Return from Trip
Mrs. Tom Parsons and daughters Kim and Randi have returned to Irrigon from Portsmouth, Va., and the Parsons family is purchasing the R. V. Allen residence, SK 1 Tom Parsons recently left for Vietnam.

Council Report
The Council heard a report at its July session from City Marshal Perry Pummel, on a meeting he attended at Heppner regarding the City-County Government organizations recently formed. The Council expressed itself as being unanimously opposed to increase of vehicle license fees. In other business, the annual water department report was presented, and 44 services are currently in use. After lengthy discussion of recent policy regarding use of the city's backhoe, a motion was passed that would restrict use of the machine. Work outside the city will only be done in behalf of the city, or in an emergency. Limited work will still be performed for residents within the city. All council members were present.

Family Reunion on Wind River
The family of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hill, Umatilla, held a family reunion at Beaver Camp on Wind River, Wash., last weekend. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Don Leighton and family, Irrigon, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Koch and families, Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Buntin and family, Hermiston.

Camping
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Isom spent the weekend camping at Emling State Park. On Sunday, they attended the Union Pacific Railroad Old Timers annual breakfast, picnic lunch at noon, and other activities throughout the day.

At Ernest Jorgensen Home
Murray Gage-Cole of Vancouver, B. C., has been visiting at the home of his uncle, Ernest Jorgensen the past week. He is a baseball pitcher with the Philadelphia Phillies and will be playing in Walla Walla this summer.

Other guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jorgensen include his sister, Mrs. Thomas Gage-Cole, a niece Mrs. William Monroe, from the Vancouver, B. C., area, and Mrs. Jorgensen's sister Myrna Miller of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Coy spent Monday and Tuesday in Portland at Jennings Lodge, where they attended a Conference of the Northwest District of the Wesleyan Church.

Christian Business Women's Dinner

Charlotte Easterling, Marilyn Stewart, Carmine Wilson, Verdie Isom, Donna Eppenbach and LaVelle Partlow drove to Boardman Tuesday evening to attend a Christian Business Women's dinner meeting at the Boardman Grange Hall. The Rev. and Mrs. Wesley Cronk, pastors of the Irrigon Assembly of God furnished special music for the evening.

Pee Wee Rodeo
Irrigon young people competing in the Pee Wee Rodeo at Hood River over the weekend, were Deeno and Donald Leighton, Wayne Huwe, Dana and Danny Creamer. Wayne Huwe placed 1st in relay, 1st in pony race, 1st in poles and 3rd in the barrels. Donald Leighton placed 1st in relay and 4th in pony race. Dana Creamer placed 2nd in poles and 4th in the pony race, and Danny Creamer placed 2nd in bronc riding and 5th in goat tying. The Leighton and Huwe families, along with Delmer Hug and David of Boardman and Boy Hoyt and children of Hermiston camped together during the rodeo.

Returning from Vacation
Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gurley have returned from a month's vacation which took them through the midwest and southern states. They visited friends in Cedar Rapids, Iowa and drove south to the Mammoth Caves in Kentucky. They drove to Bradenton, Fla., for the graduation of Mrs. Gurley's granddaughter, Shari Poulson, who graduated in the top 4% of her class of 563 seniors. While in Florida, they visited the famous Sarasota Jungle Gardens, the Annheuser Busch Gardens in Tampa and drove over the skyline bridge to St. Petersburg to see the ship "Bounty", an exact replica of the ship in "Mutiny on the Bounty". On returning, they crossed the Rockies over Monarch Pass with an elevation of 11,302 feet. In Idaho, they visited the Don Paulson family and attended the Council Riding Club's Play Day, where the Poulson girls won six ribbons and the senior princess trophy. Gurleys reported that in the southern states, a pleasant surprise was "Welcome Stations" where cold cokes, juices, coffee and doughnuts were served free of charge.

Visiting in Redmond
Mrs. Don Leighton and Dorette drove to Redmond to visit Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leighton. While in the area, they also visited Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Leighton and Mrs. Hazel McConn at Terrebonne, and attended the wedding of Bobby Leighton and Dolores Bishop at Prineville.

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Members of the Greenfield Grange and the Women's Activity Committee of the Grange held a picnic Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen with 21 present. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Bishop, W. G. Seehafer, Faye Anderson and Donald Anderson.

The group voted to postpone the regular monthly meeting of the grange for August, since it would fall on the last day of the Umatilla County Fair.

The Women's Activity Committee held a business meeting and appointed the following card party hostesses: July 20, Mrs. Walter Hayes; July 27, Hazel Carpenter; Aug. 3, Mrs. W. G. Seehafer; Aug. 10, Mrs. Chub Warren.

It was voted to buy some dishes for the grange hall, also four chests of counter top height for the kitchen.

The next meeting of the Committee will be at the home of Mrs. Hazel Miller Aug. 11 at 12:30 p.m.

The Christian Women's Club and the Christian Business and Professional Women's Council from Pendleton met Tuesday night, July 3, at the Greenfield Grange hall in Boardman with 116 in attendance. Preceding the smorgasbord dinner at 7:15 a tour was conducted of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Kennedy which has been remodeled from the old Union Pacific Railroad depot in the old town of Boardman to a modern home with antiques throughout. Mrs. Kennedy later spoke to the meeting on antiques and some of the problems they had with their rebuilding.

Kathy Fassett of Portland was the speaker of the evening. She and her husband, Jack, are with Campus Crusade for Christ International, and they are also on the Executive Board of Young Life in Portland.

Musical numbers were presented by the Rev. and Mrs. Wesley Cronk of Irrigon.

Background music was played by Mrs. Carl Marquardt of Lexington.

Mrs. Neil King and Mrs. Everett Struckmeier were in charge of the decorations.

The dinner was served by the Women's Activity Committee of the grange. The committee in charge was Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Chub Warren, Mrs. Hazel Miller and Mrs. Frank Marlow.

Others assisting were Mrs. Walter Hayes, Mrs. Bernard Donovan, Mrs. Larry Phillips, Mrs. Hazel Carpenter, Mrs. Ronald Black, Mrs. Bill Bates, Mrs. Steve Highley and Faye Anderson.

Riverside Junior-Senior High School students who assisted in serving included Paty Skoubo, Martha King, Casey Kuhn and Robin Lowe.

Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Rollin in Bishop were in charge of setting up the tables.

Mrs. Everett Struckmeier left Sunday to be a teacher and camp nurse at Camp Wi-Ne-Ma near Cloverdale for the week of July 19-24. Her son, the Rev. Dick Struckmeier of The Dalles, will be the director of the camp.

Martha King is also going as a counselor. Mrs. Struckmeier's mother, Mrs. Vern Pettit, accompanied her and will visit at the homes of her sisters, Mrs. Carl Huber at Hillsboro, and Mrs. Russell Parker at Newberg.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harper for a week have returned to their homes. They included Harper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harper of Niles, Mich.; his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harper of Chicago, Ill.; his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Art Jerchow of Yuca Valley, Calif., and Lt. Com. and Mrs. Henry Thew and daughter of Cove.

There were three tables of pinochle in play at the card party held Tuesday at the Greenfield Grange hall, sponsored by the Women's Activity Committee of the grange. Mrs. Frank Marlow was hostess.

Mrs. Sam Beeks of Arlington won high score and low went to Mrs. Don Downey. Mrs. Tom Barnhart and Mrs. Walter Hayes received the traveling pinochle prizes.

Pastor Neil King left Sunday for Camp Morrow at Tygh Valley where he will be camp speaker this week. Bruce Russell accompanied him and will be a counselor at the camp. Children who went included Lora King, Lori Russell, Patrick Nelson, Gene McKee, Toni Moore and Billie Hoag, the latter two of Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ball and daughters Susan and Linda went to Canada last week to attend the Calgary Stampede. Sunday visitors at the Ball home were Mrs. Ball's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Blakely and children Mike and Karen of Pasco, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hoffman and daughter Linda went to Hood River over the weekend to visit at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hoffman.

Ricky and Bobbie Smith of Hermiston are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rash.

FARM SAFETY WEEK

Getting the Safety Habit Pays Off

It's never too early to learn the value of farm safety. Remember, most accidents are preventable if precautions are taken against potential dangers before they strike. So act now to insure your safety and the safety of others.

Protect everyone . . . keep all farm "tools" in top condition, including electric power. Make sure of adequate wiring, proper insulation, no overloaded circuits. Play it safe . . . let power work for you!
