LONEROCK

Two more people have been added to Lonerock population this weekend. They are a couple from Portland who have purchased the parsonage that was formerly owned by William Stewart and moved to their new home on Friday.

When the Davis family came down from Genesee last week Lee brought along a World Atlas he had bought at a sale in Idaho. It was published in 1900 by George F. Crow in Chicago and gave the population of every town, hamlet and village in every state of the U. S. from the census taken in 1890. Condon at that time had a population of 73, Arlington 356, Heppner 675, Fossil 153, Mayville 30, Olex 12, Lonerock 60, Hardman 100.

Top Prizes Awarded At Morrow County Junior Rodeo

TERESA HUGHES of Heppner holds the silver buckle, her prize as the winner of the Junior Girls' Calf riding. Dean Hamper, Walla Walla, Junior Pole Bending and Mary Healy, tied for first with Robert Barnes of Walla Walla in Junior Barrel race.

A SHORT worship service was held at the Junior Rodeo Sunday morning. The horseback riders came in as a group and many spectators assembled in the grandstand. Father Dan Thompson led the service. Sandy Matheny accompanied the singing on her guitar. This shot shows part of the horseback riders in the background. Father Thompson holds the music and mike for Sandy as she plays.

PAT SHANNON of Condon won the Sr. Boys Saddle Bronc. Phil Nance, Redmond, Sr. Boys Cow Riding and Tom Smith, Walla Walla, Sr. Boys Bareback.

ALL-AROUND SR. Boy winner was Phil Nance, Redmond.

BRENT MADDOX holds his sisters two buckles and Lisa Hunt holds her silver buckle won with first place in the Sr. Girls' Barrel Race.
