4-H Events Point To County Fair

Events of this week involving 4-H members have the "get ready for fair" feeling. A pre-fair style revue practice on Wednesday, July 14, prepared clothing and knitting members for appearances in 4-H style revue.

Livestock members with sheep projects had lambs sheared Tuesday at C & B Livestock.

Fair premium books have been mailed to each 4-H family. New events and activities have been added in the 4-H section, as well as exhibit requirements for new clubs. Premium books are available at the County Extension Office for anyone interested in making fair entries, either 4-H or Open Class.

Albert B. Bowker Passes

Albert B. Bowker, 92, a former Heppner resident, passed on last week in San Diego, Calif. His birthday was June 30.

Mr. Bowker was well known in this part of Oregon having operated the Heppner Garage for many years and later wheat ranching in the Eight Mile area.

Funeral services were at Pacific Beach Mortuary with Dr. Sidney Mayer of the United Methodist Church officiating. Burial was in the Rose City Cemetery, Portland.

Survivors are a brother, Harry Bowker of Portland; a daughter, Mrs. W. F. Duemling, Bremerton, Wash.; a son, A. D. Bowker of San Diego, Calif.

In Bend

Theresa Hughes is in Bend visiting Terrie Hardie. They are horse friends. They planned to go to the Prineville Races while she was down there. Terrie was here with Theresa for the Junior Rodeo.

Riding Camp-out Planned for Weekend

Some members of the Wranglers are planning a riding camp-out for this weekend. This is the over night excursion to take place of the annual overnight ride which had to be cancelled for this year.

Anyone wishing to go on the camp-out must bring their own food and bedding as none will be furnished. There will be a stove available and hay for horses will be furnished. Riders should meet at the rodeo grounds at 8:00 a.m. Saturday morning and some trucks will be available to haul horses. Horses will be taken to the Mud Springs Cabin on Ditch Creek.

For further information contact Jack Wright, who is organizing the camp-out. There will be no charge for the trip as it is a spontaneous outing rather than being sponsored by the Wranglers.

GUESTS TO VISIT NEW BABY

Guest at the John Jepsen home, to welcome the newest member of the family, Judy, were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crum of Bend; and a girlfriend of Mrs. Jepsen, Mrs. Gary Ballweber and her son John of Salem.

GRACE SEERS HOME

Grace Seers is home from the Veterans Hospital in Portland after having surgery. She was home June 20, then back for a checkup July 1. Doctors all say she's doing fine.
