mein 1 1/2 pounds ground beef, 3 cups chopped onion, 6 to 8 stalks chopped celery, 2 cups cooked rice, 1 cup tomato soup, 1 cup mushrooms, small package sliced almonds, 1 tablespoon molasses. Combine all ingredients bake 350 degrees for 1 hour. This sounds really great for potlucks, picnics. All three of those gals are extra good cooks.

VALERIE & NADINE HONORED

Names of 1,497 students have been announced as Oregon Scholars for 1971 by the State Scholarship Commission. They were chosen by the Commission from the 1971 graduating classes of Oregon high schools totaling approximately 37,930.

The Oregon Scholars award was established in 1966 by the State Scholarship Commission, with the endorsement of Governor Tom McCall and State School Superintendent Dale Parnell.

Students are selected for this honor on the basis of outstanding academic achievement.

Average grade point of those selected as Oregon Scholars is 3.83, Lee reported.

The Oregon Scholars from this area include Valerie Boyer of Heppner High and Nadine Wood of Spray High.

Oren Brace underwent major surgery yesterday morning at Pioneer Memorial Hospital.
