IONE NEWS

For Judy Marie

A lovely baby shower was held at the American Legion Hall Friday for Mrs. John Jepsen, and six months old daughter, Judy Marie. The gift table was decorated with a flower centerpiece of red roses and white daisies. Mrs. Grace McKinney and Mrs. Robert Harrison of Heppner helped Mrs. Jepsen with the gifts. Barbara Palmer and Becky Eubanks passed the gifts. The tea table was centered with a large cake decorated in pink and white, with a miniature bassinet and booties on the top. Mrs. Alice Majeske of Lexington poured the coffee and Mrs. Gladys Heliker presided at the punch bowl. Hostesses were the members of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mr. and Mrs. James Carr opened "The Blue Room" a teenage youth center last Friday evening. The center is located in the rear of the Willow Creek Carpenter shop, and is open to all teenagers. Parents are cordially invited to inspect the premises. At the present they have a pool table, pinball machine, shooting gallery machine, coin operated snack bar which contains candy bars, potato chips, etc., music and soft drinks. The hours are tentatively set at 7:00 to 11:00 p.m. on weekdays, and 12:00 to 11:00 p.m. on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nichols were here visiting Mrs. A. G. Pieper and the John Mollahans last week. Mr. Nichols was enroute from Fort Lewis to Vietnam. Mrs. Nichols will be in Portland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall, while her husband is gone.

Rodeoers to Appear At Chamber Monday

HARVESTING

Carl Troedson said Monday that they started barley harvest last week. A few slopes were ripe and ready to go. They have stopped now until some more is ready to harvest.

Ione Square Dance club had a square dance at Cutsforth Park Saturday evening. Three squares enjoyed the evening.
