Sans Souci Meets

Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 held the first meeting in June on Friday with Noble Grand, Mary McMurtry presiding. A good many of the regular members were absent. Vera Boutelle had moved from Heppner to Prosser following losing their household furniture in the flood. Vera attended and assisted with the meetings and will be greatly missed.

Opal Cook reported her husband now home from the hospital and that they were getting cleaned up somewhat from flood damage at their place.

A letter was read from the current Assembly president of Oregon, Mavis Paull of Portland wherein she stated she had rescheduled her official visitation to District No. 20 Annual meeting upon request of members who had objected to her coming during recess months. A committee will meet with the other lodges in the District to formulate plans concerning her letter.

Mary McMurtry and Esther Bergstrom, Sans Souci delegates to recent Assembly sessions in Pendleton gave a report on legislation enacted and various phases of activities. The commission of the District Deputy President, Jo Huston, was read by the Noble Grand, the honors of the Degree extended to her and the Certificate presented. Jo reported on attending the luncheon wherein their questionnaires were discussed and questions answered by Mavis Paull. Mrs. Mary Bailey served refreshments during social hour following adjournment.

Niece Visits

Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Wade Davis of Overland Park, Kan., were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. C. Carmichael. Mrs. Davis is a niece of Mrs. Carmichael's, Owen Leathers and Vern Leathers, the latter of Lexington. She is the former Norma Neel of Condon.

They had visited with relatives in Seattle and Condon before coming to Heppner. They arrived the day of the flood, which was not exactly the kind of exciting thing Mrs. Carmichael had planned for their visit.
