Send
a letter to North Vietnam.

Right now hundreds of Americans are being held captive in North Vietnam.

A few prisoners have made it back. They talk about bamboo cages. Vicious beatings. Malnutrition. Humiliation.

But the North Vietnamese will tell us nothing. And it's this silence that makes our appeal more urgent.

For the families at home, there is no word on who's alive. Who's dead. Or even who's being held. There is nothing. Except the anguish of not knowing.

Maybe you can change this. By writing to the one man who can change it: The President of North Vietnam.

Ask him to release the names of prisoners, allow them to write to their families, and let the Red Cross inspect the prisons to insure proper medical treatment and living conditions.

Remind him that he is bound by the 1949 Geneva Convention which his country signed. And by the Istanbul resolution.

North Vietnamese leaders do care about American public opinion. And if they think they can gain something by bowing to it, they will.

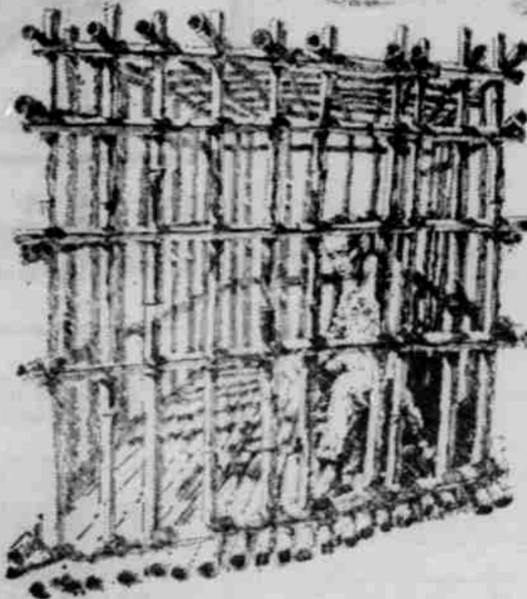

But one letter won't do it. Or a thousand. Maybe it will take millions. So we've got to write now. All of us. And often.

Write a letter tonight. And send it to: Office of the President, Democratic Republic of Vietnam, Hanoi, North Vietnam.

It'll cost you a quarter. But it might save a life.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

Maybe they'll open it.

The Dick Robison family have moved to Portland. Dick is working in a barber shop and plans to enroll at Portland State this fall. He completed two years at BMCC and maintained his barber shop here on hours that fit his schedule.

To England for Visit

Mrs. Ray E. Smith of Yakima, Wn., will soon be returning to her place of birth in England for a visit from Aug. 8-Sept. 6. She was there three years ago after an absence of 22 years and 8 months. Mrs. Smith will be taking a charter flight.

Patients still receiving medical care at Pioneer Memorial Hospital are Charles Davidson of Heppner and Linda Lucas of Kinzua. Linda Connor of Ione was dismissed.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heinrich went to Portland area last weekend to pick berries. They report luscious berries. They picked both Logan berries and Boysens. They were at Gresham and Beaverton. They put in their ice chest and put in their frozen berries. They came home in excellent condition.

Princess Jeri Entertains

Saturday night before the Princess Dance, Princess Jeri Snow entertained the court and friends at a dinner party at Thels. Glass horses had been arranged as centerpieces. The court and Mrs. Peterson sat at the head table. The girls' place markers were little bronze horses with their names on them. Donna's was a "mule".

Everyone had a good time and enjoyed the time visiting and listening to a few brief talks. There were 35 present. Dancing was enjoyed later at the Fairgrounds.

This weekend the Court will go to Chief Joseph Days. They will ride in the Grand Entry and on Saturday in the Grand Parade.

Neighbors Gather For Birthday

Paul Heinrich observed his birthday last week when Mrs. Heinrich and Paula honored him with a neighborhood party. Highlight of the evening was the homemade ice cream, cookies and German Chocolate cake. Mrs. Heinrich's mother, Snoda Blake and her grandchildren from Portland were also guests. They were Mrs. David Fitzgerald and Mrs. Dennis Herbison and Brad.
