

Vows Exchanged in Lex Ceremony

Miss Linda Charlene Starks became the bride of Kenneth L. Jones at one o'clock June 5, 1971, at the Church of Christ in Lexington. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Starks of Heppner, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones of Lexington. The double ring ceremony was written by the young couple and performed by Pastor Don Johnson.

Miss Sandy Matheny sang "We've Only Just Begun", accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Robert Pitzer, of Hermiston, who also provided the music for the ceremony.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a high-collared white nylon organza gown with bishop sleeves, trimmed with appliqued lace and seed pearls. Her full length veil was of white tulle edged with appliqued lace and was held in place by a small ruffled cap. On her collar, she used a small heirloom gold pin worn by the brides' in her father's family for many years. Her bouquet was a cascade of stephanotis, white carnations, and fern, centered with a pale yellow orchid. The lucky sixpence in her shoe had been brought from England by her father when he returned from World War II.

Mrs. Rick Johnston of Milwaukie, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Sandy Matheny and Miss Linda Eckman, schoolmates of the bride. They wore empire-styled long nylon lace gowns and bows of the same material as head pieces. The gown of the matron of honor was pale pink, and those of the bridesmaids were lilac. Each carried a cascade of mums in colors of pink and lilac.

Mike Burcham of Ontario, was best man, and ushers were Billy Irvin of Hood River, cousin of the bridegroom, and Mike Bunch of Heppner.

Pink Peonies
The church was decorated with large baskets of pale pink peonies and greens on white pedestals arranged by Mrs. Frank Zimmerdahl of Athena. Frank Zimmerdahl of Athena, an aunt of the bride, who also made the pale pink and lilac flowers on white satin bows which decorated the pews.

MR. and MRS. KENNETH JONES

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Rebeckah Hall in Lexington, which also was decorated by Mrs. Zimmerdahl in pale pinks and lilacs. After the traditional cutting by the bride and bridegroom of the three-tiered cake, it was served by Charlene Jones, sister of the bridegroom. Pouring were Mrs. Florence McMillan of Lexington, grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Earl Miller of Lexington, and Mrs. Joe Yocom of Lexington.

Kimberlee Larson passed the wrapped groom's cake and the small net bags of wheat chosen instead of the usual rice, as the bridegroom's father is a well-known wheat rancher. Tricia Keithley was at the guest book and Judy Gentry arranged the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Starks wore a light yellow linen sheath, with white accessories and a corsage of pale green and yellow orchids. Mrs. Jones, the bridegroom's mother, was dressed in an apricot sheath trimmed with lace, white accessories, and her corsage was of white orchids.

Special out-of-town guests were Miss Jacque Johnston of Milwaukie, one-year old niece of the bride. She wore a miniature version of her mother's matron of honor gown. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ambrose, Teri and Mike of Camas, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and Adrienne, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. John McMillan of Woodburn; J. E. Pomeroy of Kelso, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Smith from Hermiston; Miss Cassie Sweeney of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Miller of La Grande; Corleen Smith of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reinartsen of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Henderson and Betty of Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. George Irvin of Hood River; Miss Bonnie Pitzer, of Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cool and family of Pendleton; and John Darnielle of Hood River.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Heppner High School. She was employed in Portland at Francis Ford Company prior to her return to Heppner to prepare for her marriage. The bridegroom graduated from Lexington High School in 1965. He served with the U. S. Navy for four years, and has worked for D. O. Nelson at his ranch out of Lexington since his return from the service.

For her going away costume, Mrs. Jones chose a pale yellow pant suit, with brown accessories, and wore the yellow orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After a honeymoon trip to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., the couple will be living on the D. O. Nelson ranch.

Of Interest to Women

Mrs. Lindstrom Is Grand Adah

Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom of Ione was appointed Grand Adah of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Order of the Eastern Star at the 82nd annual session, which was held last week in Portland. She was installed with other Grand Officers at formal ceremonies in the Memorial Coliseum on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Lindstrom has twice served as Worthy Matron of Locust Chapter No. 119; been a member for nine years of the Advisory Board of Ione Assembly No. 89; served on the Credentials Committee of Grand Chapter three years and assisted three more years, and been on many local committees.

Following Grand Chapter Mrs. Lindstrom attended the opening of Grand Assembly, International Order of Rainbow for Girls at Gill Coliseum in Corvallis on Thursday. She spent Friday and Saturday in Tacoma attending Grand Chapter of Washington at the Memorial Field House on the University of Puget Sound campus.

Mr. Lindstrom, Susan and Christina, and Mrs. Lindstrom's mother, Mrs. Elmer Griffith were also in Portland on Tuesday and Wednesday for the installation ceremony.

Audie Privett On Nuke Carrier

Navy Chief Petty Officer Audie J. Privett, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Privett of Route 1, Heppner, Ore., has deployed to the Western Pacific aboard the nuclear attack aircraft carrier USS Enterprise for duty with the U. S. Seventh Fleet.

Weekend visitors from Vancouver, B. C. to the G. E. Nikanders were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rogers.

Now we have the full name of that precious new arrival at Dave Owens' home. Christian Hoberier Owens. That middle one is a family name which he'll probably never repeat... but Mamas and Grandmas' love 'em.

Sorry but the hostess in a recent Degree of Honor story should have been Marilyn Bergstrom instead of Mrs. Wilbur Steagall.

When Betty at the Wagon-Wheel was leaving to get married, "The Wagon Wheel Coffee Club" gave her a fist full of money and Betty bought a blender!

Visitors at the Gerald Hood home enroute to their trailer home at Blake Acres were Gerald's youngest sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cummings and children and Ronald's mother, Edress Beuge of Portland. They are spending their vacation at the mountain site.

Old Time Music Fete Attracts Local Ladies

The Old Time Fiddlers contest is an annual gathering of fiddlers of every musical persuasion imaginable which culminates into a lively, entertaining and most enjoyable performance every year at Weiser, Idaho. The event draws musicians, judges and spectators from all over the United States with growing popularity each year.

Area residents attending the festivities last weekend were Sara Adkins of Heppner and her cousin, Alvina Padberg of Ione. They drove as far as Elgin the first evening and spent the night with Mrs. Padberg's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Townsend.

The "cousin reunion" was completed when they met Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Casebeer of Bates and James Holcomb of Foster at a Farewell Bend State Park. The group stayed at the lovely 50-unit motel recently constructed at the park while they commuted to Weiser to enjoy the Fiddlers Contest.
