

MR. and MRS. ARTHUR PANTER (Linda Kahr)

Daisies -- Symbol of Happiness Decorate Panter-Kahr Ceremony

Daisies and daisy colors, white, yellow and green were chosen by Linda Kahr for her marriage to Arthur Ray Panter on May 29 at the First Christian Church in Heppner. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Kahr of Rainier and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leland Panter of Riverton.

Baskets of white gladiolas were on the altar and Mrs. Carl Marquardt played traditional wedding music before and after the ceremony.

The bride escorted down the aisle by her father and given in marriage by her father and mother wore a floor length dotted marquisette over crepe dress. The deep yolk and long sheer sleeves were accented by delicate daisy trim. The finger tip veil was accented with an edging of daisies. She carried a bouquet of greens and tiny white carnations. She also carried her grandmother's Belgium lace handkerchief.

The junior stars of the wedding party were Sarena Panter, junior bridesmaid and Averile Panter, flower girl, daughters of the bridegroom. Mrs. Robert Robinson was matron of honor and Miss Sue Keller was bridesmaid. They all wore sunshine yellow dotted swiss dresses that featured a stand-up collar and slightly gathered bodice. The long sleeves were gathered to buttoned cuffs. Each wore a large picture frame hat of crocheted straw and carried a nosegay of yellow daisies and moss green ribbons.

John Libby of Coquille was best man and ushers were the bride's brothers, Del Kahr and Lester Kahr of Rainier.

Mothers in Attendance

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kahr wore a light aqua knit featuring an aqua-yellow neckline scarf and bone accessories. Mrs. Panter wore a light blue a-line knit dress with white accessories. They both wore yellow daisy mum corsages.

Yellow spider mums and greenery were used about the social room. Mrs. Lester Kahr cut the cake. Mrs. Russ Kahr, the bride's aunt served the coffee and Mrs. Norman Kollen, the bridegroom's sister, served the punch.

Miss Karla Weatherford and Miss Lynda Baker attended the gift table and Miss Kathy Kahr, the bride's cousin, circulated the guest book.

Going Away

For going-away the bride wore an aqua pants suit with print scarf of blues and yellows. After a wedding trip to Yellow Stone, the Grand Tetons and Salt Lake City, the couple will reside in Heppner. The bride is Heppner High Home Economics instructor and the bridegroom is employed with Lumber Transport.

Tops Club Names Weight-losing Queens

The Heppner Minimize Tops Club, a group banded together to "Take Off Pounds Sensibly" has named their queens for the months of April and May. To achieve this honor, the member must lose the most weight for that month. The amount of necessary weight loss, however, should be determined by a doctor and done in a sensible manner.

The Queen of the Month of April title was bestowed on both Liz Curtis and Karen Springer, who tied the records. April's Queen was Marie Struthers.

Anyone interested in joining Tops Club should call Lilly Wilson at 676-9257 for information. The group meets every Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Heppner Neighborhood Center.

Mineral Club Plans Sunday Dig

Morrow County Gem and Mineral Society members and families and guests will meet at the old Library Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock for a pot-luck supper. The meeting will follow at 8 p.m. This is the last meeting for the summer. Members are asked to bring items for the Sidewalk Sale on July 23.

At the May meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ownsby of Bend demonstrated the making of art craft jewelry by the wire twist method. The Ownsby's displayed several cases of jewelry they had made. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller.

On Sunday, June 27, members and families and friends plan a field trip to Wilson Creek. Take a sack lunch and digging tools. Interested persons are asked to call Pete McMurry or Mrs. E. E. Gonty before Saturday for directions or transportation.

Smiths Attend Portland Rose Show

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith and her mother, Mrs. Della Murray of Union attended the Portland Rose Show June 12. They were met in Portland by their son, Michael and friend Judy Hill after finals at the University of Oregon. Judy returned to Heppner with the Smiths as a guest for a few days.

While in Portland, they celebrated Mrs. Murray's birthday at Sylvia's Restaurant; attended the Rose Parade and visited the Rose Gardens.

Carnation Club Plans Food Sale

Mrs. Dean Connor and Mrs. Ron Haguewood served delicious cookies baked by Mrs. Haguewood and a cooling punch to the Carnation Club meeting attended by Mrs. Alice McCabe, Mrs. Mildred Padberg, Mrs. Ida Farra, Mrs. Pete McMurry, Mrs. E. E. Gonty, Mrs. Oma Cox, Mrs. Ed Hunt and Mrs. Lincoln Nash.

Highlight of the evening was a money tree presented to Mrs. Carl McDaniel and Georgena.

Food Sale

Members planned a food sale at Evans Lumber Yard July 2 at 10 a.m. Pie and coffee will be sold during the sale.

Mrs. Farra told the group that the Kate J. Young lodge had received the program for the Convention to be held in Pendleton in September. The Lodge discussed having a booth at the Fair.

Trip to Indian Lake

Mrs. Sara Adkins accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Gene Stone to Pilot Rock Sunday where they met their son, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stone and Bob Overfelt.

From Pilot Rock all went to Indian Lake, a man-made lake established three years ago on the Umatilla Indian Reservation. They spent the day fishing and picnicking and enjoying the beautiful scenery. The fishing was fairly good; however, in order to fish, one must have an Oregon fishing license and a reservation license.

Mrs. Adkins described the area, as one worth going to as there are now roads, facility improvements and overnight camping as well as the gorgeous Blue Mountain scenery.

Ione CWA Meeting

The Committee on Women's Activities of Willows Grange will meet Friday, June 25 in the Ione Park at 2:00 p.m., weather permitting. If bad weather should occur, the meeting will be at the grange hall. Mrs. Art Dalzell is hostess and refreshments will be served after the meeting.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel at their home in Hardman Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bleskman of Hermiton and Beth Hynd of Umatilla. Esten Stevens of Monument was a Sunday visitor.

Of Interest to Women

Jaycee Wives Plan For Sidewalk Sale

At the Monday night meeting of the Heppner Jaycee Wives, the group decided to serve Tacos during the July 23 Heppner Side Walk Sale. Their booth will be on the Western Auto corner.

Next week they will put out the toy boxes. Members urge people to put in their cast-off toys all during the year so that the members can take more time to rejuvenate the toys and make doll dresses. Boxes will be at the First National Bank and Evans Lumber Yard.

The members chose "The Real You" for the name of their scrapbook. Fran Privett will chair the February Birthdays at the Hospital. Mrs. Archie Ball was named the new secretary replacing Mrs. Tom Beam who is moving away. Mrs. Ball and Mrs. Privett will co-chairman the Fair Booth.

The meeting was held at the First National Bank conference room with Mrs. Jerry Brace serving.

Jill Chitty is Home

Jill Chitty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Chitty, is home with her folks for the summer. She has just completed her sophomore year at SOC. She had two nice happenings bestowed upon her just before she left school. She was awarded the $50 scholarship by students of Emerald Hall where she was a resident this past year. She will fill the position of Resident Assistant at Aspen Dorm this next year.

She is employed at Knox's part time this summer. She plans to return to SOC this fall.

Want to Lose Five Pounds? Join Tops

The Minimize Tops of Heppner are seeing new members. They have a slogan: "If your figure is not becoming to you—YOU should be coming to TOPS."

The Heppner club meets every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Neighborhood Center. The real challenge is having to weigh in every meeting. This is done by the Weight Recorder and she is the only other one to know the amount. Dues are 10c for every meeting and 10c for every pound gained.

The meetings are morale lifters and determination builders for those who find it hard to lose even those five pounds. Call Marie Struthers at 676-9936 and she will answer your questions.

Visiting Mahoneys

Mrs. Harlan Smith is here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney. Her husband will join her later in the week. They recently moved from Albany to Sherwood.

Baby Shower Honors Mrs. Kenneth Nelson

Mrs. Kenneth Nelson was honored Tuesday afternoon, June 14 with a baby shower at the home of Mrs. Norman Nelson in Lexington.

Hostesses for the afternoon affair were Mrs. Charles C. Jones, Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, Mrs. Wilbur Steagall and Mrs. Norman Nelson.

Decorations were centered around the stork motif, featuring a colorfully decorated cake. Refreshments of cake, coffee and punch were served to the guests.

Attending were Mrs. Larry Prock, Mrs. L. A. McCabe, Mrs. Keith Rea, Mrs. Scott D. McMillan, Mrs. Larry Steinke, Mrs. Milton Morgan, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Ella Burgoyne, Mrs. Adolf Majeske, Mrs. Leo Crabtree, Miss Cheri Smouse, Miss Kristin Nelson and Miss Karen Nelson.

Karen Nelson assisted honor-oe in opening her lovely and useful gifts.
