Ione's Community Effort Voted Top Success

Success is the final word for the 1971 Ione Church Auction staged June 5 at Ione. A record crowd was on hand for the delicious pit barbecued dinner at noon. The long double lines extended past the kitchen windows. The tantalizing odors that wafted out to the already starving people was like a magnet as the line steadily moved forward. People were not disappointed and 440 people ate 330 pounds of the delicious beef. It was served with barbecue sauce, baked beans, selection of salads and assorted cookies.

The Country Store sold out fast with their home-cooked delicacies which included cakes, breads, pies, jams and pickles. The "Second Hand" table was another attraction.

Antiques not designated for the auction were sold by "silent auction". Prospective buyers put their bid through a slot in the envelope. The envelopes were opened at 2 o'clock and the name of the highest bidder was fastened to the object.
